TENTH ANNUAL BELLI SEMINAR "A Decade of Trial and Tort Trends"

San Francisco, Friday, July 22, 1960
Washington, D.C., Sunday, August 28, 1960

8:30 a.m. - 11:00 p.m.

Dear Friends:

I am writing this letter to the NACCA members in and around the District of Columbia where the second part of the Belli Seminar will be held, Sunday, August 28, 1960, 8:30 a.m. to 11 p.m. at the Presidential Arms.

We want your cooperation to put on a particularly good Seminar. It's the day before the American Bar Convention.

The San Francisco Seminar will emphasize ten years of trends in the Common Law with emphasis on the leading cases over the ten year period. The speakers will attempt to prognose future trends.

On the other hand, the Washington, D.C. Seminar will emphasize medical specialties not heretofore discussed at prior forensic medicine and "medico-legal" Seminars. On the law side at Washington we shall consider the various federal agencies and courts and specialized practices that the lawyer should know about, but few do.

Of course, I hope you will attend and we hope you will submit a paper or question both for the San Francisco as well as the Washington Seminar.

Dr. Paul Cantor is the Medical Chairman of the Washington Seminar, and J. Kelly Farris of Portland, Oregon with James L. O'Dea of my office, the Legal Chairmen.

All good wishes

MELVIN M. BELLI

The April 18, 1958, issue of the San Francisco News, page 1, columns 3, 4, 5, and 6, contains an article entitled "BUFANO 'Peace' Out in Cold Again", in which BENIAMINO BUFANO attempted to dedicate his 37 foot statue, called "Peace" at the San Francisco Airport. Article stated: "Among those invited: Secy. of State DULLES, Governor KNIGHT, Mayor CHRISTOPHER, BENIAMINO BUFANO." "But, it turned out, the governor would not show for the unveiling at the airport tomorrow if the mayor did."

"DULLES, who is running the State Dept., would not show if BUFANO did, for BUFANO is identified with peace movements unfriendly to the department."

The December 21, 1957, issue of the San Francisco Examiner, page 2, column 6, 7, 8, contains an article entitled "BUFANO Reports Bulganin Full of Red Tinted Peace Dreams" in which Sculptor BENNY BUFANO describes his adventures in Soviet Russia, including a two hour session with Premier NIKOLAI BULGANIN in which they discussed "from Sputnik I and II, nuclear science, art, guided missiles, disarmament and world economy to Hungary, Red China, and the United Nations."

The December 24, 25, 1957 issue of "Novaya Zarya", Russian language newspaper published in San Francisco, page 3, columns 1-4, and page 22, column 6 reveals that a prominent local sculptor BENJAMINO BUFANO returned to San Francisco having flown to Moscow for the celebration of the 40th anniversary of the revolution. BUFANO had a two hour conversation with Soviet Prime Minister NIKOLAI BULGANIN concerning "Sputniks", nuclear science, art, disarmament, economics, Hungary, China and the U. N.

BUFANO pointed out that BULGANIN told him that he and KHRUSCHEV were against the Soviet intervention in Hungary; that they wished to let the Hungarian people themselves decide the question, but they had the minority voices in the Presidium, and as a result the Soviet forces crushed the uprising. BUFANO noted that this showed real democracy in action and that KHRUSCHEV does not have any power.

"These people are entirely different," BUFANO stated. "They desire peace more than we, for the simple reason that they wish to help people."

BUFANO pointed out that Russia made such an impression on him that he offered to make a statue of "Peace" 400 feet in height. Such statue would be out of stainless steel and mosaics and would be the greatest statue in the world. BUFANO noted that BULGANIN took his offer into consideration.

On the letterhead of the Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, Abraham Lincoln Battalion, George Washington Battalion, 715 Ashbury Street, San Francisco, California, dated August 18, 1937, appears the name BENIAMINO BUFFANO as a State Sponsor.

RE: LYNN W. JOHNSTON
MUNICIPAL JUDGE
DOWNEY, CALIFORNIA
MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING

Enclosed for the Bureau are clippings appearing in Los Angeles newspapers November 1 and 2, 1961, which are self-explanatory.

For the Bureau's information, Judge LYNN W. JOHNSTON, Municipal Judge of Downey, California, a Los Angeles suburb has been charged with offering leniency for love to four women defendants. He is under trial charged with bribery.

