Overview of the 2008 Budget Resolution

The new House majority promised a new direction for the country.—We pledged that we would work together to restore our economic health, reclaim our leadership position in the world, advance our national security, and invest in the future. We promised to restore fiscal responsibility and began by instituting tough pay-as-you-go rules.

In the first 100 hours of the 110th Congress, the House began to make good on our promises.—With bipartisan support, we passed budget procedures enforcing discipline and transparency in congressional spending. With bipartisan support, we also passed legislation to implement recommendations of the 9/11 Commission, increased the minimum wage, paved the way for lower prescription drug costs, cut student loan costs, and redirected oil subsidies towards investments in renewable energy. We did all of this while maintaining our commitment to fiscal discipline.

The 2008 budget resolution advances these priorities.—The budget balances in 2012 while accommodating additional tax relief for millions of middle-income families. It allocates funding for national priorities like children's health care and education. It begins to reverse six years of disinvestment in education, infrastructure, and innovation. The budget resolution is the crucial next step to realize the initiatives we have developed, to move the country forward, and to set us on a course to build the future we want for our children and grandchildren.

Correcting the fiscal course of the country cannot be achieved overnight.—The fiscal outlook we are confronting has deteriorated dramatically over the past six years. In 2001, the Administration inherited a projected ten-year (2002–2011) budget surplus of $5.6 trillion. Within two years, that surplus was gone and the United States began accumulating a mountain of national debt, adding $2.8 trillion to our federal debt burden since 2001. Most of this debt has been purchased by foreign investors, making the U.S. economy more susceptible to economic and political pressure from abroad.

We have a responsibility to clean up the fiscal mess that we have inherited.—Deficits matter. The choice to live beyond our means comes at the expense of our children and grandchildren who will have to pay off that debt. Deficits also hurt economic growth by depressing national saving, generating less capital for investment for the future. This leads to lower productivity and wages. The President's budget continues the fiscal approach that has brought us large deficits and growing debt. By contrast, the 2008 budget resolution takes a necessary step towards eliminating our long-term budget deficit by adhering to the pay-as-you-go principle.

A balanced budget must be accompanied by balanced priorities.— While regaining control over our economic future is critical, we must do so within the context of honoring our obligations. For the first time in six years, the congressional budget resolution will return the federal budget to balance, in 2012, while providing sufficient resources to defend our country, deliver critical services to children and families, grow the economy, and preserve our planet.

2008 Budget Resolution: Investing in the Future

The 2008 budget is a critical step toward fulfillment of the commitments we have made to the American people. Within the context of a balanced budget, the resolution achieves key objectives in six areas:

Fiscal Responsibility

- Leads to a budget surplus in 2012 and years thereafter, in contrast to the President's budget which remains in deficit
- Provides for greater deficit reduction than the Administration over five years
- Upholds the pay-as-you-go principle

Defending Our Nation

- Provides robust defense funding levels while targeting resources on the most pressing security concerns
- Increases funding for veterans' health care and services by $5.4 billion (14.4 percent) above current services
- Provides more homeland security funding than the Administration
- Provides funding for the 9/11 Commission recommendations

Putting Children and Families First

- Facilitates an increase of $50 billion to expand children's health insurance to cover millions of additional uninsured children
- Provides $3.0 billion over current services, and $7.9 billion more than the President, for education, training, and social services, which means more funding for No Child Left Behind, special education, and aid to help students afford college
- Accommodates relief from the Alternative Minimum Tax for millions of middle-income taxpayers, as well as extension of middle-income tax cuts
- Increases funds for Head Start and child care
- Provides new funding to assist communities and rebuild housing in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina
- Rejects the President's cut to the Social Services Block Grant program
- Includes an affordable housing initiative

Growing Our Economy

- Begins to reverse six years of high deficits and mounting debt
- Funds the House Leadership's innovation agenda, putting us on a path to double funding for NSF and providing significant increases in K–12 math and science education

- Accommodates policies to renew and re-authorize the farm bill
- Provides funding to reauthorize FAA programs and fully funds the highway bill
- Increases funding for programs such as Community Development Block Grants to promote economic development in local communities

Preserving Our Planet

- Accommodates comprehensive energy legislation promoting renewable energy, moving toward energy independence
- Increases conservation funding
- Rejects Administration cuts in the Environmental Protection Agency and in environmental programs

An Accountable and Efficient Government

- Institutes tough program integrity initiatives to crack down on wasteful or fraudulent spending in Social Security, Medicare, and Unemployment Insurance programs
- Supports IRS enforcement to collect unpaid taxes from those who are not paying what they owe, helping to close the roughly $300 billion tax gap
- Provides resources to reduce huge backlogs in claims processing in the Veterans Administration and Social Security Administration
- Directs committees to identify wasteful and lower priority spending that can be cut in order to fund more pressing needs.

ECONOMIC ASSUMPTIONS

The budget resolution adopts the economic forecast of the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) and takes CBO's March 2007 projections of spending and revenues under current law as the baseline. CBO's economic forecast is similar to the Blue Chip consensus forecast. Historically, CBO's economic forecast has proven to be slightly more accurate than that of the Administration.

CBO's economic assumptions include the following:

Unemployment: CBO expects the unemployment rate to rise from an estimated 4.6 percent in 2006 to 4.7 percent in 2007 and 4.9 percent in 2008. The unemployment rate is assumed to average 5.0 percent for the remainder of the budget window.

Interest Rates: Interest rates are projected to remain relatively low throughout the five-year budget window. Short-term interest rates are projected to come down slightly after 2007, dropping to an average of 4.4 percent over the last four years of the budget window. Long-term rates are projected to increase in the latter years of the budget window, reaching an average of 5.2 percent over 2009–2012.

Real GDP Growth: Real GDP growth is projected to be modest over the budget window. CBO projects that growth will slow in 2007, moderating to just below 3 percent over the last four years of the budget window.

Inflation: Inflation remains relatively low over the forecast. Most of the major inflation indices average around 2 percent throughout the budget window.

The Administration assumes tax bases grow at a more rapid rate than CBO projects. This and other differences in the economic forecast result in the Administration's forecast showing an extra $154.2 billion in revenue in 2012 alone, and $422.3 billion more over five years compared with CBO's March forecast.

The budget resolution matches the level of revenues under the CBO baseline in each year over the 2007–2012 period. By following the baseline path, the budget resolution achieves current-law total revenue levels, but does not necessarily assume maintaining current tax law. Thus, the budget resolution accommodates reform of the Alternative Minimum Tax and extension of tax cuts benefitting middle-income households (including the child tax credit, marriage penalty relief, the 10 percent bracket, and the deduction for State and local sales taxes), as long as such changes to tax law are accomplished in a deficit-neutral manner over the 2007–2012 and 2007–2017 periods. The budget resolution also accommodates deficit-neutral extension of other expiring tax provisions, such as the research and experimentation tax credit and the deduction for small business expensing. In addition, the resolution accommodates deficit-neutral elimination of estate taxes on all but a minute fraction of estates by reforming and substantially increasing the unified tax credit. It also accommodates other high priority deficit-neutral revenue adjustments, such as providing a tax credit for local bonds to support the repair or construction of public schools.

Under the Bush Administration (since January 2001) the federal debt has increased by $3.1 trillion, and the debt limit has been raised four times. The current debt limit of $8.965 trillion is expected to be reached in the fall of 2007, approximately the time that the first new fiscal year covered by this resolution begins.

FUNCTION

FUNCTION 050: NATIONAL DEFENSE

FUNCTION SUMMARY

The National Defense function includes the military activities of the Department of Defense (DoD), the nuclear-weapons related activities of the Department of Energy (DoE) and the National Nuclear Security Administration, the national security activities of several other agencies such as the Selective Service Agency, and portions of the activities of the Coast Guard and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The programs in this function include: the pay and benefits of active, Guard, and reserve military personnel; DoD operations including training, maintenance of equipment, and facilities; health care for military personnel and dependents; procurement of weapons; research and development; construction of military facilities, including housing; research on nuclear weapons; and the cleanup of nuclear weapons production facilities.

