BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas, public interests require that the Congress of the United States should be convened in extra session at 12 o'clock, noon, on the 9th day of March, 1933, to receive such communication as may be made by the Executive.

Now, therefore, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and declare that an extraordinary occasion requires the Congress of the United States to convene in extra session at the Capitol in the city of Washington on the 9th day of March, 1933, at 12 o'clock, noon, of which all persons who shall at that time be entitled to act as Members thereof are hereby required to take notice.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the United States.

Done at the city of Washington this 5th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-seventh.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

By the President:
CORDELL HULL, Secretary of State.

RESTRICTION OF POWER TO REPORT APPROPRIATIONS

Clause 4, rule XXI:

"4. No bill or joint resolution carrying appropriations shall be reported by any committee not having jurisdiction to report appropriations, nor shall an amendment proposing an appropriation be in order during the consideration of a bill or joint resolution reported by a committee not having that jurisdiction. A question of order on an appropriation in any such bill, joint resolution, or amendment thereto may be raised at any time."

THE MORNING HOUR FOR THE CALL OF COMMITTEES

Clause 4, rule XXIV:

"4. After the unfinished business has been disposed of, the Speaker shall call each standing committee in regular order, and then select committees, and each committee when named may call up for consideration any bill reported by it on a previous day and on the House Calendar, and if the Speaker shall not complete the call of the committees before the House passes to other business, he shall resume the next call where he left off, giving preference to the last bill under consideration: Provided, That whenever any committee shall have occupied the morning hour on 2 days it shall not be in order to call up any other bill until the other committees have been called in their turn.

NOTE.—See page 4 for committee list.

CALENDAR WEDNESDAY BUSINESS

Clause 7, rule XXIV:

"7. On Wednesday of each week no business shall be in order except as provided by paragraph 4 of this rule unless the House by a two thirds vote on motion to dispense therewith shall otherwise determine. On such a motion there may be debate not to exceed 5 minutes for and against. On a call of committees under this rule bills may be called up from either the House or the Union Calendar, excepting bills which are privileged under the rules; but bills called up from the Union Calendar shall be considered in Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union. This rule shall not apply during the last 2 weeks of the session. It shall not be in order for the Speaker to entertain a motion for a recess on any Wednesday except during the last 2 weeks of the session.

"Provided, That not more than 2 hours of general debate shall be permitted on any measure called up on Calendar Wednesday, and all debate must be confined to the subject matter of the bill, the time to be equally divided between those for and against the bill: Provided further, That whenever any committee shall have occupied one Wednesday it shall not be in order, unless the House by a two thirds vote shall otherwise determine, to consider any unfinished business previously called up by such committee, unless the previous question had been ordered thereon, upon any succeeding Wednesday until the other committees have been called in their turn under this rule: Provided, That when, during any one session of Congress, all of the committees of the House are not called under the Calendar Wednesday rule, at the next session of Congress the call shall commence where it left off at the end of the preceding session."

NOTE.—See page 4 for committee list.

BILLS THROUGH CONFERENCE

Jefferson's Manual, sec. 555:
 "And in all cases of conference asked after a vote of disagreement, etc., the conferees of the House asking it are to leave the papers with the conferees of the other * * *"
 The House agreeing to the conference acts on the report before the House requesting a conference.

CONFEREES MAY NOT AGREE TO CERTAIN SENATE AMENDMENTS

Clause 2, Rule XX:
 "2. No amendment of the Senate to a general appropriation bill which would be in violation of the provisions of clause 2 of rule XXI, if said amendment had originated in the House, nor any amendment of the Senate providing for an appropriation upon any bill other than a general appropriation bill, shall be agreed to by the managers on the part of the House unless specific authority to agree to such amendment shall be first given by the House by a separate vote on every such amendment."

3. PRIVATE CALENDAR

Clause 1, Rule XIII:

"Third. A calendar of the Committee of the Whole House, to which shall be referred all bills of a private character."

Clause 6, Rule XXIV:

"6. On Saturday of each week after the disposal of such business on the Speaker's table as requires reference only, it shall be in order to move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House to consider business on the Private Calendar. In the Committee of the Whole House the Chairman shall direct the Clerk to call the bills in numerical order that have been upon the Private Calendar for three legislative days. When the Clerk shall have read the bill the same shall be considered unless objection or reservation of objection is made to immediate consideration. Should objection or reservation of objection be made there shall be 10 minutes general debate to be divided, 5 minutes controlled by the Member offering the objection or reservation, and 5 minutes controlled by the chairman of the committee reporting the bill, or in his absence by any Member supporting the bill. If, after such debate, three objections are not forthcoming the bill shall be considered under the 5-minute rule: Provided, however, That the total debate under the 5-minute rule shall not exceed 20 minutes. After the debate hereinbefore referred to, or when the bill is first called, if objection is made by three Members to the consideration of the bill, then the same shall be passed over and carried to a list designated as 'deferred.' It shall be in order for the bills on the 'Deferred List' to have the first call in their numerical order when the Private Calendar is called on the last Saturday of each month. At this time the bills on the 'Deferred List' shall be considered under the general rules of the Committee of the Whole House with 10 minutes general debate to be divided equally, with 5 minutes controlled by the chairman of the committee reporting the bill or other Member supporting the bill, and 5 minutes controlled by any Member objecting or opposing the bill. After the debate the bill shall be read for amendment under the 5-minute rule: Provided, however, That the total debate under the 5-minute rule shall not exceed 20 minutes. If, however, after such consideration the committee of the Whole House acts on the bill adversely, it shall be laid aside until the committee arises, whereupon it shall be reported back to the House with the adverse recommendation. Any bill under this rule reported back to the House with an adverse recommendation shall automatically be recommitted to the committee reporting it and said bill shall not again be reported during the same Congress."

