November 27, 2013

Thanksgiving is a time for family, for friends, and for relaxation and enjoyment with the ones you hold closest to your heart. It is also a time to give thanks and to be grateful for people that fill your life with joy.

I want to take a moment to give thanks to you. Thank you for participating in this democracy. Thank you for being a concerned citizen. Thank you for holding true to your views, while respecting mine. And most of all, thank you for staying engaged in the debate. Your input on the issues that matter make me a better representative for you and our neighbors in the district.

This Thanksgiving will be enjoyed with my family in Long Beach. My wife Debbie will be making the turkey, and I will be her Master Assistant in the kitchen (I am not much of a cook, but Debbie assures me that I am great at cleaning up!).

However you celebrate Thanksgiving this year, I wish you and your family all the best.

And for those who will be celebrating the festival of lights: Happy Hanukkah!

Thank you,

Alan Lowenthal
Member of Congress
