

Congressman Xavier Becerra's Congressional Student Art Competition

Are you a bold and creative artist?

Enter to win a trip to Washington, D.C.
and have your artwork exhibited in the United States Capitol!

What is the 34th Congressional Student Art Competition?

Since 1993, Congressman Xavier Becerra has held an annual Student Art Competition open to all high school students who reside in the 34th Congressional District. Each spring, a nation-wide high school arts competition is sponsored by the Members of the U.S. House of Representatives. The Congressional Student Art Competition is an opportunity to recognize and encourage artistic talent in the nation and entire congressional district.

Eligible Contestants:

All high school students who reside in the 34th Congressional District are eligible to participate in the competition. If you do not know which district you live in, please visit www.House.Gov to find out.

Deadline for Entries:

All artwork is due on March 2, 2015 by 4:30 P.M. Late entries will not be accepted.

All artwork must have a signed "Student Release Form" securely attached. Please read the second page for more detailed information and to find a the release form. Additional copies can also be found at our website, www.Becerra.House.gov.
