January 23, 2013 | Don Seymour

In an interview with Laura Ingraham today, Speaker John Boehner highlighted today’s vote on the No Budget, No Pay Act, said the House will outline a plan to balance the budget within 10 years, and discussed the importance of holding the Obama administration accountable for  its response to the terrorist attack in Benghazi. Here are several key excerpts:

Boehner on “No Budget, No Pay”:

“Our bill today extends the debt limit for an additional 90 days, and it makes it very clear to the Senate and to the House that you pass a budget or you don’t get paid. The House is going to do its job; it’s time for the Senate to do their job. ... Every hardworking taxpayer knows that they’ve got to do a budget. And every hardworking taxpayer expects Washington to do a budget as well, and if they don’t, why pay them?”

Boehner on Balancing the Budget in 10 Years:

“The House is going to have a plan in our budget to balance the budget over the next 10 years. ... House Republicans are committed to do everything we can to get spending under control.”

Boehner on the Terrorist Attack in Libya:

“There are facts out there that make it clear that [the Obama administration] knew this was a terrorist attack and yet they went on for weeks trying to claim that it wasn’t. ... We are bound and determined to get to the bottom of who knew what and when, and why the administration continued to deny that this was in fact a terrorist attack. And the fact that they denied these legitimate requests for additional security in Libya.”

Please for the sake of justice and the safety of the American People appoint a Select Committee to investigate the Benghazi incident. This incident is a startling example of how the Obama Administration's dangerous and naive foreign policy could lead to a much larger blunder that will affect the safety and security of the citizens of the United States. Please realize that the implications of not pursuing the truth from this incident will have far-reaching consequences on our security throughout the world and at home.

We ust have to remember, he, the President, is hoping that he can turn us into a new USSR before to many people finaly stop listening to media like ABC, CBS, NBC, MSNBC, PBS, etc and either listen to something like FOX or Rush and then you will hear "WHAT THE HELL HAS BEEN GOING ON". That will be during turn three (3). That's another thing he is trying for.

Hillary waved her hand around yelling, "What does it matter who killed these four men, they are dead and their families are heartbroken and I went and saw the saddness and I put my arms around these people...etc" Pretty heartless to the families when they want answers to who did not send help when it was asked for, over a four hour period of time. They have family arms to go into...not her fake politician arms. Why did she...or the people under her decide that Ambassador's life was not worth the help. Hillary, or Valeria, or Obama killed thoes men by not OKing a fly over, or helicoper aid, due to a political agenda in an election year. The news media is fawning over this person instead of crucifying her for her disregard of their situation on that night. Where was Hillary at that time period. Who was taking their call for help? Who did that person send the emails to? Who decided to ignore their call for help? All the foreign service people better quit before the next election...or at least get out of their assigned countries on election years, because your leaders do not think your lives are worth jeopardizing their possiblity of staying in power. I will never forget this, like I never forgot Ted Kennedy's cowardly behavior letting that young girl drown, running home, sobering up before calling the police. Cowards, all of them. And the media totally protects them. And ABC, and NBC and CBS wonders why their viewership is going into the toilet. Cowards all of them

Unless the size of the federal government is decreased and real cuts, not reductions in spending rate take place, this bill will mean ZERO! I am unimpressed! Let me see, the speaker voted to raise taxes on me. Now, I am supposed to believe he supports fiscal responsibility. Mr. Speaker you should be ashamed of your performance and vote. You and the budget guru Ryan have not earned my respect or trust.

No Budget, No Pay does not financially effect the Senator's and House Reps who have personal worth in the millions. Their salary is a little amount compared to their net worth. Although I heard that Joe Biden lives paycheck to paycheck! Maybe that is a falshood, I have never personally looked at his tax returns. I think, the Rep's will shine a light on this fact to the whole nation that many of the Dem's have huge personal worth and gained a lot of it at the expense of the American people after they were elected. It will be like looking under a rock and we will see such a flurry of action. AND At least by delaying the debt ceiling bill, the gun BS, abortion(which was settled 40 years ago!), Benghazi (the Dems should know what happened on their watch and if they don't, they should be fired instead of promoted) will not be distracting red herring to the real issue in May.

I for one REALLY want to hear a REAL plan of action from Obama. Why has he not put forth one? Why? I believe, he does not have one. This is what his actions speak.

Harry Reid and his flock of minions wanted people to believe that he was somehow doing people a favor by agreeing to take up this No Budget, No Pay bill yesterday.

The media of course wouldn't verbally smack him out of his chuckleheaded fantasy, so the patting thyself on the back continued. Patty Murray broke her arm patting herself on the back as did Chuck Schumer. Meh!

It's bad enough we have to deal with the King of Narcissism in the White House, but now we need to deal with it from members of Congress as well on a bill that doesn't actually take pay away.

While this verbal vomit is entertaining for all of about 5 seconds, enough already.

I understand that my standards are too high. I expect Congress to do it's job all the time without a threat of pay being locked into a escrow account and I expect members of Congress to follow through with things they said they would do. i.e- If you're going to pass a law such as the Budget Control Act