The defense of our nation ranks first among our priorities, and this budget resolution accordingly provides robust funding for Function 050 (National Defense). This resolution calls, however, for a reallocation of resources to address threats facing the nation and to guarantee first-rate health care for members of our armed forces. The resolution includes assumptions on specific defense policy in Title IV, Section 402.

The National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States (commonly referred to as the 9/11 Commission) identified terrorists with weapons of mass destruction as one of the nation's gravest threats. It recommended that Congress supply more resources to secure nuclear weapons and the fissile materials used in making these weapons. It is the policy of this budget resolution that non-proliferation programs, such as the Cooperative Threat Reduction program, be given greater priority and higher funding.

High among our priorities is the health care guaranteed our armed forces, not only while they are in harm's way, but when they return from combat with injuries. For that reason, this resolution opposes Tricare fee increases and calls for a substantial increase in the veterans' health care system. The budget resolution notes the upcoming recommendations of the President's Commission on Care for America's Returning Wounded Warriors and other government investigations in connection with the substandard care at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, and allows funds for action when those recommendations are received.

It is the policy of the resolution that acquisition programs such as missile defense and satellite procurement be funded at lower, but still robust levels. Development of space-based interceptors as part of the missile defense program should be de-emphasized and satellite development and procurement should proceed along a more measured schedule. DoD's satellite programs have experienced significant cost growth and the President's request for satellite acquisition reflects a 26 percent increase above the 2007 enacted level.

The budget resolution recognizes the need for DoD to root out wasteful spending with far more diligence. Seventeen years after passage of the Chief Financial Officers Act of 1990, DoD still cannot pass a standard audit. The Department cannot adequately track what it owns or the spending in its annual budgets. DoD has allowed the cost of its major acquisition programs to grow at an unsustainable rate. The Department's major acquisition programs grew by $317 billion above their initial projections from 2002 to 2006. DoD has awarded contracts for its foreign deployments that have been grossly more wasteful than domestic contracts, especially in Iraq. Furthermore, DoD continues to fund weapons systems that were developed years ago to counter Cold War-era threats, which may not be as effective in protecting the nation from today's threats.

Over the last six years, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) has performed numerous audits of DoD's financial management, contracting, and business practices. GAO made 2,544 recommendations, of which 1,378 have yet to be implemented. The resolution assumes that enhancing accounting practices at DoD and implementing many GAO recommendations would yield substantial savings that could be applied to meet critical defense priorities. The resolution also directs the committees with jurisdiction over defense and armed services to conduct more oversight with the objective of ferreting out wasteful practices, fraud, and abuse.

For mandatory programs, the budget resolution matches the President's assumptions regarding offsetting receipts.

FUNCTION 150: INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

FUNCTION SUMMARY

Function 150 contains funding for all U.S. international activities, including: operating U.S. embassies and consulates throughout the world; providing military assistance to allies; aiding developing nations; dispensing economic assistance to fledgling democracies; promoting U.S. exports abroad; making U.S. payments to international organizations; and contributing to international peace-keeping efforts. Funding for all of these activities constitutes about one percent of the federal budget. The major agencies in this function include the Departments of Agriculture, State, and the Treasury; the United States Agency for International Development; and the Millennium Challenge Corporation.

FUNCTION LEVELS AND PRIORITIES

The function's negative mandatory budget authority and outlay levels reflect receipts of the foreign military sales trust fund, the repayment of loans and credits by foreign nations, and the liquidation of economic assistance loans, foreign military financing loans, Export-Import Bank loans, and housing and other credit guaranty programs.

The resolution's discretionary budget authority for 2008 is $2.0 billion (5.9 percent) more than the amount needed to maintain purchasing power at the 2007 level. The resolution matches the President's Function 150 request for activities related to the United States' overseas military deployments and the Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief, which includes the Global HIV/AIDS Initiative. The Committee also notes the importance of adequate funding for core U.S. development assistance and other high priority programs.

Consistent with the President's budget, the resolution also provides full funding to continue agreements that the United States reached in 1998 with Israel and Egypt regarding levels of military financing and economic support.

The resolution provides additional funding for 2008 for the McGovern-Dole International Food for Education and Child Nutrition Program. This program has been demonstrated to help reduce child hunger and malnutrition, and increase enrollment and attendance in schools in beneficiary countries.

The Committee notes the large amount of unobligated funding that is still available for the Millennium Challenge Corporation, which has received almost $6.0 billion in total appropriations from fiscal years 2004 through 2007.

The Committee also notes the strong support enjoyed by H.R. 1595, a measure designed to provide compensation to the Guamanian victims of the Imperial Japanese military occupation during World War II.

FUNCTION 250: GENERAL SCIENCE, SPACE AND TECHNOLOGY

Funding in Function 250 exceeds the funding levels in the President's budget and the current services level for all five years in the budget window. Additional increases for scientific research and education are included in Function 270 (Energy), Function 300 (Environment and Natural Resources), Function 350 (Agriculture), Function 370 (Commerce and Housing Credit), Function 400 (Transportation), Function 500 (Education, Training, Employment, and Social Services), and Function 550 (Health), all of which receive more funding than the President requested. These increases will support the goals of the House Leadership's Innovation Agenda: to put NSF funding on a path toward doubling, to train more qualified science and math teachers, and to invest in basic research on energy technologies.

FUNCTION 270: ENERGY

FUNCTION SUMMARY

Function 270 contains civilian energy and environmental programs in the Department of Energy (DOE). This function also includes the Rural Utilities Service of the Department of Agriculture, the Tennessee Valley Authority, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, and the Nuclear Regulatory Commission. This function does not include DOE's national security activities, which are in Function 050 (National Defense), or its basic research and science activities, which are in Function 250 (General Science, Space and Technology).

The resolution provides funding above the President's request and the level needed to maintain current services for Function 270. This increased funding could be used for research, development, and deployment of renewable and alternative energy technology and resources.

This resolution establishes a reserve fund to facilitate the development of conservation and efficiency technologies, clean domestic renewable energy resources, and alternative fuels that will reduce our reliance on foreign oil. The federal government, and particularly the Department of Energy, should take the lead in research and development, and to that end, this resolution includes an increase in Function 270 above baseline, while emphasizing that this is a first step toward increases that need to come soon and be substantial.

In the meantime, the Department of Energy should husband its resources and program work at the national laboratories to advance the technologies of energy conservation and efficiency and of clean, renewable energy. Other agencies and departments of the government should join this effort. This resolution recognizes, for example, the role that the Department of Agriculture could take in developing new energy sources such as cellulosic ethanol, and approves this mission among those cited in Function 350.

Funding sources for research and development are scattered throughout the budget. These sources need to be inventoried, and where possible, refocused on research and development of clean and renewable energies.

FUNCTION 300: NATURAL RESOURCES AND ENVIRONMENT

FUNCTION SUMMARY

Function 300 includes programs concerned with environmental protection and enhancement; recreation and wildlife areas; and the development and management of the nation's land, water, and mineral resources. It includes programs within the following federal departments and agencies: Agriculture, Commerce, Interior, Transportation, the Army Corps of Engineers, and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

The resolution rejects the President's proposed cuts to priority programs, such as the Land and Water Conservation Fund, the Fish and Wildlife Service's wildlife refuge system, the EPA's grants to States and Tribes to address water and air quality, and other EPA programs. It also includes funding to address high-priority brownfield redevelopment concerns. In addition, the resolution accommodates the President's recommendation to increase funding for the operation and maintenance of the national park system.

The resolution also includes a deficit-neutral reserve fund to facilitate the reauthorization of the farm bill, providing resources for such objectives as to secure an economic safety net for agricultural producers, conserve our natural resources, and address nutrition needs.

FUNCTION 350: AGRICULTURE*FUNCTION SUMMARY

Function 350 includes farm income stabilization, agricultural research, and other services administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The discretionary programs include research and education programs, economics and statistics services, administration of the farm support programs, farm loan programs, meat and poultry inspection, and a portion of the Public Law (P.L.) 480 international food aid program. The mandatory programs include commodity programs, crop insurance, and certain farm loans.

