SPECIAL ORDER SPEECHES

SPECIAL ORDERS

On motion of Mr. Bonior, by unanimous consent, Ordered, That the trial period established on Feb. 11, 1994 for recognition for future Special Order speeches be continued for the duration of the 103d Congress. (Agreed to June 10, 1994.)

Further that [during the period beginning February 23, 1994 and for ninety days thereafter] for the duration of the 103d Congress, on Mondays and Tuesdays of each week the House shall convene ninety minutes earlier than the time otherwise established by order of the House solely for the purpose of conducting "morning hour" debates to be followed by a recess declared by the Speaker pursuant to clause 12, Rule I under the following conditions: 1) Prayer by the Chaplain, approval of the Journal and the pledge of allegiance to the flag to be postponed until the resumption of the House session following the completion of morning hour debate; 2) Debate to be limited not to exceed thirty minutes allocated to each party, with initial and subsequent recognition alternating daily between parties to be conferred by the Speaker only pursuant to lists submitted by the Majority Leader and Minority Leader respectively (no Member on such lists to be permitted to address the House for longer than five minutes except for the Majority Leader and Minority Leader respectively);

Further, that on (every third) Wednesday, beginning on a day to be designated by the Speaker and mutually agreed upon by the Majority Leader and Minority Leader, it shall be in order, at a time to be determined by the Speaker, for the Speaker to recognize the Majority Leader and Minority Leader (or their designees), jointly, for a period not to exceed two hours, for the purpose of holding a structured debate. The topic of the debate, when mutually agreed upon by the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader, shall be announced by the Speaker. The format of the debate, which shall allow for participation by four Members of the Majority party and four from the Minority party in the House, chosen by their respective party leaders, with specified times for presentations and rebuttals by all participants, and periods of questioning of each Member by others participating, shall be announced to the House by the Speaker.

THE MORNING HOUR FOR THE CALL OF COMMITTEES

Rule XXIV, clause 4:

"4. After the unfinished business has been disposed of, the Speaker shall call each standing committee in regular order, and then select committees, and each committee when named may call up for consideration any bill reported by it on a previous day and on the House Calendar, and if the Speaker shall not complete the call of the Committees before the House passes to other business, he shall resume the next call where he left off, giving preference to the last bill under consideration: Provided, That whenever any committee shall have occupied the morning hour on two days, it shall not be in order to call up any other bill until the other committees have been called in their turn."

NOTE.—Call rests with the Committee on Agriculture.

CALENDAR WEDNESDAY BUSINESS

Rule XXIV, clause 7:

"7. On Wednesday of each week no business shall be in order except as provided by clause 4 of this rule unless the House by a two-thirds vote on motion to dispense therewith shall otherwise determine. On such a motion there may be debate not to exceed five minutes for and against. On a call of committees under this rule bills may be called up from either the House or the Union Calendar, excepting bills which are privileged under the rules; but bills called up from the Union Calendar shall be considered in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union. This rule shall not apply during the last two weeks of the session. It shall not be in order for the Speaker to entertain a motion for a recess on any Wednesday except during the last two weeks of the session: Provided, That not more than two hours of general debate shall be permitted on any measure called up on Calendar Wednesday, and all debate must be confined to the subject matter of the bill, the time to be equally divided between those for and against the bill: Provided further, That whenever any committee shall have occupied one Wednesday it shall not be in order, unless the House by a two-thirds vote shall otherwise determine, to consider any unfinished business previously called up by such committee, unless the previous question had been ordered thereon, upon any succeeding Wednesday until the other committees have been called in their turn under this rule: Provided, That when, during any one session of a Congress, all of the committees of the House are not called under the Calendar Wednesday rule, at the next session of that Congress the call shall commence where it left off at the end of the preceding session."

NOTE.—Call rests with the Committee on Agriculture.

3. PRIVATE CALENDAR

SEC. 3

Rule XIII, clause 1 (Third):

"Third. A Calendar of the Committee of the Whole House, to which shall be referred all bills of a private character."

Rule XXIV, clause 6:

"6. On the first Tuesday of each month after disposal of such business on the Speaker's table as requires reference only, the Speaker shall direct the Clerk to call the bills and resolutions on the Private Calendar. Should objection be made by two or more Members to the consideration of any bill or resolution so called, it shall be recommitted to the committee which reported the bill or resolution, and no reservation of objection shall be entertained by the Speaker. Such bills and resolutions, if considered, shall be considered in the House as in the Committee of the Whole. No other business shall be in order on this day unless the House, by two-thirds vote on motion to dispense therewith, shall otherwise determine. On such motion debate shall be limited to five minutes for and five minutes against said motion.