His defense attorney MELVIN BELLI, a prominent San Francisco lawyer, as a defense attorney intends to show that there was friction between Chief IVAN ROBINSON (WA) of the Downey Police Department and Judge JOHNSTON; that this emanated from ROBINSON's attempting to tell JOHNSTON what sentences he should impose and JOHNSTON's opinion that the Downey Police Department was not properly handling narcotics violations. BELLI appears to be preparing to show that in view of the lack of cooperation between ROBINSON and JOHNSTON that JOHNSTON thereupon set out to conduct his own investigation into narcotics matters and that this was the reason he was in contact with defendants who appeared before him in court. BELLI apparently intends to show that because of the conflict between JOHNSTON and ROBINSON and JOHNSTON's investigation into narcotics at Downey that ROBINSON and the Downey Police Department thereupon set out to frame JOHNSTON and that the entire case in this matter is a frame-up of JOHNSTON by ROBINSON and the Downey Police Department.

1 This office has followed the matter in the press

5 ROBINSON was a National Academy graduate.

8 On November 1, 1961, S. J. TRAINOR, Chief of the 9 Federal Bureau of Narcotics telephonically contacted this
10 office and made reference to instant trial of JOHNSTON.
11 TRAINOR stated that an investigator for the District
12 Attorney's Office advised that as part of its defense,
13 JOHNSTON's attorneys would claim that JOHNSTON wrote a
14 letter to the FBI. The investigator asked TRAINOR whether 15 a letter complaining of narcotics conditions in Downey had 16 been written to the Federal Bureau of Narcotics. TRAINOR
17 stated he had checked their files but could not locate any
18 letter from the Judge. TRAINOR wondered if such a letter
19 had been directed to this office inasmuch as he knew we 20 promptly referred narcotics matters to his office, feeling
21 we might be able to find such a letter which he was unable
22 to find. A search was made of Los Angeles files and no
23 such letter was located.
24
25 [REDACTED] b7C

26
27 TRAINOR was recontacted and advised that we had 28 no record of a letter from Judge JOHNSTON. He was advised,
29 however, that our files are confidential and that he should
30 not tell the investigator from the District Attorney's
31 Office the results of the check of our files. TRAINOR
32 stated he understood and would not make any statement that
33 a letter from Judge JOHNSTON had not been sent to the FBI.
34

36
37 [REDACTED] stated that attorney
38 MELVIN BELLI had turned the JOHNSTON trial into a trial of 39 ROBINSON, and was attempting to make ROBINSON the 40 defendant. He said that BELLI was one of the most vicious
41 and unscrupulous individuals that he had ever encountered;
42 that BELLI was making numerous unfounded allegations against
43 ROBINSON; and that [REDACTED] did not know how to counter
44 this type of attack.

19 of this article is enclosed herewith. The article in effect
20 states that the feud between Judge JOHNSTON and Chief

26 [REDACTED]

27 [REDACTED] stated that questions in his mind

30 went on to state that he felt this data put out by BELLI was 31 completely false and that he recognized he would have been 32 aware of any investigation. [REDACTED] stated that his 33 knowledge of FBI jurisdiction is such that FBI does not 34 handle narcotics matters, nor would they be interested in

37 A complete review of all possible references in

By airtel, the Los Angeles Office advised that Judge Lynn W. Johnston has been charged with offering leniency for love to four women defendants. In effect, the charges are that Johnston would take care of a probation violation or similar matter if the woman would pay the judge "little visits." Melvin Belli, a prominent San Francisco and Los Angeles lawyer, as a defense apparently intends to show that there was friction between Chief Ivan Robinson (NA) of the Downey Police Department and Judge Johnston; that this emanated from Robinson's attempting to tell Johnston what sentences he should impose and Johnston's opinion that the Downey Police Department was not properly handling narcotics violations. Johnston claims this whole thing is a frame-up by Robinson. Robinson claims that he does not know Judge Johnston very well but he did know of his extremely bad reputation for chasing after women before he was appointed to the Bench. According to Robinson, Belli has turned the Johnston trial into a trial of Robinson and attempting to make Robinson the defendant. [redacted] described Belli as one of the most vicious and unscrupulous individuals he has ever encountered. The Director noted on the airtel that Belli is "a shyster!"

In connection with the trial, a representative of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics contacted the Los Angeles Office on 11-1-61 advising that he had received information from the local District Attorney's Office that as part of Johnston's defense he would claim that Johnston wrote a letter to the FBI complaining of narcotics conditions in Downey. The Federal Bureau of Narcotics in Los Angeles apparently has no record that such a letter was written to them and there is no record that Johnston wrote to the Los Angeles Office of this Bureau in this regard. It is also noted that an item in the 11-1-61 issue of the "Daily Signal" Belli charged in his opening statement in the trial that the feud between Johnston and Robinson's men worsened after Johnston complained to the FBI and Robinson destroyed an arrest report in a heroine case. [redacted]

Bufiles have been checked and no record could be located of any letter from Johnston. The possibility exists, however, that if such a letter had been sent here to FBI Headquarters and it solely concerned narcotics, it is not under our jurisdiction, it would have been referred to the Federal Bureau of Narcotics.