The 2008 budget resolution specifically rejects the President's cuts to education, including his plan to eliminate many education programs. The resolution also rejects the President's steep cuts to job training and social services programs, including the Community Services Block Grant and the Social Services Block Grant.

In contrast to the President's funding cuts, the budget resolution makes a down payment towards addressing long-standing needs in education, training, and social services. To that end, the resolution provides an appropriated program level for Function 500 that is $7.9 billion above the 2008 level in the President's budget. Those additional resources include $5.9 billion in 2008 funding and an increase of $2 billion in advance 2009 funding.

The resolution's increased funding could be used for vital programs that help children and adults who most need assistance, including Head Start, Title I and other elementary and secondary education programs authorized under the No Child Left Behind Act, and employment training and national service programs such as VISTA. The additional funding also could bolster the federal government's commitment to cover a growing share of the cost of special education under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. Finally, the increased funds could help secure college access, equity, and success for every American by raising the maximum Pell Grant to at least $4,600, maintaining Supplemental Opportunity Educational Grants and the Leveraging Educational Assis-ance Partnerships, and broadening access to Hispanic-serving institutions, Historically Black Colleges and Universities, and other high-quality educational opportunities.

The resolution also contains a reserve fund to accommodate legislation that makes college more affordable.

FUNCTION 550: HEALTH*FUNCTION SUMMARY

Function 550 includes most direct health care services programs. Other health programs in this function fund anti-bioterrorism activities, national biomedical research, protecting the health of the general population and workers in their places of employment, providing health services for under-served populations, and promoting training for the health care workforce. Some of the agencies funded in this function include the National Institutes of Health (NIH), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Health Resources and Services Administration, and the Food and Drug Administration. The major mandatory programs in this function are Medicaid, the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP), federal and retirees' health benefits, and health care for Medicare-eligible military retirees.

The discretionary resources for Function 550 for 2008 represent an increase over both the 2007 level and the President's request. The resolution increases resources for public health programs to provide for advances in science, improvements in health, access to quality health care for underserved populations, and other critical programs.

Programs in Function 550 are also addressed in the resolution's deficit-neutral reserve funds for SCHIP and for Transitional Medical Assistance.

FUNCTION 570: MEDICARE

FUNCTION SUMMARY

Function 570 (Medicare) includes only the Medicare program, which provides health insurance to senior citizens and persons with disabilities. Congress provides an annual appropriation for the costs of administering and monitoring the Medicare program. Nearly 99 percent of spending in this function occurs on the mandatory side of the budget, and almost all of the mandatory spending consists of payments for Medicare benefits.

The resolution assumes the extension of Medicare premium assistance for qualified individuals with incomes between 120 and 135 percent of the federal poverty level and limited financial resources. The resolution assumes that savings from Medicare program efficiency improvements will offset the costs of extending the premium assistance program as well other initiatives to improve the Medicare program for beneficiaries.

The resolution assumes targeted assistance to hospitals with 100 beds or more that have faced a reduction in Medicare disproportionate share hospital payments due to assignment to a Micropolitan area.

The resolution accommodates a discretionary cap adjustment of $183 million for additional activities aimed at detecting and preventing Medicare fraud. The Health Care Fraud and Abuse Control program—a joint effort of the Department of Health and Human Services, the HHS Office of Inspector General, and the Department of Justice—generated roughly $4 in program savings for every dollar spent in 2004 and 2005.

The resolution also contains a reserve fund to accommodate legislation for Medicare program improvements.

FUNCTION 600: INCOME SECURITY*FUNCTION SUMMARY

Function 600 consists of a range of income security programs that provide cash or near-cash assistance (e.g., housing, nutrition, and energy assistance) to low-income persons, and benefits to certain retirees, persons with disabilities, and the unemployed. Housing assistance programs account for the largest share of discretionary funding in this function. Major federal entitlement programs in this function include unemployment insurance, trade adjustment assistance income support, food stamps, Temporary Assistance to Needy Families, foster care, and Supplemental Security Income. Federal and other retirement and disability programs comprise approximately one third of the funds in this function.

The resolution also includes a deficit-neutral reserve fund to facilitate the reauthorization of the farm bill, providing resources for such objectives as to secure an economic safety net for agricultural producers, conserve our natural resources, and address nutrition needs.

FUNCTION 650: SOCIAL SECURITY

FUNCTION SUMMARY

Function 650 consists of the two payroll tax-financed programs that are collectively known as Social Security: Old-Age and Survivors Insurance and Disability Insurance (OASDI). This function includes Social Security benefit payments and funds to administer the program. Under provisions of the Congressional Budget Act and the Budget Enforcement Act, Social Security trust funds are off-budget and do not appear in the budget resolution totals. However, a small portion of spending in Function 650—the general fund transfer of income taxes on Social Security benefits—is considered on-budget and appears in the budget resolution totals. The table and discussion below contain information pertaining to both the on-budget and off-budget components.

The resolution rejects the President's private account proposal for Social Security.

The administrative budget for the Social Security Administration (SSA) includes resources in Function 570 (Medicare) and Function 600 (Income Security) as well as Function 650. The resolution assumes a $9.9 billion discretionary funding level for SSA. The additional resources will prevent increases in the backlogs of disability decisions and hearings that would occur under the President's budget. The resolution will enable SSA to address the significant number of individuals waiting for disability and hearing decisions.

The budget also accommodates an additional $213 million through a discretionary cap adjustment for program integrity initiatives. The cap adjustment allows the agency to conduct an increasing number of Continuing Disability Reviews (CDRs) and Supplemental Security Income redeterminations.

FUNCTION 700: VETERANS BENEFITS AND SERVICES

FUNCTION SUMMARY

Function 700 covers the programs of the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), including veterans' medical care, compensation and pensions, education and rehabilitation benefits, and housing programs. It also includes the Department of Labor's Veterans' Employment and Training Service, the United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims, and the American Battle Monuments Commission. Almost 90 percent of appropriated funding in Function 700 goes to veterans' health care.

For 2008, the resolution provides $6.6 billion of discretionary budget authority over the 2007 level, for a level that is $3.5 billion above the 2008 funding in the President's budget. The resolution reflects the high priority of adequately funding veterans programs. The resolution rejects the veterans' health care enrollment fees and co-payment increases that were imposed by the President's budget.

The resolution provides full funding to support excellent health care for veterans and current service members. In particular, the resolution provides funding to begin implementing future recommendations of the President's Commission on Care for America's Returning Wounded Warriors (the bi-partisan "Walter Reed Commission") and other United States Government investigations into military and veterans' health care facilities and services.

The resolution provides additional funding in Function 700 above the President's requested levels for 2008 to address important priorities including veterans' mental health, post-traumatic stress disorder, traumatic brain injury, and spinal cord injury. The resolution also has additional funding for disability compensation claims processing so that VA can significantly reduce the inventory of pending claims.

The resolution includes the House-passed supplemental for 2007 (H.R. 1591) and, as a placeholder, accommodates up to the President's funding levels for overseas deployments and related activities in 2008 and 2009.

TITLE II—RESERVE FUNDS

Section 201. Reserve fund for the State Children’s Health Insurance Program

The reserve fund accommodates the Committee on Energy and Commerce reporting legislation of up to $50 billion in additional outlays to improve children’s health through reauthorization of the State Children’s Health Program (SCHIP) as long as the authorizing legislation placed before the House complies with the pay-as-you-go principle. These additional resources will sustain current caseloads, expand coverage, and reduce the number of uninsured children. Of the over nine million uninsured children in this nation, around six million are eligible for SCHIP or Medicaid but do not receive coverage.

Section 202. Reserve fund for reform of the alternative minimum tax

The reserve fund for Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT) relief accommodates legislation that reforms the tax code to shield middle-income families from the AMT as long as it adheres to the pay-as-you-go principle. Without reform, the number of taxpayers subject to the AMT will rise from 4.2 million in 2006 to 23.2 million in 2007 and to 25.7 million in 2008, according to the Joint Committee on Taxation.