"On the third Tuesday of each month after the disposal of such business on the Speaker's table as requires reference only, the Speaker may direct the Clerk to call the bills and resolutions on the Private Calendar, preference to be given to omnibus bills containing bills or resolutions which have previously been objected to on a call of the Private Calendar. All bills and resolutions on the Private Calendar so called, if considered, shall be considered in the House as in the Committee of the Whole. Should objection be made by two or more Members to the consideration of any bill or resolution other than an omnibus bill, it shall be recommitted to the committee which reported the bill or resolution and no reservation of objection shall be entertained by the Speaker.

"Omnibus bills shall be read for amendment by paragraph, and no amendment shall be in order except to strike out or to reduce amounts of money stated or to provide limitations. Any item or matter stricken from an omnibus bill shall not thereafter during the same session of Congress be included in any omnibus bill.

"Upon passage of any such omnibus bill, said bill shall be resolved into the several bills and resolutions of which it is composed, and such original bills and resolutions, with any amendments adopted by the House, shall be engrossed, where necessary, and proceedings thereon had as if said bills and resolutions had been passed in the House severally.

"In the consideration of any omnibus bill the proceedings as set forth above shall have the same force and effect as if each Senate and House bill or resolution therein contained or referred to were considered by the House as a separate and distinct bill or resolution."

CONSENT CALENDAR

Rule XIII, clause 4:

"4. After a bill has been favorably reported and shall be upon either the House or Union Calendar any Member may file with the Clerk a notice that he desires such bill placed upon a special calendar to be known as the 'Consent Calendar'. On the first and third Mondays of each month immediately after the reading of the Journal, the Speaker shall direct the Clerk to call the bills in numerical order, which have been for three legislative days upon the 'Consent Calendar'. Should objection be made to the consideration of any bill so called it shall be carried over on the calendar without prejudice to the next day when the 'Consent Calendar' is again called, and if objected to by three or more Members, it shall immediately be stricken from the calendar, and shall not thereafter during the same session of that Congress be placed again thereon: Provided, That no bill shall be called twice on the same legislative day."

CALENDAR OF MOTIONS TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEES

Rule XXVII, clause 3:

"3. A Member may present to the Clerk a motion in writing to discharge a committee from the consideration of a public bill or resolution which has been referred to it thirty days prior thereto (but only one motion may be presented for each bill or resolution). Under this rule it shall also be in order for a Member to file a motion to discharge the Committee on Rules from further consideration of any resolution providing either a special order of business, or a special rule for the consideration of any public bill or resolution favorably reported by a standing committee, or a special rule for the consideration of a public bill or resolution which has remained in a standing committee thirty or more days without action: Provided, That said resolution from which it is moved to discharge the Committee on Rules has been referred to that committee at least seven days prior to the filing of the motion to discharge. The motion shall be placed in the custody of the Clerk, who shall arrange some convenient place for the signature of Members. A signature may be withdrawn by a Member in writing at any time before the motion is entered on the Journal. Once a motion to discharge has been filed, the Clerk shall make the signatures a matter of public record. When a majority of the total membership of the House shall have signed the motion, it shall be entered on the Journal, printed with the signatures thereto in the Congressional Record, and referred to the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees.

"On the second and fourth Mondays of each month except during the last six days of any session of Congress, immediately after the approval of the Journal, any Member who has signed a motion to discharge which has been on the calendar at least seven days prior thereto, and seeks recognition, shall be recognized for the purpose of calling up the motion, and the House shall proceed to its consideration in the manner herein provided without intervening motion except one motion to adjourn. Recognition for the motions shall be in the order in which they have been entered on the Journal.