1 by form and we would have no record of it. This is an approved procedure where
2 it is a matter in another agency's jurisdiction. With regard to Belli, we had
3 had difficulty with him in the past. In 1947, he charged that FBI Agents were 4 harassing his clients and he was accused by an insurance company of unethical
5 practices in soliciting clients. In 1941, he sent greetings to the Soviet Union in 6 support of the Red Army's struggle against Nazi Germany. In 1949, he protested
7 the prosecution of 12 communist leaders to Alben Barkley.

10
11
12
13 in June, 1950, he entertained the Yugoslav Counsel General at San 14 Francisco in his home. In 1951, his name appeared on the letterhead of the 15 "Loyalties Against Perjury Oaths for the Bar" which group opposed the requirement
16 that candidates for admission to the Bar and members of the California Bar take 17 a loyalty oath. In 1957, Herbert Resner, an admitted former member of the 18 Communist Party and former attorney for the Party, was associated with Belli.
19 In 1959, Belli received notoriety for defending racketeer Mickey Cohen and Cohen
20 claimed that Belli was going to defend stripteaser Candy Barr, a girlfriend of 21 Cohen's. In addition to this, Belli has pulled such unethical tricks as in August,
22 1959, when he introduced west coast mobster Mickey Cohen at a seminar on legal 23 tactics during the American Bar Association Convention. Cohen was introduced as 24 "Professor C'Brien," an expert on tax evasion and other criminal cases. The 25 Director has stated that our San Francisco Office should keep alert for any 26 violations of law by Belli as his record is questionable.

MELVIN MOURON BELLI
INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

On November 30, 1962, Mrs. Verde L. Crenshaw, Passport Office, United States Department of State, made available a file which contained the following information:

On July 8, 1958, ^{MRS} Passport Number 1141530 was issued at San Francisco, California, to Melvin Mouron Belli based on an application filed by him at San Francisco, California, on the same date. The passport was restricted against travel to Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary and those portions of China, Korea and Viet-Nam under communist control. According to the application Belli was born on July 29, 1907, at Sonora, California. His permanent residence was 1228 Montgomery Street, and his mailing address 240 Stockton Street, both San Francisco, California. He intended to depart from San Francisco by air on July 12, 1958, for a trip of three weeks' duration to England, Germany, France, Italy and Spain for the purpose of attending a Bar Association meeting in Cologne (country not stated). His parents were identified as Caesar A. Belli, who was born in 1885 at Eureka, Nevada, and Leonie Mouron, who was born in 1887 at Sonora, California. Both were deceased. Belli showed that he was last married in April, 1956, to Joy Belli, who was born in 1928 at Los Angeles, California, and was presently residing with him. Belli's occupation was shown as that of lawyer. On September 1, 1960, this passport was renewed at Washington, D. C., for a trip to Bulgaria, Turkey, Italy and France, the purpose of this travel being set forth as "lawyer-author".

On August 24, 1962, Passport Number C-529868 was issued at Los Angeles, California, to the above individual, based on his application filed at Los Angeles on August 20, 1962. According to the application his permanent residence was Belli Building, San Francisco, California, and his mailing address Continental Bank Building, 873 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California.

The application showed that Belli was last married on March 22, 1954, to Joy Turner Belli, who was born at Los Angeles, California, in December, 1930. The application further showed that Belli had been married to one Betty Ballantine, who was born in California in 1910, but that this marriage had been terminated by divorce.

He intended to depart from Los Angeles by air on September 1, 1962, to travel as a tourist for one month to Italy, France, England, Albania, Yugoslavia, Greece, Hungary and Bulgaria. This passport was restricted against travel to Albania, Cuba and those portions of China, Korea and Viet-Nam under communist control. By letter dated November 15, 1962, the Passport Office in Washington, D. C., validated this passport for one round trip to Cuba not to extend beyond January 30, 1963, for the purpose of writing articles for a law review.

The file showed that passports had previously been issued to Belli in 1929, 1947, 1949, 1954 and 1956 for travel to various European countries and, in 1954, to Japan.

Dear Doctor Miller:

It was very nice meeting you recently and I am looking forward to seeing you on my next visit to Washington. It is my hope that we can possibly get together on some FBI pictures that I might use for a new book I am doing on criminal law.

* MODERN TRIALS (Abridged Edition) is the one-volume abridgment for the layman as well as the law student of the famed six-volume MODERN TRIALS, which was the first and is the best-selling law book of its kind in the last ten years.

This current abridged edition is particularly slanted for general reader as well as law student and lawyer interest. We expect a large sale to the lay public. It will be followed by my demonstrative evidence criminal law book, a new venture in publishing, since it, too, has been written for laymen as well as lawyers.

