BACKGROUND

Originally enacted as title II of the Act of July 30, 1953 (ch. 167, 67 Stat. 230), the Small Business Act of 1953 was made a separate Act, renamed the Small Business Act, and revised by Public Law 85-384 on July 18, 1958. A month later, by Public Law 85-536, Congress enacted the Small Business Investment Act of 1958. Since 1958, the Acts have been amended a number of times and have been supplemented by provisions in other Acts that, while they do not amend either Act by their terms, have the effect of modifying the Acts. Some of the amendments added provisions that are now obsolete, and some added provisions that are inconsistent with other provisions.

The Acts are classified to separate chapters of title 15 of the United States Code. The bill restates the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 631 et seq.), the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 (15 U.S.C. 661 et seq.), and related provisions of other Acts as a new positive law title of the United States Code. The new positive law title replaces the former provisions, which are repealed by the bill.

The bill was prepared by the Office of the Law Revision Counsel as part of the Office's ongoing responsibility under section 205(c) of House Resolution No. 988, 93d Congress, as enacted into law by Public Law 93-554 (2 U.S.C. 285b), "[t]o prepare, and submit to the Committee on the Judiciary one title at a time, a complete compilation, restatement, and revision of the general and permanent laws of the United States".

CONFORMITY WITH ORIGINAL INTENT

In the drafting, the intent is to comply with the standard for codification legislation set forth in section 205(c)(1) of House Resolution No. 988, 93d Congress, as enacted into law by Public Law 93-554 (2 U.S.C. 285b(1)), that the restatement of existing law shall conform to "the understood policy, intent, and purpose of the Congress in the original enactments, with such amendments and corrections as will remove ambiguities, contradictions, and other imperfections . . .".

In restating existing law, this bill consolidates various provisions of law which have been enacted separately over a period of many years, reorganizing them, conforming style and terminology, modernizing obsolete language, and correcting drafting errors. These changes are not intended to have substantive effect, or to impair in any way the precedential value of earlier judicial decisions or other interpretations.

This bill is intended to restate existing law without substantive change. That enactment of a bill such as this does not make substantive change in the law, absent an unequivocal expression of Congressional intent to make such a change, has been repeatedly held in numerous cases, including the following:

Finley v. United States, 490 U.S. 545, 553–555 (1989).

Cass v. United States, 417 U.S. 72, 81–82 (1974).

Tidewater Oil Co. v. U.S., 409 U.S. 151, 161–162 (1972).

United States v. Cook, 384 U.S. 257, 260 (1966).

Fourco Glass Co. v. Transmirra Products Corp., 353 U.S. 222, 226–227 (1957).

Washington–Dulles Transportation, Ltd. v. Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority, 263 F.3d 371, 378–379 (4th Cir. 2001).

Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Co. v. United States, 617 F.2d 485, 490–491 (7th Cir. 1980).

Trailer Marine Transport Corp. v. Federal Maritime Commission, 602 F.2d 379, 383 (D.C. Cir. 1979).

DISPOSITION TABLE

The table below shows a disposition for each section of the United States Code affected by the bill. In addition, with respect to provisions of law set out as notes in the United States Code, the table shows a disposition for each provision repealed by the bill.

Where the disposition column shows a title 53 citation, it means the provision of law classified to the former United States Code section is being restated and reenacted as part of title 53 by section 3 of the bill. The provision is also included in the Schedule of Laws Repealed in section 7 of the bill.

Where the disposition column shows “Repealed ...”, it means the provision of law classified to the former United States Code section (or note) is being repealed by section 7 of the bill, without being restated and reenacted as part of title 53.

Where the disposition column shows “Not repealed but omitted from text of title 53”, it means the provision of law classified to the former United States Code section is not being repealed, or restated and reenacted as part of title 53, by the bill. After enactment of the bill, the Law Revision Counsel of the United States House of Representatives will determine whether the provision is to be editorially eliminated from the United States Code or reclassified to a new section or note. In any case, the provision will remain in force.

