CONGRESSMAN MARSHA BLACKBURN RECOGNIZES OUTSTANDING MILITARY SPOUSES

Nomination Form

This award recognizes the spouses of current U.S. Armed Service members whose daily support and dedication is crucial to the lives of our military men and women.

Congressman Blackburn wants to recognize and thank such remarkable military spouses for their commitment to their families and their dedication to our armed forces and country with the "Outstanding Military Spouse Award."

Commanders, spouses who are serving, First Sergeants, and peers may submit this application. Nomination applications must be submitted by June 11, 2010. Awards will be based on community and base/ post involvement, overcoming of challenges, and impact made within the military. Award recipients will be announced July 2010.

Only spouses of active duty, guard, or reserve unit members who reside within Tennessee's Seventh Congressional District are eligible for this award.