The book is being accepted for teaching use in many of the major law schools of the United States, but we are particularly interested now that the layman see what is the law, of what it is made, and how it is practiced. We hope that this is the book which tells him, as well as the law student.

We have asked our publishers, Bobbs-Merrill, to send you a copy of this book and are hoping that you might be able to do a review for us.

All good wishes,

MELVIN M. BELLI

Dear Mr. Belli:

Your letter of March 8, 1963, addressed to Special Agent Fred M. Miller, was noted by Mr. Hoover as he was leaving the city. He wanted me to inform you that as a matter of policy, it will not be possible for Dr. Miller to comment concerning your book, and the heavy pressure of our official responsibilities precludes our furnishing the other assistance you requested.

M. A. Jones to DeLoach Memo
Re: Mr. Melvin M. Belli
San Francisco, California

Consultations with CIA

[REDACTED]

In an airtel dated 11/2/61, Los Angeles furnished details concerning Belli's defense of a local judge who had been charged with offering leniency for love to four women defendants [REDACTED] Downey, California, at that time described Belli as one of the most vicious and unscrupulous individuals he had ever encountered. The Director noted on the airtel that Belli is "a shyster."

In November, 1962, we received information from the State Department that Belli was intending to visit several foreign countries including Cuba.

OBSERVATIONS:

In view of Belli's unsavory reputation, we certainly do not want to offer him any kind of cooperation nor do any thing to encourage further contact of Bureau personnel by him.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the attached in-absence letter be sent to Belli advising of our inability to be of assistance, and that no further acknowledgement be afforded him.

BACKGROUND:

My memo of 3-13-63 noted receipt of a letter from captioned individual by SA Fred M. Miller of the Laboratory in which Belli expressed the hope he might receive assistance on FBI pictures he desired to use in a new book he was writing. Belli referred to another book he authored, "Modern Trials," and said he had asked the publisher to send SA Miller a copy in the hope the latter might be able to review it. SA Miller's only contact with Belli had been at a recent scientific convention in Chicago when Belli had congratulated Miller on a paper he had delivered.

In view of Belli's unsavory reputation, he was afforded an in-absence response on 3-13-63 advising of our inability to be of assistance to him and of the fact that SA Miller would not be able to review his book.

CURRENT DEVELOPMENT:

A copy of Belli's book, "Modern Trials," has now been received by SA Miller. It has not been reviewed; however, it appears to be a text devoted to the handling, preparation and trial of cases, with the emphasis on negligence matters.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) Since Belli was informed that it would not be possible for a Bureau representative to review this book, it is recommended that no further acknowledgement be sent to him.

(2) That the attached copy of "Modern Trials" be retained in the Bureau Library.

Ruby's Plea To Be Based On Insanity

DALLAS, Dec. 10 (UPI) — Melvin Belli, spectacularly successful San Francisco lawyer, took over the defense for self-appointed executioner Jack Ruby today and said Ruby will plead innocent by reason of insanity to the slaying of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

Belli said he has no objections to live television coverage of the trial.

"We will be ready by the scheduled trial date of Feb. 3," he said. "We will plead him not guilty by reason of insanity."

Belli said he may ask for a change of venue to move the trial from Dallas. Belli said he will be Ruby's chief counsel.

Belli visited Ruby in his Dallas County jail cell along with attorneys Tom Howard of Dallas, Sam S. Brody of Los Angeles and J. H. Tona-hill of Jasper, Tex.

Howard took the Ruby case hours after Ruby shot and killed Oswald in the basement of the Dallas city jail Nov. 24, before a Nation-wide television audience.

The Director has asked for a memorandum on Melvin Belli, who, according to newspaper releases of this date, will represent Jack Ruby who will soon be tried for the slaying of accused Presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald. Belli, according to the news releases, will be ready by the scheduled trial date of 2/3/63 and has indicated that defense counsel will plead Ruby not guilty by reason of insanity.

There is attached a memorandum dated 3/13/63 which contains pertinent information in Bureau files concerning Belli. see 105-49865-19

The only pertinent additional information subsequent to the 3/13/63 memorandum is contained in the file of Jean Kidwell Pestana, a Los Angeles attorney who is active in the Communist Party in Los Angeles, California. Pestana was subpoenaed before a House Committee on Un-American Activities public hearing in Los Angeles on 7/2/63 and immediately requested continuance, stating that she was not represented by counsel as her attorney, Melvin Belli, was unable to attend the hearings at that time. In an appearance before the House Committee on Un-American Activities in Washington, D. C., on 8/5/63 Pestana invoked the Fifth Amendment in answer to Cuba travel and Communist Party membership.