15 U.S.C. 687(e)	53 U.S.C. 30310
15 U.S.C. 687(f)	Repealed as unnecessary because of the incorporation of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 into title 53, and the substitution of “this title” for “this Act” in appropriate places, so that the general provisions in subtitle I of title 53 apply for purposes of subtitle III as well as the purposes of subtitle II of title 53. See revision notes for 53 U.S.C. 10331, 10332, 10501.

SECTION-BY-SECTION EXPLANATION

SECTION 1—TABLE OF CONTENTS

Section 1 of the bill provides a table of contents for the Act.

SECTION 2—PURPOSE; CONFORMITY WITH ORIGINAL INTENT

Section 2(a) of the bill provides that the purpose is to codify certain existing laws relating to small business programs as a positive law title of the United States Code.

Section 2(b) of the bill provides a statement of intent with respect to the codification of existing law (see “Conformity With Original Intent” above).

SECTION 3—ENACTMENT OF TITLE 53, UNITED STATES CODE

Section 3 of the bill enacts title 53, United States Code. For each section of title 53, the source law citations, along with any revision notes, are set out below. In the revision notes, where language is quoted from a source provision, the enacted language, as it appears in the Statutes at Large rather than in the United States Code, is shown. This is because language appearing in a non-positive law title of the United States Code may vary slightly from the enacted language as necessary to integrate the source provision into the United States Code.

SOURCE LAW CITATION TABLES AND REVISION NOTES

TITLE 53—SMALL BUSINESS

The following revisions are made throughout the title:

References to the “Select Committee on Small Business of the Senate” are changed to the “Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship of the Senate”.

For consistency, references to the “the Administration” are generally changed to “the Administrator” (except when reference is made to the Small Business Administration as an agency), and references to units within the Small Business Administration are generally changed to the head of the unit.

For consistency, references to a Federal department, executive agency, board, commission, independent establishment, and the like are changed to refer to a “Federal agency”, which is defined to include all except as specified in the definition in 53 U.S.C. 10101.

For consistency, defined terms that may have titlewide applicability are moved to 53 U.S.C. 10101.

References to a “business”, “enterprise”, “firm”, “individual” (in the capacity of a sole proprietorship business concern), or “small business” are changed to “concern” or “small business concern”, as appropriate, for consistency. See revision notes for 53 U.S.C. 10307.

References to a “financial institution” are changed to “lending institution” for consistency in the title.

References to a “rule or regulation” or “rules and regulations” are changed to “regulation” or “regulations” to eliminate unnecessary words and for clarity.

References to the “Standard Industrial Classification System” are changed to the “North American Industry Classification System”.

References to the “handicapped” are changed to refer to the “disabled” to reflect current terminology.

Provisions that relate solely to an event in the past are omitted. In a provision requiring that an action of continuing effect be taken by a date that has passed, the words that specify the date by which the action was required to have been taken are omitted, and the words describing the action that is of continuing effect are restated with appropriate modification.

The word “may” is substituted for “is authorized to” to eliminate unnecessary words, for clarity, and for consistency in the title.

The word “shall” is substituted for “is authorized and directed to” to eliminate unnecessary words, for clarity, and for consistency in the title.

The word “includes” is substituted for “includes, but is not limited to” and similar phrases to eliminate unnecessary words, for clarity, and for consistency in the title, because “includes” is used only in the sense of inclusion and not in any sense of exclusion.

The word “ensure” is substituted for “assure” or “insure” as necessary for consistency in the title.

The text of several definitions in the Small Business Act limited the meaning of the defined term to a specified provision in the Act, but those terms are not used with any different meaning elsewhere in the Act. In the case of such a defined term, the text limiting the meaning of the term to a specified provision is omitted, and the definition is moved to 53 U.S.C. 10101, the general definitions section, to ensure consistent usage throughout the title. Other defined terms that are of limited applicability are restated in the provisions in which they apply.