"When any motion under this rule shall be called up, the bill or resolution shall be read by title only. After twenty minutes' debate, one-half in favor of the proposition and one-half in opposition thereto, the House shall proceed to vote on the motion to discharge. If the motion prevails to discharge the Committee on Rules from any resolution pending before the committee, the House shall immediately consider such resolution, the Speaker not entertaining any dilatory motion except one motion to adjourn, and, if such resolution is adopted, the House shall immediately proceed to its execution. If the motion prevails to discharge one of the standing committees of the House from any public bill or resolution pending before the committee, it shall then be in order for any Member who signed the motion to move that the House proceed to the immediate consideration of such bill or resolution (such motion not being debatable), and such motion is hereby made of high privilege; and if it shall be decided in the affirmative, the bill shall be immediately considered under the general rules of the House, and if unfinished before adjournment of the day on which it is called up it shall remain the unfinished business until it is fully disposed of. Should the House by vote decide against the immediate consideration of such bill or resolution, it shall be referred to its proper calendar and be entitled to the same rights and privileges that it would have had had the committee to which it was referred duly reported same to the House for its consideration: Provided, That when any perfected motion to discharge a committee from the consideration of any public bill or resolution has once been acted upon by the House it shall not be in order to entertain during the same session of Congress any other motion for the discharge from that committee of said measure, or from any other committee of any other bill or resolution substantially the same, relating in substance to or dealing with the same subject matter, or from the Committee on Rules of a resolution providing a special order of business for the consideration of any other such bill or resolution, in order that such action by the House on a motion to discharge shall be res adjudicata for the remainder of that session: Provided further, That if before any one motion to discharge a committee has been acted upon by the House there are on the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees other motions to discharge committees from the consideration of bills or resolutions substantially the same, relating in substance to or dealing with the same subject matter, after the House shall have acted on one motion to discharge, the remaining said motions shall be stricken from the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees and not acted on during the remainder of that session of Congress."

RECAPITULATION AND ANALYSIS OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS OF PREVIOUS CONGRESSES

FOOTNOTES

In the Seventy-second Congress the total laws numbered 843, which were divided as follows: House bills 474, House joint resolutions 41, Senate bills 294, and Senate joint resolutions 34. Of the 474 House bills which became laws, there was included 1 omnibus pension bill containing 283 House bills and 155 Senate bills (added to the House bill as amendments), making a total of 1,280 bills and resolutions which became laws. The 1,280 laws are subdivided as follows: 756 House bills, 41 House joint resolutions, 449 Senate bills, and 34 Senate joint resolutions. Of the 294 Senate bills and 34 Senate joint resolutions which became laws, 112 bills and 8 joint resolutions were enacted in lieu of House bills, House joint resolutions, and a House concurrent resolution, which had been reported from committees and which were laid on the table to facilitate the enactment of the legislation. Exclusive of bills vetoed and the proposed amendments to the Constitution, the House passed 263 House bills (including 2 omnibus pension bills containing 1,488 bills; a total of 1,749 bills), and 5 House joint resolutions and 1 Senate bill which did not become laws. There were introduced in the Senate 5,702 bills, 265 joint resolutions, 45 concurrent resolutions, and 380 simple resolutions. The Senate passed 659 Senate bills and 75 Senate joint resolutions. The Senate committees made 1,367 reports. Exclusive of bills vetoed and the proposed amendments to the Constitution, the Senate passed 350 Senate bills and 59 Senate joint resolutions, which did not become laws. Of these, 2 bills were indefinitely postponed in the House; 101 Senate bills and 9 Senate joint resolutions were pending on House calendars; and 159 Senate bills and 19 Senate joint resolutions were pending in House committees. One Senate joint resolution was recommitted to committee in the House. Two Senate concurrent resolutions were pending in House committees. Forty-nine Senate bills and 5 Senate joint resolutions were indefinitely postponed in the Senate because similar House bills had become laws or were further advanced in the process of becoming laws. The Senate and House also passed Senate Joint Resolution No. 14, proposing an amendment ("lame duck") to the Constitution, which has been ratified; also Senate Joint Resolution No. 211, proposing an amendment to the Constitution, repealing the 18th (prohibition) amendment. Vetoes by message numbered 10, of which one act was subsequently passed over the veto. One act failed to become law through lack of signature after adjournment of the Congress, and 7 acts failed to become laws through lack of Executive approval ("pocket vetoes"). Of the acts vetoed there was 1 omnibus pension bill, containing 186 House bills and 192 Senate bills (added to the House bill as amendments). There were 592 bills entered upon the Consent Calendar, of which 534 were acted upon, leaving 58 upon the calendar. Twelve motions to discharge committees from consideration of bills were filed, of which 5 were entered on the calendar of such motions and 7 did not receive a sufficient number of signatures for such entry. Of the 5 so entered on the calendar 4 were rejected by the House, and 1 prevailed. The President transmitted to the House 88 messages; executive departments transmitted 956 communications. Petitions filed numbered 10,809.

In the Seventy-third Congress the total laws numbered 976, which were divided as follows: House bills 533, House joint resolutions 33, Senate bills 388, and Senate joint resolutions 22.