Ruby's Lawyer Has Reputation As Courtroom 'Barrymore'

By William Flynn
Special to The Washington Post

SAN FRANCISCO—Melvin Mouron Bell is a genius with a split personality. He is a lawyer. He is an actor. He will display both these personalities when he strides into the spotlight of world attention as the trial of slick-fired Jack Ruby, the pistol-wielding assassin of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy, begins in Texas. Veteran court watchers in California and a number of other states are ready to give eight to three that jurisprudence in Texas never will be the same again when the Bell-Ruby trial concludes. The system seldom is after the white-haired lawyer from the rugged Mother Lode county of California concludes and departs. Melvin Mouron Bell does more than "practice law." He makes it, and while blazing new trails in the evolution of the ancient and honorable English Common Law, he combines the best of John Drew, Guy Barrymore, Maurice Evans and Richard Burton to provide the audience with a theatrical performance that seldom is equaled in the history of the modern theater.

'King of Torts'
During a 3-decade career, Bell's genius for the law has made him wealthy — and famous from the plaintiff's point of view; and infamous as far as insurance companies and the American Medical Association are concerned. Winning the proud title of "King of Torts," Bell has eased the pain and suffering of hundreds of clients by giving them two-thirds of the net he won from the insurance companies in prosecuting their claims for damages. They have received several millions of dollars, which is the reason the San Francisco attorney is a "dirty name" to the liability carriers for individuals and members of the medical profession. He also has practiced criminal law, defending everyone from killers to forgers. Some of his capital-crime clients have sent him Christmas greetings from life imprisonment cells or from homes established after acquittal. Others haven't. They died in San Quentin Prison's apple green, 8-sided gas chamber. Each of his cases is presented with a flair. His submission of evidence is dramatic, flamboyant. The secret of his success is meticulous preparation and attention-compelling presentation and argument.

Studies at Johns Hopkins
He knows more medicine than many a specialist. He should. He studies annually at Johns Hopkins to keep abreast of the latest in medical science. He knows the law. Once he sought damages for a woman whose shapely limb had been severed above the knee by the flanged wheels of a San Francisco municipal railway street car. As the trial progressed, he kept touching, turning, shifting a long butcher-paper-wrapped package at his table. Not once did he refer to it. But its almost constant movement fascinated the men and women of the jury. Finally he asked his client to stand. She did — on one leg. Then, and only then, did Bell raise the package, slowly unwrap it — to display an artificial limb. He carried it to the one-legged woman, asked her to fit it to the thigh stump. She did. She then stood wan but brave before the jury, supporting herself on one silken clad leg and one mechanical device. The jury awarded her $100,000 settlement, a record in those days. Since then the sum for Belli verdicts has reached $675,000, given one plaintiff in an action against Cutter Laboratories in the Salk vaccine case that in several cases affected individuals with polio.

Another case he tried was on behalf of a 600-pound defendant. There was a technical medical problem involved. To emphasize to the jurors that his client had difficulty in getting around because of his weight, Belli arranged to have him swung into the third floor window of the court room by a crane.

Even before he was a professional lawyer, Belli was aware of the power of the courts. He was refused his high school diploma because, as he explains, "I was taken with drink the night of graduation." He sued as a citizen and won, forcing the school board to give him the document.

He was graduated from the University of California law school in the midst of the Depression. He passed the California Bar examination but there was no job in law offices for the future "King of Torts." He became a relief investigator.

In that role he was "vagged," mugged, fingerprinted, jailed, and "floated" out of town with a warning from the police court judge to never let his shadow touch ground in San Diego again.

But he did return — years later. Then he appeared as counsel for the plaintiff before the same judge and qualified himself by presenting his San Diego rap sheet, complete with front and profile photos, and fingerprints. The judge could do nothing but commend him for his rehabilitation.

He's Always the Star

His voice is soft, mellow, or rages with righteous indignation at the cupidity of his opponents. His suits are dark, the best from Saville row. His shirts are handmade with ruffled fronts from which wink diamond studs, sometimes hidden by a flowing, Byron tie. His shirt cuffs are starched to board stiffness. His black boots are high-heeled and highly polished.

When he sums up in a damage suit, he uses a blackboard. He lists so many thousands of dollars for this loss and that pain and strikes a grand total. Once there was method in his misadmission.

Juror Corrects Addition

A San Francisco Superior Court judge became so transfixed with the itemized list of damages that when Belli struck the total with a flurry of chalk dust, the jurist exclaimed:

"You don't mean $200,000, Mr. Belli, your client should have $300,000."

Belli scanned the figures, added, again, the jury fascinated. He struck out the $200,000 total, wrote $300,000. The jurors took five minutes to award the client $300,000.

This use of demonstrative evidence, including skeletons and models of vital organs, has caused Dean Roscoe Pound of Harvard Law School to describe the Ruby defense counsel as "a master of this mode of presenting cases," and as a "contribution to the administration of justice."

Belli modestly says Dean Pound is a fine judge of lawyers.