Section 203. Reserve fund to provide for middle-income tax relief and economic equity

The reserve fund for middle-income tax relief supports legislation to reduce tax burdens on middle-income families and taxpayers that complies with the pay-as-you-go principle. This includes legislation such as the extension of the 10 percent individual income tax rate, marriage penalty relief, the child tax credit, the research and experimentation tax credit, the deduction for small business expensing, and the deduction for State and local sales taxes. It also accommodates elimination of estate taxes on all but a minute fraction of estates, and a tax credit for school construction.

Section 204. Reserve fund for agriculture

The reserve fund accommodates legislation that reauthorizes the Farm Security and Rural Investment Act of 2002 (Public Law 107–171) or prior farm support acts, or authorizes similar programs, or both, to the extent that such legislation complies with the pay-as-you-go principle. The section also provides for an increase in budget authority up to $20 billion over five years (2008–2012) above the Congressional Budget Office’s current estimate of spending for these programs if the funding increases are appropriately offset. The resolution allows for the House to continue to address a number of priorities, such as maintaining a strong farm safety net for our nation’s agricultural producers; delivering natural resource conservation measures on private lands; investing in energy research; and rural development projects that strengthen our rural economies; and enhancing food nutrition assistance to help fight hunger. The reserve fund could also facilitate a new farm bill that provides enhanced conservation, research, and marketing assistance to crops that have not received traditional commodity support.

Section 205. Reserve fund for higher education

The reserve fund accommodates reforms to the student loan programs that increase benefits to students, consistent with the pay-as-you-go principle adopted by the House. The Higher Education Act is scheduled to be reauthorized this year, and this reserve fund will provide committees maximum flexibility in finding offsets to make college more affordable for students.

Section 206. Reserve fund for improvements in Medicare

The reserve fund accommodates additional mandatory spending for Medicare program improvements such as increasing the Medicare reimbursement rate for physicians while holding beneficiaries harmless from associated premium increases, as long as the legislation is consistent with the House pay-as-you-go principle. Current law calls for Medicare payment rates to physicians to be cut by nearly 40 percent over the next eight years. The Committee supports Federal investments in health information technology that will improve the quality and efficiency of not only Medicare, but also the health sector as a whole. Another possible area for program improvement is the Part D prescription drug benefit.

Section 207. Reserve fund for creating long-term energy alternatives

The reserve fund accommodates legislation consistent with H.R. 6 that invests in renewable or alternative energy resources, promotes new emerging energy technologies, or develops greater energy efficiency, to the extent that such legislation complies with the pay-as-you-go principle.

Section 208. Reserve fund for affordable housing

The reserve fund accommodates legislation that creates an affordable housing fund, offset by savings from reforming the regulation of certain government-sponsored entities, such as Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, to the extent that such legislation complies with the pay-as-you-go principle.

Section 209. Reserve fund for equitable benefits for Filipino veterans of World War II

The reserve fund accommodates additional mandatory spending to provide equitable benefits for all Filipino veterans of World War II and their survivors and dependents, consistent with the pay-as-you-go principle. Most Filipino veterans who fought alongside American troops, and their families, are currently not eligible for equitable federal benefits.

Section 210. Reserve fund for Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act reauthorization

The reserve fund accommodates any legislation that reauthorizes the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act (Public Law 106-393), to the extent that such legislation complies with the pay-as-you-go principle. That law provides economic assistance for roads and schools in rural communities affected by the loss of receipts from sales on federal lands in their communities. The assistance is intended to compensate local governments for the tax-exempt status of the national forests and other federal lands.

Section 211. Reserve fund for receipts from the Bonneville Power Administration

The resolution includes a reserve fund to accommodate legislation to reject the Administration's acceleration of Bonneville Power Administration's (BPA) debt repayment and to prohibit BPA from applying secondary sales revenue in excess of $500 million towards additional federal debt repayment, to the extent that such legislation complies with the pay-as-you-go principle.

Section 212. Reserve fund for Transitional Medical Assistance

The reserve fund accommodates extension of Transitional Medical Assistance (TMA) through 2008, as long as it complies with the pay-as-you-go principle. TMA provides temporary Medicaid assistance for families transitioning to the workforce.

TITLE III—BUDGET ENFORCEMENT

Section 301: Program Integrity Initiatives

Section 301 provides for specific allocation adjustments for the Committee on Appropriations when the Committee reports legislation that includes increased appropriations for the following four program integrity initiatives: (1) continuing disability reviews and Supplemental Security Income redeterminations for the Social Security Administration; (2) improved compliance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code; (3) the healthcare fraud and abuse control program at the Department of Health and Human Services; and (4) unemployment insurance improper payment reviews.

The adjustments under this section are intended to do no more than provide additional administrative funding for current program integrity activities to eliminate errors or fraud in the operation of a number of federal programs and compliance with federal tax laws. For example, the adjustment for unemployment compensation programs is provided to increase limited administrative funding for current program integrity activities, and not to finance other proposals that would adversely affect workers who have received unemployment benefits.

The section outlines procedures for these allocation adjustments. In addition, the section directs committees of the House of Representatives to include recommendations for improved governmental performance in views and estimates submitted to the Committee on the Budget pursuant to section 301(d) of the Congressional Budget Act.

Section 302: Advance Appropriations

Section 302 limits the amount and type of advance appropriations for fiscal years 2009 and 2010. Under this section, advance appropriations for fiscal year 2009 or 2010 are restricted to $25.558 billion for programs, projects, activities, or accounts identified in the joint explanatory statement of managers that will accompany this resolution. This total reflects an increase of $2 billion over the previous limit. The section defines advance appropriations as any new discretionary budget authority provided in a bill or joint resolution making general or continuing appropriations for fiscal year 2008 that first becomes available for any fiscal year after 2008.

Section 303: Overseas Deployments and Emergency Needs

Section 303 establishes a procedure whereby provisions or measures reported by the Committee on Appropriations will be exempt from the restrictions under titles III and IV of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. The exemption will apply if: (1) the Committee determines and designates that amounts appropriated are necessary for overseas deployments and related activities; or, (2) the Committee provides nondefense discretionary appropriations and designates those amounts as necessary to meet emergency needs.

Section 304: Application and Effect of Changes in Allocations and Aggregates

Section 304 details the allocation and aggregate adjustment procedures that are required to accommodate legislation for the reserve funds and program integrity initiatives in this resolution. This section provides that the adjustments shall apply while the legislation is under consideration and take effect upon enactment of the legislation. In addition, the section requires the adjustments to be printed in the Congressional Record.

The section also notes that, for purposes of enforcement, aggregate and allocation levels resulting from adjustments made pursuant to this resolution will have the same effect as if adopted in the original levels of Title I of this budget resolution. This section also provides that the Committee on the Budget shall determine the budgetary levels and estimates which are required to enforce points of order under the Congressional Budget Act.

Section 305: Adjustments to Reflect Changes in Concepts and Definitions

Section 305 requires the chairman of the Committee on the Budget to adjust levels and allocations in this budget resolution upon enactment of legislation that changes concepts or definitions.

Section 306: Compliance with Section 13301 of the Budgetary Enforcement Act of 1990

Section 306 provides that administrative expenses of the Social Security Administration shall be part of the annual appropriations process by including those expenses in the Committee on Appropriation's allocation pursuant to section 302 of the Congressional Budget Act.

Section 307: Exercise of Rulemaking Powers

Section 307 provides that, once adopted, the provisions of the budget resolution are incorporated into the rules of the House of Representatives and shall supersede inconsistent rules. The section recognizes the constitutional right of the House of Representatives to change those rules at any time.

TITLE IV—POLICY

Title IV of the resolution contains the following policy sections:

Section 401. Policy on middle-income tax relief

Section 402. Policy on defense priorities

Section 403. Policy on college affordability

TITLE V—SENSE OF THE HOUSE

Title V of the resolution contains the following Sense of the House sections:

Section 502. Sense of the House on the Innovation Agenda: A commitment to competitiveness to keep America #1.

Section 503. Sense of the House on homeland security.

