Information/Privacy Release

The Privacy Act of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect you from any unauthorized use and exchange of personal information by federal agencies. Any information that a federal agency has on file regarding your dealings with the United States government may not, with a few exceptions, be given to another agency or Member of Congress without your written permission. Family members, friends, or other interested parties generally may not authorize on your behalf the release of information covered by the Privacy Act.

While I am happy to work on your behalf, as a matter of Congressional courtesy, my general policy is to avoid working on constituent cases currently being handled by other Senators or House members from Virginia. Having multiple offices working on the same matter may cause delays in the resolution of your case, thus I encourage you to continue working with that member.