He also would agree with the estimate that he is a genius — and he lives the role to the hilt.

Every morning his secretary gives him 10, brand new $10 bills.

"A man has to have walking around money," he explains, slipping them into a solid silver money clip.

He confounds wine waiters with his knowledge of vintages.

He drives a Rolls Royce but frequently has it repainted — beige, purple, silver, black, rose.

"The Rolls is the best car," he says, "but, after all, even a Rolls shouldn't be boring."

Free Flight to Fancy

For night time and nippy San Francisco daytime wear he prefers a crimson lined cape rather than a Chesterfield, velvet-collared topcoat to set off his black Homburg.

But it is in his office and his home that he has really given free flight to his fancy for the spectacular.

Raising his second family with his third wife at 57, he lives on the top floor of a three floor flat building, he owns on Telegraph Hill in San Francisco. On the roof, providing a breath-taking view of San Francisco Bay, he has a gigantic barbecue in

The interior of the home is done in the velvets — crimson to black — of the Gold Rush days of California. One built-in bookshelf is of special interest. It holds the volumes he has written, more than a score, ranging from frothy bits such as "Life and Law in Russia" to the three volume "Lockett Trials" that is a textbook for members of his profession.

"I've made more than $100,000 out of that one," he recalls.

Office Near Home

His office, just a few blocks away down Telegraph Hill along Montgomery street, is a renovated 100-year-old building. The exterior is done in the used brick, black iron work fashion of the Quarter in New Orleans.

A Philadelphia trained lawyer, William Sweeney, now of New York, once visited Belli building. After surveying the garish interior of Belli's office complete with 100-year-old bar, Mother Lode antiques, a steam room in the basement reached by sliding down a man's brass pole, Sweeney wandered into the street, obviously suffering from shock.

"If this was in Philadelphia," he muttered, "the man would be disbarred."

That has occurred to the ethics committee of the California State Bar Association at times, too, but nothing has been done about it.

As for the American Bar Association, Belli says:

"I hang that certificate over the bowl in the wash room."

No Ordinary Counsel

Thus, it may be said, Jack Ruby has no ordinary defense counsel to try to win freedom on the grounds he was insane when he fired the fatal shot that killed the alleged killer of President Kennedy.

And it is also certain beyond a reasonable doubt that Melvin Mournon Belli will provide Ruby with more than a competent defense.

He always gives his client that defense. They have hundreds of thousands of dollars to prove it.

And those who lost cases that resulted in judgments may not be Melvin Mournon Belli but they respect him; and fear him.

He accepts gratitude with respect, and fear as his due but is not overbearing.

After all, "genius" is a reward.

Melvin M. Belli, Jack Ruby's lawyer, has earned a reputation for being a garish genius.

Texas Bar Asks Ban On Practice by Belli

AUSTIN, Tex., March 30 (UPI)—The State Bar today asked permission from the Texas Supreme Court to file for a permanent injunction to bar San Francisco attorney Melvin Belli from practicing law in the State of Texas.

The suit was filed for the State Bar of Texas by Davis Grant, general counsel, and his assistant, L. Money Adams Jr.

The Bar accused Belli of "violent outbursts and outrageous conduct" following the death penalty sentence given his former client, Jack Ruby, in a Dallas County courtroom two weeks ago.

The motion quoted Belli as saying after the verdict, "May I thank this jury for a victory for bigotry. You can rest assured we will appeal this to a court where there is justice. We will take it to a court outside Dallas."

The State Bar's motion said, "Such flagrant violations of the canons of ethics have shocked the consciences of not only the lawyers of Texas and the Nation, but the public as well."

The Bar filed a 10-page petition accompanied by 40 pages of newspaper article reproductions. All the articles involved Belli's criticism of Dallas, District Judge Joe Brown and the Ruby trial jury.

TO : Mr. Mohr

DATE: February 25, 1964

FROM : C. D. DeLoach

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

Handwritten: b(7)(c) b(7)(D) [initials]

[redacted] called for the Director at 12:07 p. m., 2/25/64. Upon being informed of the Director's absence from the office, he asked to speak to me. I was at the Bethesda Naval Hospital at the time for a physical examination. I called [redacted] back at 3:30 p. m.

[redacted] advised that one of their good young reporters, who is considered to be very reliable, has learned from sources in Dallas, also from members of Congress and from one recently released FBI Agent, that both Jack Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald were informants of the FBI prior to the time President Kennedy was assassinated. [redacted] stated that his reporter had pledged not to reveal the name of this former Agent. He also indicated that Melvin Belli, the attorney for the defense in the Ruby case, had told his reporter that Oswald was an FBI informant.

