Daily Quote...

"If you just look at how we are perceived in the world and the kind of criticism we have taken over Guantanamo, Abu Ghraib and renditions," Powell said in an interview, "whether we believe it or not, people are now starting to question whether we're following our own high standards."

- Former Secretary of State Colin Powell in Washington Post article, today

"The Geneva Convention . . . is just not some concept; it has saved lives . . . we cannot and must not and need not change the Geneva Convention in a way that would be perceived as backing out of it."