Section 504. Sense of the House regarding the ongoing need to respond to Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.

Section 507. Sense of the House regarding affordable health coverage.

Section 508. Sense of the House regarding extension of the statutory pay-as-you-go rule.

Section 509. Sense of the House on long-term budgeting.

Section 510. Sense of the House regarding pay parity.

Section 511. Sense of the House regarding waste, fraud, and abuse.

Section 512. Sense of the House regarding the importance of child support enforcement.

Section 513. Sense of the House on state veterans cemeteries.

TITLE VI—RECONCILIATION

Section 601. Reconciliation

Section 601, which was included at the request of the Committee on Education and Labor, instructs that committee to report changes in law to the House to reduce the deficit by $75,000,000 over six years, no later than September 10, 2007. Section 403 of this resolution includes policy language stating that the provision shall not be construed to require reductions in assistance that makes college more affordable for students.

ALLOCATIONS TO COMMITTEES

As required by under Section 302(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the discretionary levels established in the budget resolution are allocated to the Appropriations Committee and the mandatory spending levels are allocated to each of the authorizing committees with mandatory spending authority.

In this report, the Appropriations Committee receives an allocation for 2008 and a revised allocation for 2007. The authorizing committees receive allocations for 2008 and the five-year period 2008 through 2012 as well as a revised allocation for 2007. The authorizing committee allocation is divided into current law amounts, reauthorization, and resolution changes. Reauthorization refers to amounts for legislation due for reauthorization and that are part of the CBO baseline levels. "Resolution changes" refers to the budgetary impact of legislation enacted after the adoption of this resolution, anticipated to reflect a change from baseline levels. "Resolution changes" have previously been called "discretionary action" but the term has been changed to avoid confusion with the discretionary allocation to the Appropriations Committee.

H.R. 1591, Making Emergency Supplemental Appropriations for Fiscal Year 2007, and for Other Purposes is currently under consideration in the Congress. The bill has been scored pursuant to the terms of the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for 2007, as deemed applicable under House Resolution 6, section 501(4)(A). The budgetary rules applicable at the time of initial consideration of the Supplemental Appropriations bill shall remain in effect until final action is taken on that measure.

Votes of the Committee

House Rule XIII, Clause 3(b), requires that each committee report that accompanies any bill or resolution of a public nature include the total number of votes cast for and against on each roll call vote, on a motion to report, and any amendments offered to the measure or matter, along with the names of those voting for and against.

Described and listed below are the roll call votes from the Committee on the Budget on the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for Fiscal Year 2008.

On March 21, 2007, the Committee met in open session. A quorum was present.

After calling the Committee to order, Chairman Spratt reminded all members that at the Committee's organizational meeting on January 18, 2007, consistent with Clause 4 of House Rule XVI, he was authorized to declare a recess at any time. There was no objection.

Chairman Spratt asked unanimous consent that the reading of the budget aggregates, function levels, and other appropriate matter be dispensed with; that the aggregates, function levels, and other matter be open to amendment at any time; that the reading of each amendment be by title; and that the reading of each amendment be dispensed with. There was no objection to these requests for unanimous consent.

The Committee adopted and ordered reported the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for Fiscal Year 2008. The following votes were taken by the Committee:

1. An amendment was offered by Representatives Ryan, Tiberi, Porter, Campbell, Diaz-Balart, and McHenry to provide a reconciliation instruction to extend all 2001 and 2003 tax cuts at the cost of $392.5 billion over five years. The amendment does not provide for any offset to the cost.

The amendment was not agreed to by a roll call vote of 16 ayes to 21 nays.

Ms. DeLauro, pursuant to House Rule XXII, Clause 1, moved that the Chairman be authorized to offer such motions in the House as may be necessary to go to conference; and that the staff be authorized to make technical and conforming corrections in the resolution and committee amendments, and to calculate the remaining elements required on the resolution, prior to the filing of the resolution. The motions were agreed to by a voice vote.

Chairman Spratt adjourned the Committee.

House Rule XXVII

The adoption of a conference agreement by the two houses on a concurrent resolution on the budget would result in the engrossment of a House Joint Resolution changing the statutory limit on the public debt pursuant to House Rule XXVII, clause 3. The rule requires a joint resolution in the following form:

Resolved, by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, that subsection (b) of section 3101 of title 31, United States Code, is amended by striking out the dollar limitation contained in such subsection and inserting in lieu thereof $9,461,000,000,000.

Other Matters To Be Included Under the Rules of the House

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

House Rule XIII, Clause 3(c)(1), requires that each committee report include oversight findings and recommendations pursuant to House Rule X, Clause 2(b)(1). The Committee on the Budget has no such findings at this time.

NEW BUDGET AUTHORITY, ENTITLEMENT AUTHORITY, AND TAX EXPENDITURES

House Rule XIII, Clause 3(c)(2), provides that committee reports shall include the statement required by Section 308(a)(1) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. As a concurrent resolution that sets forth a blueprint for the Congressional budget, the budget resolution does not provide new budget authority or new entitlement authority or change revenues. Therefore, this report does not contain such a statement.

GENERAL PERFORMANCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

House Rule XIII, Clause 3(c)(4), requires that each committee report include a statement of general performance goals and objectives, including outcome-related goals and objectives, for which the measure authorizes funding. Because the Concurrent Resolution on the Budget does not authorize funding, the committee does not have any such goals and objectives to report.

Minority Views

IRRESOLUTION ON THE BUDGET

“It’s always easier to defer, to kick the can down the road to avoid making choices.”—Senate Budget Committee Chairman Kent Conrad, on 60 Minutes, 4 March 2007.

The document reported by the Committee on the Budget reflects a staggering set of contradictions. While claiming to reject the largest tax increase in American history, the measure’s revenue figures rely on that very tax hike to reach balance. While promising more than $115 billion in new spending initiatives, the document’s allocations support none of them. Having heard extensive testimony about the need to reform government entitlements, the Democrats could offer no more than a negligible $75 million in reconciled savings—and that only as a gimmick to protect a forthcoming reauthorization bill from a Senate filibuster; and the savings are spent elsewhere anyway.

If a budget is a plan for financing one’s objectives, whatever they are—if it assigns dollars to specific goals—the Democrat measure is not a budget. If budgeting is intrinsic to governing, the Democrat proposal does neither; and it offers no resolution of the principal fiscal issues that face the Nation and the government.

But if taken seriously, the Democrat budget insists that the right formula for America is bigger government, more spending, and ever-higher taxes. It fails completely to recognize a fundamental truth expressed by President Reagan in his first inaugural: “We are a Nation that has a government—not the other way around.”

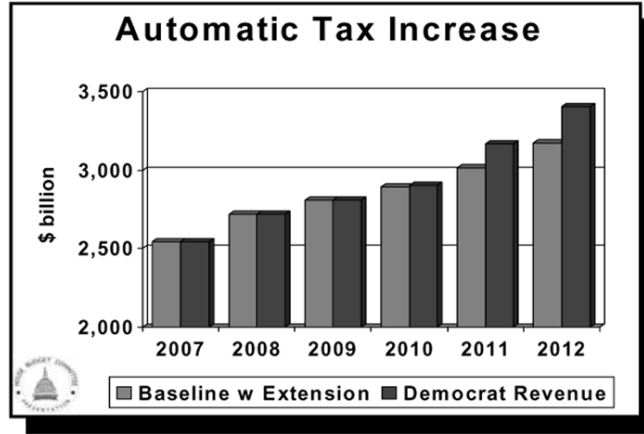

The Democrat budget proposes the largest tax increase in American history—$392.5 billion over 5 years—mainly to finance immense new spending through 2012. It also puts off entitlement reform for at least 5 years, despite repeated warnings during committee hearings that delaying reform invites a fiscal and economic crisis for these programs.

The principal failures of the Democrat budget are described below.

HIGHER TAXES

The Largest Tax Increase in History. Although the Democrats try to claim otherwise, revenue numbers in the budget clearly show tax increases totaling $392.5 billion over 5 years, compared with retaining provisions of the 2001 and 2003 tax laws that are currently in place. Taxes increase by $231 billion in 2012 alone, which is even greater than the $153-billion surplus the budget claims.