The alleged sources in Congress who told the [redacted] reporter about this matter additionally advised him that it was entirely possible that J. Edgar Hoover at FBI Headquarters in Washington would never be consulted about local informants. The reporter stated that this appeared to be sufficient proof that Ruby and Oswald could have been informants without the Director or FBI Headquarters knowing about it. Belli told the reporter that he wouldn't care to comment so much regarding Ruby's connections with the FBI but that he knew from reliable sources that Ruby had been an informant for 8 weeks and Oswald an informant for 13 weeks. Belli additionally told the reporter that Ruby informed gamblers and people of low character, and that Oswald was a security-type informant.

[redacted] said he wanted to let the Director know about this matter at once. I told him that the Director already knew of this rumor that that this was an old, old story without a scintilla of truth to it. I went into some detail with [redacted] explaining that these careless rumors came from 3 different sources: (1) I explained the matter of Senator Eastland, Chairman of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, and Jay Sourwine, Counsel of that Committee, having picked up this information from a [redacted] who is employed by Senator Strom Thurmond. I told [redacted] we had confronted [redacted] and he had backed down. [redacted] claimed that he merely deduced such facts on the basis of his prior experience in military intelligence. I told [redacted] that [redacted] had used faulty logic and was a "dreamer"; (2) I mentioned the drive by the Communist Party to

b7(c) b7(d)

Disprove the fact that Oswald was a confirmed Marxist by alleging that Oswald was a spy for either the FBI or CIA. (3) I told [redacted] that the "recently released former Agent" was undoubtedly one [redacted] who was dismissed with prejudice for making false and defamatory statements about the FBI. I additionally mentioned the incident involving the reporter by the name of Hudkins who had refused to back up his statements previously made to Henry Wade, the prosecutor in Dallas, Texas. Insofar as Belli was concerned, I told [redacted] he might like to consider the source inasmuch as Belli would use every subterfuge possible in order to get publicity for himself and to get his client, Ruler, off the hook on a plea of insanity.

[redacted] agreed that the allegations were undoubtedly false and stated that he was satisfied and that no action would be taken by the [redacted] papers. He stated, however, that I call [redacted] publisher of the [redacted] and tell him the same facts. He stated [redacted] could be reached at [redacted] his listed number at the [redacted] offices.

I talked to [redacted] at approximately 4:20 p. m., 2/25/64, and he related to me the same facts as previously given by [redacted], however, added that the reporter [redacted] Melvin Belli making the above-mentioned allegations; [redacted] went into some detail refuting the same allegations that both [redacted] and [redacted] had mentioned. In conclusion, I told [redacted] that Belli's allegations, particularly [redacted] would necessitate our interviewing him and asking him to put up or shut up. He stated he thought this would be necessary and agreed it should be done. [redacted] concluded by stating that the article would not be published in the [redacted] papers; however, he felt that Belli would continue his gabbing and some other paper might carry these allegations. I told him that other publications had already carried almost the same rumors. I mentioned former Agent [redacted] article in "SAGA" magazine as well as the article in "Nation" magazine and the articles by the Communist Party. [redacted] was not familiar with these articles, however, stated he could see the rumors were being well played.

Both [redacted] and [redacted] were completely satisfied concerning our refutation of these allegations.

ACTION:

It is suggested this memorandum be forwarded to the Domestic Intelligence Division and that consideration be given to immediately interviewing Belli concerning the above-mentioned allegations which he allegedly gave to [redacted] reporter [redacted]. Neither [redacted] desired to reveal the name of their reporter. I did not push them in this regard in view of their close friendship to the Director and the Bureau. I do feel, however, that if it is necessary [redacted] they claim the reporter has obtained from Belli.

2 that such information had any place in the Jack Ruby trial. He pointed 3 out that if he brought this up in the trial he would certainly have to 4 prove it and he would never think of doing so without seeing if it were
5 true from the FBI.

7 Belli stated that he had talked to numerous reporters and 8 news media during the past several weeks and he could not recall with 9 whom he had talked. However, he did recall, to the best of his memory,
0 that approximately 3 weeks ago someone asked him if he had heard the
1 rumor that Oswald had been an informant of the FBI and he believed that
2 the person asking this question was a reporter. To the best of his
3 memory Belli stated he told this person that he had heard this rumor
4 around the courthouse. He does not recall exactly what he said but he 5 is certain he never said anything to the effect that Oswald had been 6 an informant for 13 weeks or that he had been a security informant.
7 Belli was again emphatically advised that Lee Harvey Oswald has never 8 been an informant of the FBI. He again reiterated that he does not 9 think so and never would place any credence in this rumor.