Definitions of “accredited lenders program”, “Association”, “business development program”, “certified development company program”, “defense agency”, “disadvantaged owner”, “disaster assistance program”, “expedited disaster assistance business loan program”, “general business loan program”, “HUBZone program”, “immediate disaster assistance program”, “major disaster area”, “microloan program”, “military department”, “new markets venture capital company program”, “premier certified lenders program”, “PRIME program”, “private disaster assistance program”, “procuring agency”, “renewable fuel capital investment pilot program”, “SCORE”, “small business competitiveness demonstration program”, “small business development center”, “small business development center program”, “small business investment company program”, “women’s business center”, and “women’s business center program” are added for clarity and convenience.

In paragraph (7)(A), “food or fiber” is substituted for “food and fiber” for clarity.

In paragraph (7)(E), “any other industry related to agriculture” is substituted for “all other farming and agricultural related industries” to eliminate unnecessary words and for clarity.

Throughout the title, for consistency in the title and to conform to prevailing usage in procurement law, “contracting officer” is substituted for “procurement officer” so that the definition of “contracting officer” in paragraph (18) applies.

In paragraph (30)(D), “biomass (as defined by the Administrator)” is substituted for “biomass” because the definition of “biomass” in paragraph (12) does not apply in paragraph (30)(D).

In paragraph (35), “guarantee” is substituted for “guaranty” for clarity and for consistency in the title.

In paragraph (36), “Except in subtitles III and IV” is added so that the definition of “Federal agency”, taken from the Small Business Act, applies only in subtitles I and II, which are derived primarily from that Act, and not in subtitles III and IV, which are derived from other Acts.

In paragraph (36)(B)(ii), “Government Accountability Office” is substituted for “General Accounting Office” because of section 8(b) of Pub. L. 108-271, July 7, 2004, 118 Stat. 814.

In paragraph (39), “(including personal property of the owner or lessee of the residential property)” is substituted for “and also includes personal property” for clarity.

In paragraph (46), “major disaster area” is substituted for “disaster area” for clarity.

In paragraph (51), “non-federally regulated lender” is substituted for “non-federally regulated SBA lender” to conform the defined term to the term used in other provisions of the title.

In paragraph (51), “(other than a small business lending company)” is added for clarity.

Throughout the title, for consistency in the title and to conform to prevailing usage in procurement law, “procuring agency” is substituted for “contracting agency” so that the definition of “procuring agency” in paragraph (57) applies.

In paragraph (58)(E), “financial assistance under the general business loan program” is substituted for “financial assistance under this subsection” for clarity.

In paragraph (73)(A), “(including an agricultural enterprise)” is substituted for “(including an enterprise that is engaged in the business of production of food and fiber, ranching and raising of livestock, agriculture, or any other farming- or agriculture-related industry)” to eliminate unnecessary words and to make clear that an enterprise engaged in aquaculture is included in the definition.

In paragraph (74)(A), “or, in the case of any publicly owned business, not less than 51 percent of the stock of which is owned by one or more service-disabled veterans” is omitted as unnecessary because the subject is covered by the words that precede it.

In paragraph (76)(A), “or, in the case of any publicly owned business, not less than 51 percent of the stock of which is owned by one or more veterans” is omitted as unnecessary because the subject is covered by the words that precede it.

In paragraph (85), “Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands” is omitted as obsolete. See note at 48 U.S.C. prec. 1681. For continued application of certain laws of the United States in certain cases, see the Covenant to Establish a Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands in Political Union With the United States of America (48 U.S.C. 1801 note), the Compact of Free Association between the Government of the United States of America and the Governments of the Marshall Islands and the Federated States of Micronesia (48 U.S.C. 1901 note), and the Compact of Free Association between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Palau (48 U.S.C. 1931 note).

Revised Section	Source (U.S. Code)	Source (Pub. L.)

This section is added to make clear that the omission of declarations of findings, purposes, or policies enacted in connection with the enactment of any source law for title 53, as originally enacted, or of any amendment to the title, does not preclude reliance on the declarations in determining the intent of Congress under any provision of this title.

