RESOLUTION

Authorizing biennial expenditures by committees of the Senate.

1       Resolved, That this resolution may be cited as the 2 “Omnibus Committee Funding Resolution for 1993 and 3 1994”.

4                                   AGGREGATE AUTHORIZATION

5       SEC. 2. (a) In carrying out its powers, duties, and 6 functions under the Standing Rules of the Senate, and 7 under the appropriate authorizing resolutions of the Sen-
8 ate, there is authorized for the period March 1, 1993, 9 through September 30, 1994, in the aggregate of

1 $55,696,935 and for the period March 1, 1994, through 2 February 28, 1995, in the aggregate of $56,428,119, in 3 accordance with the provisions of this resolution, for all
4 Standing Committees of the Senate, the Special Commit-5 tee on Aging, the Select Committee on Intelligence, the 6 Select Committee on Indian Affairs, and the Joint Com-
7 mittee on the Operation of the Congress.

8 (b) Each committee referred to in subsection (a) shall 9 report its findings, together with such recommendations 10 for legislation as it deems advisable, to the Senate at the 11 earliest practicable date, but not later than February 28,
12 1994, and February 28, 1995, respectively.

13 (c) Any expenses of a committee under this resolution
14 shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate upon 15 vouchers approved by the chairman of the committee, ex-
16 cept that vouchers shall not be required (1) for the dis-17 bursement of salaries of employees of the committee who 18 are paid at an annual rate, (2) for the payment of tele-
19 communications expenses provided by the Office of the 20 Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper, United States Senate,
21 Department of Telecommunications, (3) for the payment 22 of stationery supplies purchased through the Keeper of 23 Stationery, United States Senate, (4) for payments to the 24 Postmaster, United States Senate, (5) for the payment of 25 metered charges on copying equipment provided by the Of-

1 fice of the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper, United 2 States Senate, or (6) for the payment of Senate Recording
3 and Photographic Services.

4 (d) There are authorized such sums as may be nec-
5 essary for agency contributions related to the compensa-
6 tion of employees of the committees from March 1, 1993,
7 through September 30, 1994, and March 1, 1994, through 8 February 28, 1995, to be paid from the appropriations

1 regulations, and laws governing the various govern-
2 mental agencies and its relationships with the public;

3 (B) the extent to which criminal or other im-
4 proper practices or activities are, or have been, en-5 gaged in the field of labor-management relations or 6 in groups or organizations of employees or employ-
7 ers, to the detriment of interests of the public, em-
8 ployers, or employees, and to determine whether any 9 changes are required in the laws of the United 10 States in order to protect such interests against the 11 occurrence of such practices or activities;

12 (C) organized criminal activities which may op-
13 erate in or otherwise utilize the facilities of inter-14 state or international commerce in furtherance of 15 any transactions and the manner and extent to 16 which, and the identity of the persons, firms, or cor-
17 porations, or other entities by whom such utilization
18 is being made, and further, to study and investigate 19 the manner in which and the extent to which per-20 sons engaged in organized criminal activity have in-21 filtrated lawful business enterprise, and to study the 22 adequacy of Federal laws to prevent the operations
23 of organized crime in interstate or international 24 commerce; and to determine whether any changes 25 are required in the laws of the United States in

1 order to protect the public against such practices or 2 activities;

3 (D) all other aspects of crime and lawlessness
4 within the United States which have an impact upon 5 or affect the national health, welfare, and safety; in-6 cluding but not limited to investment fraud schemes, 7 commodity and security fraud, computer fraud, and 8 the use of offshore banking and corporate facilities
9 to carry out criminal objectives;

10 (E) the efficiency and economy of operations of 11 all branches and functions of the Government with 12 particular reference to—

13 (i) the effectiveness of present national se-
14 curity methods, staffing, and processes as test-15 ed against the requirements imposed by the 16 rapidly mounting complexity of national secu-
17 rity problems;

18 (ii) the capacity of present national secu-
19 rity staffing, methods, and processes to make 20 full use of the Nation's resources of knowledge
21 and talents;

22 (iii) the adequacy of present intergovern-
23 mental relations between the United States and 24 international organizations principally con-

1           cerned with national security of which the Unit-
2           ed States is a member; and

3                   (iv) legislative and other proposals to im-
4           prove these methods, processes, and relation-
5           ships;

6           (F) the efficiency, economy, and effectiveness of 7           all agencies and departments of the Government in-8           volved in the control and management of energy 9           shortages including, but not limited to, their per-10          formance with respect to—

11                   (i) the collection and dissemination of ac-
12          curate statistics on fuel demand and supply;

13                   (ii) the implementation of effective energy

16                   (iv) coordination of energy programs with 17          State and local government;

18                   (v) control of exports of scarce fuels;

19                   (vi) the management of tax, import, pric-
20          ing, and other policies affecting energy supplies;

21                   (vii) maintenance of the independent sector
22          of the petroleum industry as a strong competi-
23          tive force;

24                   (viii) the allocation of fuels in short supply
25          by public and private entities;

1 (ix) the management of energy supplies
2 owned or controlled by the Government;

3 (x) relations with other oil producing and 4 consuming countries;

5 (xi) the monitoring of compliance by gov-
6 ernments, corporations, or individuals with the 7 laws and regulations governing the allocation, 8 conservation, or pricing of energy supplies; and

9 (xii) research into the discovery and devel-
10 opment of alternative energy supplies; and

11 (G) the efficiency and economy of all branches
12 and functions of Government with particular ref-
13 erences to the operations and management of Fed-14 eral regulatory policies and programs: Provided,
15 That, in carrying out the duties herein set forth, the 16 inquiries of this committee or any subcommittee
17 thereof shall not be deemed limited to the records, 18 functions, and operations of any particular branch of 19 the Government; but may extend to the records and