1 Belli was also advised that we received information that he
2 had also stated that Jack Leon Ruby had been an informant of the FBI
3 for a period of 8 weeks. Both he and Tonahill stated that they had at 4 no time ever heard anyone state that Ruby was an informant or infer
5 that he was an informant. Belli insisted that he be permitted to call
6 his other co-counsel to the room, Phillip Burleson, and ask him if he
7 had ever heard this rumor. Burleson upon being asked the same question
8 as to whether or not he had ever heard of Ruby being an informant or a 9 rumor to that effect, advised that he had never heard a rumor from 0 anyone to that effect.

2 Belli, Tonahill and Burleson all stated that they had never told
3 anyone or inferred to anyone that Ruby was an informant of the FBI. Belli
4 stated that he believed he and his co-counsels would have known if Ruby
5 had been an informant of the FBI since they had questioned him in detail
6 about his entire life and he is certain Ruby would have told him if he
7 had been an informant. He stated Ruby had never mentioned in any manner
8 whatsoever cooperating with the FBI.

0 Upon conclusion Belli stated that he was getting "damned tired"
1 of Assistant District Attorney William Alexander planting rumors which
2 Alexander thought Belli might fall for and it was his opinion that
3 Alexander was probably the source concerning the rumor that Oswald was 4 an informant of the FBI. Belli then specifically asked SAC Shanklin if
5 Ruby had ever been an informant as this was the first that he had ever
6 heard of it and he was advised that Ruby had never been an informant of 7 the FBI. Belli asked no further questions.

SUBJECT

Memorandum Branigan to Sullivan 2-28-64, set forth results of interview by SAC Shanklin, Dallas, and SA Vincent E. Drain with Melvin Belli, attorney for Jack Ruby, concerning allegation that Belli had stated Oswald and Jack Ruby were FBI informants. Belli stated he had heard rumors to that effect, however, placed no credence whatsoever in these rumors and that in his opinion these rumors originated with William Alexander, Assistant District Attorney, who had tried to plant other rumors on him. It was Belli's feeling that Alexander thought Belli might fall for this trap. It was recommended that no worth-while purpose would be served

[REDACTED]

On 3-3-64, SAC Shanklin advised that [REDACTED] was contacted by him, and it was pointed-out to [REDACTED] that we keep getting indications that [REDACTED] is the source of the rumors that Oswald was an FBI informant. It was pointed out to him that [REDACTED] denied having any information in this regard. It was also pointed out that [REDACTED] we want him to put it on the line or stop talking. [REDACTED] said he felt that any information along this line was the old rumor, as he has told [REDACTED] to stop talking and that he [REDACTED] is at present the only one on his staff supposed to talk to the press. He volunteered that he had heard nothing regarding this rumor around the courthouse in recent weeks. He stated that this rumor of Oswald being an informant of the FBI or CIA had no place in the trial of Ruby, and that it would not be brought up by him. He stated he would [REDACTED] quiet and make no further remarks in this regard.

The memorandum of 2-28-64 referred to above also recommended that in order to conclusively pin down whether Belli

ONLY a lawyer with the unshakeable ego of Melvin Belli would expect to win acquittal for a man who committed murder before 50 million witnesses. But in Belli's serene view, the prosecution has anything but an airtight case against his client, Jack Ruby, who started in TV's only live killing.

Belli has already won a pre-trial psychiatric examination for Ruby, self-appointed executioner of President Kennedy's presumed assassin, thus setting the stage for a temporary-insanity defense. This in itself is a victory, since there was no precedent in Texas law for court-appointed psychiatrists.

The lawyer's confidence in his ability to save Ruby from the electric chair is genuine enough—and it is also a carefully polished and theatrically exploited facet of the Belli image that has swayed jurors for 30-odd years.

"You must believe in your talents," he says blandly, "because when you face a jury you are completely alone. If you are nervous and afraid, the jury will sense it."

'In Court I Must Feel I'm Better Than My Opponent'

"Call it ego if you wish," he concedes. "All I know is that when I am in court I must feel that I am better than my opponent. There may be better lawyers than I, but so far I haven't come upon any of them in court."

The author of this refreshingly outspoken appraisal of himself is, on the record, perhaps the most successful personal injury lawyer in the long history of torts, which is legalless for a suit for damages based on a wrongful or negligent act.

Belli estimates that he wins at least $1 million a year for his clients, most of whom come to him after getting run over by streetcars, mangled in factory machinery or victimized in some fashion by allegedly careless or inept doctors.

Just two weeks ago, his habit of thinking big paid off in a $24,396 judgment for the widow and children of 31-year-old pianist William Kapell, who was killed in an air crash in 1953. Belli had asked a cool million, basing his demands on Kapell's high earning potential.

Though million-dollar awards are rare even for him, a hundred or so of his clients have been the grateful recipients of $100,000 judgments in negligence suits. He takes a third if he wins and nothing if he loses, which isn't often.

Belli's impressive batting average against insurance companies hasn't exactly endeared him to the losing underwriters, who