Tax Increases Are Widespread. Tax increases would hit middle-income families, low-income earners, families with children, small businesses, and a range of others. Here is a sampling of the implicit tax increases:

Tax Increase	5-Year Total
Increase in Marginal Rates .....	$182 billion
Reduction of Child Tax Credit .....	$27 billion
Increase in Marriage Penalty .....	$13 billion
Increase in Death Tax .....	$91 billion
Increase in Capital Gains and Dividends Tax Rates .....	$32.5 billion
Other Tax Increases .....	$47 billion

The budget contains language, in its novel “Policy” title (Title IV) claiming its intent to protect current tax rates, and not to raise taxes. But the language is not supported by the budget figures, which embrace the automatic tax increases. Further, as noted, the Democrat budget cannot reach balance without them.

Sets the Stage for at Least $115 Billion in Further Tax Hikes. Ten of the budget’s 12 “reserve funds” call for more than $115 billion in higher spending if offset with commensurate savings or—as is far more likely—higher taxes.

Ignoring Economic Consequences. These massive tax increases would likely reverse the economic gains that have developed since adoption of the 2001 and 2003 tax laws, which include: 7.6 million new jobs—an average of 168,500 per month; growth in real gross domestic product [GDP] of 3.5 percent per year over the past 15 quarters; increased business investment for the past 15 quarters; and a Dow Jones Industrial average roughly 41 percent higher than the 2003 level.

Ignoring Fiscal Benefits. The Democrat tax increases also threaten the substantial deficit reduction that has occurred in the past several years.

- Revenue increased in double-digit percentages in 2005 and 2006, and 9.3 percent in the first five months of fiscal year 2007—reaching 18.5 percent of GDP, higher than the average of the past four decades.
- This revenue growth has been the principal factor in reducing the budget deficit from $412.7 billion in 2004 to an estimated $176 billion this year, according to the Congressional Budget Office.

No AMT Fix. The Democrats fail to provide, in their numbers, even a one-year patch for the alternative minimum tax [AMT]. Instead, the budget employs a “reserve fund” that allows AMT relief only if offset by equivalent tax increases or spending cuts—which are not spelled out. The budget also fails to extend the research and development credit and other routine tax provisions.

The ‘Mystical Tax Gap.’ The budget includes budget enforcement language allowing an unspecified amount of increased appropriations to improve tax compliance—apparently seeking to close the so-called “tax gap.” The Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service has testified the IRS could collect, at best, about $20 billion of these taxes 5 years after implementing specific policies recommended in the President’s budget. Yet the Democrats, during markup, insisted that closing the mystical tax gap could prevent many of the tax increases their budget contains.

HUGE SPENDING INCREASES

Hefty Year-to-Year Appropriations Increase. Having already increased current-year spending by $6.1 billion, and adding more than $20 billion to the Iraq supplemental, Democrats in their budget propose another increase of more than $22.5 billion in non-defense, nonemergency annual appropriations for fiscal year 2008.

Increases ‘Advance Appropriations.’ The budget also increases by about $2 billion, to $25.6 billion, the amount that can be appropriated in fiscal year 2009 or later.

Outspends Inflation Later. For the years 2009-12, the budget assumes annual nondefense, nonemergency appropriations will increase by an average of 2.4 percent per year, which is still greater than the projected rate of inflation.

Reckless Entitlement Spending Increases. Despite warnings by numerous witnesses about the unsustainable rate of entitlement spending, the budget’s reserve funds nevertheless provide for higher mandatory spending. As noted above, 10 of the budget’s 12 “reserve funds” create avenues for more than $115 billion in higher spending if offset with higher taxes (or spending reductions, which appear nowhere in the Democrat proposal).

NO SIGNIFICANT REFORM OR OFFSETS

THE NEED FOR ENTITLEMENT REFORM

During committee hearings over the past several weeks, a series of expert witnesses testified to the unsustainable growth of entitlement programs—especially Medicare and Medicaid—and the urgent need to begin reforming them. Among the most significant statements from these hearings were the following:

- Without “early and meaningful action” to address the rapid growth of entitlements, “the U.S. economy could be seriously weakened, with future generations bearing much of the cost.”—Federal Reserve Chairman Ben S. Bernanke, Budget Committee hearing, 28 February 2007.
- “Health care is the number one fiscal challenge for the Federal and State governments * * * it is the number one competitiveness challenge for American business; and * * * it is a growing challenge for American families. If there is one thing that can bankrupt America, it is health care. We need dramatic and fundamental reforms.”—Comptroller General David M. Walker, Budget Committee hearing, 23 January 2007.
- The rising costs of government entitlements are a “fiscal cancer” that threatens “catastrophic consequences for our country” and could “bankrupt America.”—Comptroller General Walker on 60 Minutes, 4 March 2007.

A legion of facts support these concerns:

- Even if taxes were increased by $392.5 billion in the next 5 years, as proposed in the Democrat budget, Federal spending at its current rate will outpace Federal revenue by increasing amounts over the next several decades—mainly due to entitlements, which are growing at an average of 6 percent per year—twice as fast as inflation, and faster than the entire economy.

- The principal drivers of this problem are Medicare and Medicaid, which are growing at 7 percent to 8 percent per year. Even if the budget were balanced today, these two programs alone would drive it right back into deficit. With the forthcoming retirement of the baby boomers, the situation will only get worse.
- By 2040, three entitlement programs—Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid alone—will consume 20 percent of the Nation’s economy. That is equivalent to the cost of the entire Federal Government today; and it will take twice the current rate of taxes just to maintain the current level of entitlement benefits.
- In less than a decade, entitlements will take up 62 percent of the entire Federal budget—and they will keep growing until they crowd out all other spending—including education, science, the environment, agriculture, and even homeland security and defense.

But this challenge is also an opportunity—an opportunity to make these programs better, more efficient, more responsive, more sustainable for the future.

DEMOCRAT BUDGET IGNORES THE WARNINGS— AND THE OPPORTUNITY

Ignoring all of this, however, the Democrat budget puts off any significant reform for at least 5 years—allowing the problem to worsen. Instead, it succumbs to the temptation noted by Senate Budget Committee Chairman Kent Conrad: “It’s always easier to defer, to kick the can down the road to avoid making choices.” (60 Minutes, 4 March 2007.)

The only savings in the budget are a negligible $75 million reconciled to the Education and Labor Committee (which is merely a lever to get higher education reauthorization considered under reconciliation procedures and the savings are spent elsewhere); and $410 million in receipts from selling defense commodities such as Tungsten. These are not reforms, and they do nothing to address the massive entitlement problem. In contrast, the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 saved nearly $40 billion over 5 years, and the President’s budget for fiscal year 2008 proposed $96 billion in mandatory savings.

OTHER FAILURES OF THE DEMOCRAT BUDGET

Here are some of the other flaws in the budget:

NO ACCOUNTABILITY

Retains Bias Favoring Higher Spending, Higher Taxes. The budget assumes that tax relief expires—causing automatic tax increases—but spending programs continue indefinitely.

Fails to Strengthen PAYGO. It retains the weak House pay-as-you-go [PAYGO] rule, which allows Democrats to chase higher spending with higher taxes, and to enact spending increases immediately with savings that do not occur until later.

No Emergency Set-Aside. The budget eliminates the domestic emergency set-aside contained in the current budget resolution, and provides no criteria for domestic emergency spending—which is exempt from budget disciplines.

GIMMICKS

Straw Man Reserve Funds. Instead of providing funding for promised initiatives, the budget includes 10 reserve funds that promise extra funding for pet initiatives if offsets are included. The reserve funds have no real effect because budget rules already permit initiatives not assumed in the budget to be financed by offsets.

No Defense Firewall. By not imposing a firewall around defense, the budget allows Democrats to continue moving money from defense to nondefense, as they did with Base Realignment and Closure [BRAC] Commission funding.