Throughout this section, references to individual “small businesses” are changed to “small business concerns” notwithstanding that the provision from which the section is derived was enacted as part of Pub. L. 94–305 and not as part of the Small Business Act, for consistency in the title and in the absence of any indication that Congress intended the term “small businesses” (as used in Pub. L. 94–305 to refer to individual small businesses rather than to the small business community as a whole) to refer to anything other than small business concerns under the Small Business Act.

In subsection (a), definitions of “Chief Counsel” and “Office” are added for clarity and convenience.

Subsection (a) revises 15 U.S.C. 633(c) generally to reflect the practice following elimination of revolving funds by the Federal Credit Reform Act of 1990 (2 U.S.C. 661 et seq.).

In subsection (a)(2)(B), “by sections 9103 and 9104 of title 31” is substituted for “by law (sections 102, 103, and 104 of the Government Corporation Control Act (31 U.S.C. 847-849))” on authority of Pub. L. 97-258, § 4(b), Sept. 13, 1982 (96 Stat. 1067), the first section of which enacted title 31, United States Code.

In subsection (a)(7), “functions financed under subsections (d) and (i), part B of subtitle II, and chapters 213, 233, 303, 305, and 307” is substituted for “functions financed by the revolving fund established by section 4(c) of this Act” because of the elimination of revolving funds by the Federal Credit Reform Act of 1990 (2 U.S.C. 661 et seq.).

In subsection (b)(3)(A)(ii), “with or without the execution of an express delegation of power or power of attorney” is substituted for “without the execution of an express delegation”, and “Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Administrator from delegating such power by order or by power of attorney, in his discretion, to any officer or agent he may approve” is omitted as unnecessary, because the subparagraph specifically authorizes the Administrator to make such a delegation and there is nothing in the section that could be construed to negate that authority.

SECTION 21902—PROGRAM

Revised Section	Source (U.S. Code)	Source (Pub. L.)
21902	15 U.S.C. 636j(b)	Pub. L. 110-246, § 12085(b)

In this section, “establish and implement” is substituted for “take such administrative action as is necessary to establish and implement” to eliminate unnecessary words.

In this section, “expedited disaster assistance business loan guarantee program” is substituted for “expedited disaster assistance business loan program” to provide a program name that describes more precisely the nature of the program.

SECTION 21903—CONSULTATION

Revised Section	Source (U.S. Code)	Source (Pub. L.)
21903	15 U.S.C. 636j(c)	Pub. L. 110–246, § 12085(c)

Revised Section	Source (U.S. Code)	Source (Pub. L.)
21904	15 U.S.C. 636j(d)	Pub. L. 110–246, § 12085(d)

In this section, “regulations” is substituted for “rules” for consistency in the title.

In subsection (a), “The Administrator shall issue regulations” is substituted for “Not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act, the Administrator shall issue rules in final form” to eliminate unnecessary words and obsolete words.

In subsection (a), “Such rules shall apply as provided for in this section, beginning 90 days after their issuance in final form” is omitted to eliminate unnecessary words and obsolete words.

In subsection (b)(1)(E), “or in a neighboring area” is substituted for “or to a neighboring area, county, or parish” for clarity and to eliminate unnecessary words, because a county or parish is included in the word “area”.

In subsection (b)(2), “subject to paragraph (3)” is omitted as unnecessary.

In subsection (c)(2), “appropriate” is substituted for “necessary or appropriate” to eliminate unnecessary words.

In subsection (c)(7), “in the same manner as under section 21303(e)(2) of this title” is substituted for “in the same manner as under section 7(b)(3)(B) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 636(b)(3)(B))” because it is subparagraph (E) of section 7(b)(3) of the Act, not subparagraph (B), that addresses major sources of employment.

In subsection (c)(8), “appropriate” is substituted for “necessary or appropriate” to eliminate unnecessary words.

Definitions of “Associate Administrator”, “business plan”, “Division”, “Director”, “disadvantaged owner”, “program”, “program participant”, and “program participation period” are added for clarity and convenience.

In paragraph (2), “for the business development of a program participant” is substituted for “for contracts awarded other than pursuant to section 8(a)” for consistency with 53 U.S.C. 23318(d)(3).

