2019 National Rules

1. Entries must be uploaded or postmarked to the National Chairpersons no later than Friday, March 22, 2019 for Veterans to be eligible to compete at the national level.
2. Eligibility: Veterans must be enrolled to receive care at a VA medical facility or outpatient clinic before entering your local competition. This facility should be the site where he/she receives their primary treatment. He/she can submit an entry in creative writing, dance, drama or music categories with a Veteran or group from another VA facility, but still represents and must go through his/her originating VA facility to enter the competition.
3. Each Veteran must work with a VA staff person from the VA facility at which he/she receives his/her primary treatment to enter the competition, or risk disqualification. Eligible Veterans are only permitted to enter through one VA facility's competition per year.
4. Entry information for all entries in art, creative writing, dance, drama, and music must be submitted using the NVCA Competition Data Entry Excel worksheet. (See Page 3 for information on how to access this document.) The entry forms in this handbook may be used to gather the necessary information to complete the Excel worksheet for each VA facility. Staff should retain the entry forms and the necessary consent forms for reference and verification purposes as needed. Each division has entry forms that are specific for their division. Please use the forms provided in this handbook to make copies as needed.
5. A 10-3203 form (Consent for Production and Use of Verbal or Written Statements, Photographs, Digital Images, and/or Video or Audio Recordings by VA) must be completed and signed by every Veteran entering the local and national level of competition. These forms do not need to be sent to the national chairpersons. The staff contact person submitting the entry for the Veteran should safeguard the signed consent forms at their VA facility.
6. No one Veteran will be allowed to enter more than three art categories and one group category in the art division. No one Veteran will be allowed to enter more than three creative writing categories in the creative writing division. No one Veteran will be allowed to enter more than three solo categories and three group categories in the dance, drama and music divisions. Veterans can have only one entry per category in each division.
7. First place ties in a category at the local competition MUST be re-judged at the local level as only one entry for each category will be accepted from each VA facility. A formal competition is not required at the local level but is strongly encouraged. All eligible Veterans should be given the opportunity to participate regardless of degree of talent.
8. Veterans may not expand the number of their entries in any one division using a different name (for example: pen names, stage names, different artist names, etc.).
9. A single entry may not be submitted into two or more categories within the same division. It is acceptable for an entry to be submitted into multiple divisions if the rules are followed for each division.

New!

The national chairpersons and judges of the competitions reserve the right to disqualify an entry if the above rules are not followed.

The Competition Phase

1. Veterans in national first, second and third place groups of up to four in art, creative writing, dance, drama and music will each be presented a medal. Groups of 5 or more will be presented a medal if possible or will be provided an award certificate. Non-Veterans and Veterans serving as accompanists, or dance partners, or dramatic readers that enhance an entry will not receive medals or certificates.
2. Each Veteran must work with a VA staff person from the VA facility at which he/she receives his/her primary treatment in order to enter the competition, or risk disqualification.
3. Prior to submitting entries in the competition, eligible Veterans who are also VA employees should discuss leave options/restrictions with their supervisor in the event they might be invited to attend the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival in October.
4. Send only the first place winners from your competition. Only one entry for each category will be accepted from a VA facility.
5. Final results of each of the five divisions of competition will be sent via E-mail to staff contact persons in mid-June. A list of Veterans invited to attend the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival will also be sent to the staff contact persons of the invited Veterans in mid-June.

Art Division

6. All artwork entered (except for the Military Combat Experience, category 14) must have been completed after April 1, 2018.
7. Art entries must be submitted as digital images only. Do not submit the actual art or photographs of the art as they will be disqualified.
8. There will only be one phase of national competition visual art judging. Judges will select first, second and third place based on the scores they provide during the digital image judging in April. Only the first place pieces from each category from the national competition digital image judging will be shipped in May from the VA medical centers to Battle Creek VA Medical Center.
9. Groups in art are not limited in number of group members. However no more than 8 eligible invited Veterans from the first place national competition winning entry in the Group Art category will be funded by the Festival.
10. Once an entry has placed first in the art division at the national level of competition it is NOT eligible to be entered again.
11. Visual art entries may be submitted via CD or via the NVCA Competition SharePoint site <https://vaww.visn23.portal.va.gov/stc/NVCACompetition>.
12. All first place gold medal winners from the National Art Division Competition will be invited to the Festival.

2019 National Rules – The Festival

1. Following the national judging, those invited to attend the 2019 National Veterans Creative Arts Festival will be notified by late-June via their staff contact person. The 2019 National Veterans Creative Arts Festival will be hosted by the Battle Creek, Michigan VA Medical Center October 28 – November 4, 2019.
2. For ALL divisions: Veterans who have received a gold medal in the same category from any of the 5 divisions (art, creative writing, dance, drama, and music) for two consecutive years must enter a different category the third year. Failure to comply with this rule will result in the entry being disqualified.
3. Veterans may not enter the same art, creative writing, dance, drama and music entry again once it has won first place nationally. Failure to comply with this rule will result in disqualification of the entry. Additionally, Veterans should be encouraged to enter new material each year rather than repeat entries.
4. Funding support and arrangements for travel to and from the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival for those Veterans invited to attend the NVCAF is the responsibility of the local VA facility. Housing, meals and ground transportation during the Festival will be provided through national Festival funds. These expenses will be provided for up to 8 eligible Veterans invited in the Group Art category and Creative Writing Special Recognition category and up to 8 eligible Veterans invited in the group categories of the dance, drama, and music divisions.
5. Those invited to participate in the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival will be notified via an E-mail to the VA staff contact person for their facility no later than late-June, 2019. Veterans who are invited and accept the invitation must submit all required Festival registration forms to Battle Creek, Michigan host site of the 2019 Festival no later than August 1, 2019.
6. Stage show performance costumes for winning acts invited to the Festival will be the responsibility of the participant(s). Male participants will be requested to bring black pants and a white collared, long-sleeve dress shirt. Other production number costumes such as vests, ties, etc., will be provided. Women participants will be provided a Festival chorus dress.
7. Veterans who are invited to the Festival must be prepared (either themselves or through their staff contact person) to send an E-mail including the lyrics for music and dance and words/narration for drama entries in order for this to be placed in the show script. E-mails can be sent to Suzanne.Anderson4@va.gov.