DOUBLE STANDARD

No AMT Reform. After repeatedly blasting Republicans for failing to provide a permanent reform of the alternative minimum tax [AMT], the Democrat budget fails to provide even a one-year patch. Instead the budget employs a “reserve fund” that allows AMT relief only if offset by equivalent tax increases or spending cuts—which are not spelled out.

No Additional Iraq Funding. The budget adopts the President’s requested levels for Iraq funding. Yet after criticizing the President for showing no Iraq funding after 2009, the budget adopts the same policy.

CONCLUSION

Budgeting is the process of fleshing out policy objectives with the substance of financial resources. But the Democrat proposal fails this basic reason for writing a budget: it is all intention with no real follow-through.

If taken seriously, however, the Democrat budget insists that the answer to America’s challenges is more government, more spending, more taxes. This has never been the correct answer—and it isn’t now.

ADDITIONAL MINORITY VIEWS FY2008 BUDGET
RESOLUTION

The Budget Resolution should assume funding of the Poison Control Program at the prior year level. The Poison Control Program currently supports a mix of grantees—most grantees serve entire states, but a few serve multistate regions and, in a handful of cases, more than one grantee serves a single state. The Committee should generally be supportive of this current structure and the budget resolution should assume no changes will be made in this approach. The Committee also should assume that Poison control funds will continue to be allocated to all certified centers based on service population.

- (2) take effect upon the enactment of that measure; and
- (3) be published in the Congressional Record as soon as practicable.

(b) EFFECT OF CHANGED ALLOCATIONS AND AGGREGATES.—Revised allocations and aggregates resulting from these adjustments shall be considered for the purposes of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 as allocations and aggregates contained in this resolution.

(c) COMMITTEE ON THE BUDGET DETERMINATIONS.—For purposes of this resolution, the levels of new budget authority, outlays, direct spending, new entitlement authority, revenues, deficits, and surpluses for a fiscal year or period of fiscal years shall be determined on the basis of estimates made by the Committee on the Budget.

SEC. 305. ADJUSTMENTS TO REFLECT CHANGES IN CONCEPTS AND DEFINITIONS.

Upon the enactment of a bill or joint resolution providing for a change in concepts or definitions, the chairman of the Committee on the Budget shall make adjustments to the levels and allocations in this resolution in accordance with section 251(b) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (as in effect on September 30, 2002).

SEC. 306. COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 13301 OF THE BUDGET ENFORCEMENT ACT OF 1990.

(a) IN GENERAL.—In the House and the Senate, notwithstanding section 302(a)(1) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 and section 13301 of the Budget Enforcement Act of 1990, the joint explanatory statement accompanying the conference report on any concurrent resolution on the budget shall include in its allocation under section 302(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 to the Committee on Appropriations amounts for the discretionary administrative expenses of the Social Security Administration.

Congress adopts the provisions of this title—

(1) as an exercise of the rulemaking power of the House and as such they shall be considered as part of the rules of the House, and such rules shall supersede other rules only to the extent that they are inconsistent therewith; and

(2) with full recognition of the constitutional right of the House to change those rules at any time, in the same manner, and to the same extent as in the case of any other rule of the House.

TITLE IV—POLICY

SEC. 401. POLICY ON MIDDLE-INCOME TAX RELIEF.

It is the policy of this resolution to minimize fiscal burdens on middle-income families and their children and grandchildren. It is the policy of this resolution to provide immediate relief for the tens of millions of middle-income households who would otherwise be subject to the Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT) under current law in the context of permanent, revenue-neutral AMT reform. Furthermore, it is the policy of this resolution to support extension of middle-income tax relief and enhanced economic equity through policies such as—

- (1) extension of the child tax credit;
  - (2) extension of marriage penalty relief;
  - (3) extension of the 10 percent individual income tax bracket;
  - (4) elimination of estate taxes on all but a minute fraction of estates by reforming and substantially increasing the unified tax credit;
  - (5) extension of the research and experimentation tax credit;
  - (6) extension of the deduction for State and local sales taxes;
  - (7) extension of the deduction for small business expensing;
- and

(8) enactment of a tax credit for school construction bonds. This resolution assumes the cost of enacting such policies is offset by reforms within the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 that promote a fairer distribution of taxes across families and generations, economic efficiency, higher rates of tax compliance to close the “tax gap”, and reduced taxpayer burdens through tax simplification.

SEC. 402. POLICY ON DEFENSE PRIORITIES.

It is the policy of this resolution that—

- (1) recommendations of the National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States (commonly referred to as the 9/11 Commission) to fund cooperative threat reduction and nuclear nonproliferation programs at a level commensurate with the risk is a high priority, and the President’s budget should have requested sufficient funding for these programs;
- (2) ensuring that the TRICARE fees for military retirees under the age of 65 remain at current levels;
- (3) funds be provided for increasing pay to ensure retention of experienced personnel and for improving military benefits in general;
- (4) the Missile Defense Agency should be funded at an adequate but lower level and the elimination of space-based interceptor development will ensure a more prudent acquisition strategy, yet still support a robust ballistic missile defense program;
- (5) satellite research, development, and procurement be funded at a level below the amount requested for fiscal year 2008, which amounts to a 26 percent increase above the current level, but at a level sufficient to develop new satellite technologies while ensuring a more prudent acquisition strategy;
- (6) sufficient resources be provided to implement Government Accountability Office (GAO) recommendations, such as improving financial management and contracting practices at the Department of Defense (DOD), and that substantial savings should result from the identification of billions of dollars of obligations and disbursements and Government overcharges for which the Department of Defense cannot account;
- (7) that the Department of Defense should do a more careful job of addressing the 1,378 Government Accountability Office recommendations made to the Department of Defense and its components over the last six years that have yet to be implemented, which could produce billions of dollars in savings; and

(8) accruing all savings from the actions recommended in paragraphs (4) through (7) should be used to fund higher priorities within Function 050 (Defense), and especially those high priorities identified in paragraphs (1) through (3) and to help fund recommendations of the bipartisan “Walter Reed Commission” (the President’s Commission on Care for America’s Returning Wounded Warriors) and other United States Government investigations into military healthcare facilities and services.

SEC. 403. POLICY ON COLLEGE AFFORDABILITY.

It is the policy of this resolution that the reconciliation directive to the Committee on Education and Labor shall not be construed to reduce any assistance that makes college more affordable for students, including but not limited to assistance to student aid programs run by nonprofit state agencies.

TITLE V—SENSE OF THE HOUSE

SEC. 501. SENSE OF THE HOUSE ON SERVICEMEMBERS’ AND VETERANS’ HEALTH CARE AND OTHER PRIORITIES.

It is the sense of the House that—

(1) the House supports excellent health care for current and former members of the United States Armed Services, who have served well and honorably and have made significant sacrifices for this Nation;

(2) this resolution provides $43,055,000,000 in discretionary budget authority for 2008 for Function 700 (Veterans Benefits and Services), including veterans’ health care, which is $6,598,000,000 more than the 2007 level, $5,404,000,000 more than the Congressional Budget Office’s baseline level for 2008, and $3,506,000,000 more than the President’s budget for 2008;

(3) this resolution provides funding to implement, in part, recommendations of the bi-partisan “Walter Reed Commission” (the President’s Commission on Care for America’s Returning Wounded Warriors) and other United States Government investigations into military and veterans health care facilities and services;

(4) this resolution assumes the rejection of the enrollment fees and co-payment increases in the President’s budget;

(5) this resolution provides additional funding above the President’s inadequate budget levels for the Department of Veterans Affairs to research and treat veterans’ mental health, post-traumatic stress disorder, and traumatic brain and spinal cord injuries; and

(6) this resolution provides additional funding above the President’s inadequate budget levels for the Department of Veterans Affairs to improve the speed and accuracy of its processing of disability compensation claims, including funding to hire additional personnel above the President’s requested level.

SEC. 502. SENSE OF THE HOUSE ON THE INNOVATION AGENDA: A COMMITMENT TO COMPETITIVENESS TO KEEP AMERICA #1.

