September 11, 2007

The Honorable Dennis J. Kucinich
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Chairman Kucinich:

I write to apologize for providing some inaccurate information in my August 28, 2007, letter to Congressman Issa. As Jeanne Bumpus, my Director of Congressional Relations, has communicated to your staff, after I received your letter, we made further inquiries and confirmed that data we relied on was wrong. I highly regret the error, and I have directed my staff to conduct a thorough reassessment of the issue based on accurate data. I understand that our schedulers are arranging a meeting, and I look forward to discussing this issue with you.

Sincerely,