In paragraph (6), the text is based on a definition of the term “disadvantaged owner” in section 2 of Pub. L. 100-656 (15 U.S.C. 636 note), which amended the Small Business Act by adding certain provisions that use the term.

In paragraph (15)(A), “small business concern owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals” is substituted for “socially and economically disadvantaged small business concern” for clarity and consistency in the title. Both terms were introduced in the Small Business Act by Pub. L. 95-507, with identical definitions. See section 8(a)(4) of the Small Business Act, as enacted by section 202(a) of Pub. L. 95-507 (92 Stat. 1762), and the second sentence of subclause (C) of the contract clause required under section 8(d)(3) of the Small Business Act, as enacted by section 211 of Pub. L. 95-507 (92 Stat. 1767). Although the definition of “small business concern owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals” literally applied only in the contract clause required by section 8(d)(3), the amendments made by Pub. L. 95-507 to sections 2 and 8 of the Small Business Act used that term interchangeably with the term “socially and economically disadvantaged small business concern”, with no apparent intended difference in meaning. Section 18015 of Pub. L. 99-272 amended the definition of the former term, in what was described as a clarification, to address the treatment of Indian tribes (100 Stat. 370), and section 207(c) of Pub. L. 100-656 amended the definition of the former term, in what was described as a clarification, to address the treatment of Native Hawaiian organizations (102 Stat. 3861). Neither amendment made the appropriate conforming amendment to the term in the contract clause in section 8(d)(3) of the Small Business Act, but the Small Business Administration interprets the term to provide for the same treatment of Indian tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations. See section 124.1002(b)(3) of title 13, Code of Federal Regulations. Paragraph (64) of this section resolves the ambiguities created by the foregoing history by adopting the term that appears most frequently in the Small Business Act with the definition that appears in section 8(a)(4) of the Act.

In paragraph (15)(B), “the size of a concern owned by an economically disadvantaged Indian tribe (or a wholly owned business entity of an economically disadvantaged Indian tribe)” is substituted for “the size of a small business concern owned by a socially and economically disadvantaged Indian tribe (or a wholly owned business entity of such tribe)” for clarity and to eliminate unnecessary words.

At the end of paragraph (15), clause (ii) of 15 U.S.C. 637(a)(4)(A) is omitted as unnecessary because the subject is covered by the words that precede it.

In paragraph (16), “socially and economically disadvantaged individual” is substituted for “economically disadvantaged individual” for clarity because 15 U.S.C. 637(a)(6)(A) includes the requirement that an individual be socially disadvantaged to qualify as an economically disadvantaged individual.

In paragraph (18), “prior to the expiration of the program participant’s program participation period” is substituted for “prior to the expiration of the maximum program participation term” for clarity.

In subsection (b)(2), “An employee of the Administration whose participation in a violation of paragraph (1) is directed or solicited shall expeditiously report the direction or solicitation to the Inspector General of the Administration” is substituted for “Employees of the Administration shall expeditiously report to the Inspector General of the Administration any such action for which such employee’s participation has been solicited or directed” for clarity.

DIVISION B—INVESTMENT PROGRAMSCHAPTER 303—SMALL BUSINESS INVESTMENT COMPANY PROGRAM

Throughout the chapter, references to “this Act” and “this title” are changed to “this chapter” or “this subchapter”, as appropriate, to make clear the unit to which reference is intended to be made.

Throughout the chapter, references to a “small business investment company” are changed to “company” (before a license is issued to a company) or “licensee” (after a license is issued to a company) in appropriate places for consistency and clarity, to avoid the inference that the law contemplates the existence of a nonlicensed small business investment company.

Throughout the chapter, references to a “company”, meaning a company that has been issued a license, are changed to “licensee” for consistency and clarity.

To the extent that the first sentence indicates that the Administrator has authority to act as trustee or receiver of a licensee on appointment by a court, the words are unnecessary because that authority is implicit in the second sentence. That being the case, the existence of the first sentence could be misinterpreted to mean that the Administrator has authority to act as trustee or receiver of a licensee absent a court appointment. Omission of the first sentence precludes such a misinterpretation.