(a) It is the sense of the House to provide sufficient funding that our Nation may continue to be the world leader in education, innovation and economic growth. This resolution provides $450,000,000 above the President's requested level for 2008, and additional amounts in subsequent years in Function 250 (General Science, Space and Technology) and Function 270 (Energy). Additional increases for scientific research and education are included in Function 500 (Education, Employment, Training, and Social Services), Function 550 (Health), Function 300 (Environment and Natural Resources), Function 350 (Agriculture), Function 400 (Transportation), and Function 370 (Commerce and Housing Credit), all of which receive more funding than the President requested.

(b) America's greatest resource for innovation resides within classrooms across the country. The increased funding provided in this resolution will support important initiatives to educate 100,000 new scientists, engineers, and mathematicians, and place highly qualified teachers in math and science K–12 classrooms.

(c) Independent scientific research provides the foundation for innovation and future technologies. This resolution will put us on the path toward doubling funding for the National Science Foundation, basic research in the physical sciences across all agencies, and collaborative research partnerships; and toward achieving energy independence through the development of clean and sustainable alternative energy technologies.

SEC. 503. SENSE OF THE HOUSE ON HOMELAND SECURITY.

It is the sense of the House that—

(1) this resolution assumes additional homeland security funding above the President's requested level for 2008 and every subsequent year;

(2) this resolution assumes funding above the President's requested level for 2008, and additional amounts in subsequent years, in the four budget functions: Function 400 (Transportation), Function 450 (Community and Regional Development), Function 550 (Health), and Function 750 (Administration of Justice) that fund most nondefense homeland security activities; and

(3) the homeland security funding provided in this resolution will help to strengthen the security of our Nation's transportation system, particularly our ports where significant security shortfalls still exist and foreign ports, by expanding efforts to identify and scan all high-risk United States-bound cargo, equip first responders, strengthen border patrol, and increase the preparedness of the public health system.

SEC. 504. SENSE OF THE HOUSE REGARDING THE ONGOING NEED TO RESPOND TO HURRICANES KATRINA AND RITA.

It is the sense of the House that:

(1) Critical needs in the Gulf Coast region should be addressed without further delay. The budget resolution creates a reserve fund that would allow for affordable housing that may be used to focus on areas devastated by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, as well as new funding for additional recovery priorities.

(2) Additional oversight and investigation is needed to ensure that recovery efforts are on track, develop legislation to reform the contracting process, and better prepare for future disasters. Those efforts should be made in close consultation with residents of affected areas. The budget resolution provides additional 2007 funding for the Federal Emergency Management Agency, some of which may be used for this purpose.

SEC. 505. SENSE OF THE HOUSE REGARDING LONG-TERM SUSTAINABILITY OF ENTITLEMENTS.

(a) FINDINGS.—The House finds the following:

(1) The aging of the United States population is going to put unprecedented pressure on the Nation's retirement and health care systems.

(2) The long-term strength of social security would be improved through a fiscally responsible policy of reducing the deficit and paying down the debt that has accumulated since 2001, thus reducing debt service payments and freeing up billions of dollars that can be dedicated to meeting social security's obligations.

(3) A policy of reducing and eventually eliminating the deficit and paying down the debt is a key factor in improving the long-term strength of the economy as a whole, because a lower debt burden frees up resources for productive investments that will result in higher economic growth, provide a higher standard of living for future generations, and enhance the Nation's ability to meet its commitments to its senior citizens.

(4) The most significant factor affecting the Nation's entitlement programs is the rapid increase in health care costs. The projected increasing costs of medicare and medicaid are not unique to these programs but rather are part of a pattern of rising costs for the health sector as a whole.

(b) SENSE OF THE HOUSE.—It is the sense of the House that the growing cost of entitlements should be addressed in a way that is fiscally responsible and promotes economic growth, that addresses the causes of cost growth in the broader health care system, and that protects beneficiaries without leaving a legacy of debt to future generations.

SEC. 506. SENSE OF THE HOUSE REGARDING THE NEED TO MAINTAIN AND BUILD UPON EFFORTS TO FIGHT HUNGER.

(a) FINDINGS.—The House finds the following:

(1) More than 35 million individuals (12.4 million of them children) are food insecure, uncertain of having, or unable to acquire enough food. 10.8 million Americans are hungry because of lack of food.

(2) Despite the critical contributions of the Department of Agriculture nutrition programs and particularly the food stamp program that significantly reduced payment error rates while increasing enrollment to partially mitigate the impact of recent increases in the poverty rate, significant need remains.

(3) Nearly 25 million people, including nine million children and three million seniors, sought emergency food assistance from food pantries, soup kitchens, shelters, and local charities last year.

(b) SENSE OF THE HOUSE.—It is the sense of the House that the Department of Agriculture programs that help fight hunger should be maintained and that the House should seize opportunities to enhance those programs to reach people in need and to fight hunger.

SEC. 507. SENSE OF THE HOUSE REGARDING AFFORDABLE HEALTH COVERAGE.

(a) FINDINGS.—The House finds the following:

(1) More than 46 million Americans, including nine million children, lack health insurance. People without health insurance are more likely to experience problems getting medical care and to be hospitalized for avoidable health problems.

(2) Most Americans receive health coverage through their employers. A major issue facing all employers is the rising cost of health insurance. Small businesses, which have generated most of the new jobs annually over the last decade, have an especially difficult time affording health coverage, due to higher administrative costs and fewer people over whom to spread the risk of catastrophic costs. Because it is especially costly for small businesses to provide health coverage, their employees make up a large proportion of the nation's uninsured individuals.

(b) SENSE OF THE HOUSE.—It is the sense of the House that legislation consistent with the pay-as-you-go principle should be adopted that makes health insurance more affordable and accessible, with attention to the special needs of small businesses, and that lowers costs and improves the quality of health care by encouraging integration of health information technology tools into the practice of medicine, and promoting improvements in disease management and disease prevention.

SEC. 508. SENSE OF THE HOUSE REGARDING EXTENSION OF THE STATUTORY PAY-AS-YOU-GO RULE.

It is the sense of the House that in order to reduce the deficit Congress should extend PAYGO in its original form in the Budget Enforcement Act of 1990.

SEC. 509. SENSE OF THE HOUSE ON LONG-TERM BUDGETING.

It is the sense of Congress that the determination of the congressional budget for the United States Government and the President's budget request should include consideration of the Financial Report of the United States Government, especially its information regarding the Government's net operating cost, financial position, and long-term liabilities.

SEC. 510. SENSE OF THE HOUSE REGARDING PAY PARITY.

It is the sense of the House that rates of compensation for civilian employees of the United States should be adjusted at the same time, and in the same proportion, as are rates of compensation for members of the uniformed services.

SEC. 511. SENSE OF THE HOUSE REGARDING WASTE, FRAUD, AND ABUSE.

It is the sense of the House that all committees should examine programs within their jurisdiction to identify wasteful and fraudulent spending. To this end, section 301 of this resolution includes cap adjustments to provide appropriations for three programs that accounted for a significant share of improper payments reported by Federal agencies in 2006: Social Security Administration Continuing Disability Reviews, the Medicare/Medicaid Health Care Fraud and Abuse Control Program, and Unemployment Insurance. Section 301 also includes a cap adjustment for the Internal Revenue Services for tax compliance efforts to close the $300,000,000,000 tax gap. In addition, the resolution's deficit-neutral reserve funds require authorizing committees to cut lower priority and wasteful spending to accommodate new high-priority entitlement benefits. Finally, section 301 of the resolution directs all committees to review the performance of programs within their jurisdiction and report recommendations annually to the Committee on the Budget as part of the views and estimates process required by section 301(d) of the Congressional Budget Act.

SEC. 512. SENSE OF THE HOUSE REGARDING THE IMPORTANCE OF CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT.

It is the sense of the House that—

(1) additional legislative action is needed to ensure that States have the necessary resources to collect all child support that is owed to families and to allow them to pass 100 percent of support on to families without financial penalty; and

(2) when 100 percent of child support payments are passed to the child, rather than administrative expenses, program integrity is improved and child support participation increases.

SEC. 513. SENSE OF THE HOUSE ON STATE VETERANS CEMETERIES.