Clause 3, Rule XIII:

"3. After a bill has been favorably reported and shall be upon either the House or Union Calendar any Member may file with the clerk a notice that he desires such bill placed upon a special calendar to be known as the 'Consent Calendar.' On the first and third Mondays of each month immediately after the reading of the Journal, the Speaker shall direct the Clerk to call the bills in numerical order, which have been for three legislative days upon the 'Consent Calendar.' Should objection be made to the consideration of any bill so called it shall be carried over on the calendar without prejudice to the next day when the 'Consent Calendar' is again called, and if objected to by three or more Members it shall immediately be stricken from the calendar, and shall not thereafter during the same session of that Congress be placed again thereon: Provided, That no bill shall be called twice on the same legislative day."

CALENDAR OF MOTIONS TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEES

Clause 4, Rule XXVII:

"4. A Member may present to the Clerk a motion in writing to discharge a committee from the consideration of a public bill or resolution which has been referred to it 30 days prior thereto (but only one motion may be presented for each bill or resolution). Under this rule it shall also be in order for a Member to file a motion to discharge the Committee on Rules from further consideration of any resolution providing either a special order of business, or a special rule for the consideration of any public bill or resolution favorably reported by a standing committee, or a special rule for the consideration of a public bill or resolution which has remained in a standing committee 30 or more days without action: Provided, That said resolution from which it is moved to discharge the Committee on Rules has been referred to that committee at least seven days prior to the filing of the motion to discharge. The motion shall be placed in the custody of the Clerk, who shall arrange some convenient place for the signature of Members. A signature may be withdrawn by a Member in writing at any time before the motion is entered on the Journal. When Members to the total number of 145 shall have signed the motion, it shall be entered on the Journal, printed with the signatures thereto in the Congressional Record, and referred to the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees.

"On the second and fourth Mondays of each month, except during the last six days of any session of Congress, immediately after the approval of the Journal, any Member who has signed a motion to discharge which has been on the calendar at least seven days prior thereto, and seeks recognition, shall be recognized for the purpose of calling up the motion, and the House shall proceed to its consideration in the manner herein provided without intervening motion except one motion to adjourn. Recognition for the motions shall be in the order in which they have been entered on the Journal.

"When any motion under this rule shall be called up, the bill or resolution shall be read by title only. After 20 minutes' debate, one-half in favor of the proposition and one-half in opposition, thereto, the House shall proceed to vote on the motion to discharge. If the motion prevails to discharge the Committee on Rules from any resolution pending before the committee, the House shall immediately vote on the adoption of said resolution, the Speaker not entertaining any dilatory or other intervening motion except one motion to adjourn, and, if said resolution is adopted, then the House shall immediately proceed to its execution. If the motion prevails to discharge one of the standing committees of the House from any public bill or resolution pending before the committee, it shall then be in order for any Member who signed the motion to move that the House proceed to the immediate consideration of such bill or resolution (such motion not being debatable), and such motion is hereby made of high privilege; and if it shall be decided in the affirmative, the bill shall be immediately considered under the general rules of the House, and if unfinished before adjournment of the day on which it is called up it shall remain the unfinished business until it is fully disposed of. Should the House by vote decide against the immediate consideration of such bill or resolution, it shall be referred to its proper calendar and be entitled to the same rights and privileges that it would have had had the committee to which it was referred duly reported same to the House for its consideration: Provided, That when any perfected motion to discharge a committee from the consideration of any public bill or resolution has once been acted upon by the House it shall not be in order to entertain during the same session of Congress any other motion for the discharge from that committee of said measure, or from any other committee of any other bill or resolution substantially the same, relating in substance to or dealing with the same subject matter, or from the Committee on Rules of a resolution providing a special order of business for the consideration of any other such bill or resolution, in order that such action by the House on a motion to discharge shall be res adjudicata for the remainder of that session: Provided, further, That if before any one motion to discharge a committee has been acted upon by the House there are on the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees other motions to discharge committees from the consideration of bills or resolutions substantially the same, relating in substance to or dealing with the same subject matter, after the House shall have acted on one motion to discharge, the remaining said motions shall be stricken from the Calendar on Motions to Discharge Committees and not acted on during the remainder of that session of Congress."

NOTE.—House was in recess from Dec. 23, 1931, to Jan. 4, 1932.

* NOTE.—In a statistical comparison the 2 sessions of the Seventy-first Congress should be grouped, as the bulk of the work of the Congress did not commence until the second session.

The total laws of the first session, Seventy-third Congress, numbered 105, which were divided as follows House bills 46, House joint resolutions 7, Senate bills 48, and Senate joint resolutions 4.

Of the 48 Senate bills and 4 Senate joint resolutions which became laws, 8 bills and 1 joint resolution were enacted in lieu of an equal number of House bills and House joint resolution, respectively, which had been reported from committees and which were laid on the table to facilitate the enactment of the legislation.

Exclusive of the bill which failed to become law through lack of signature after adjournment of the Congress, the House passed 5 House bills and 3 House joint resolutions which did not become laws.

There were introduced in the Senate 1,955 bills, 64 joint resolutions, 5 concurrent resolutions, and 103 simple resolutions.

The Senate passed 106 Senate bills and 9 Senate joint resolutions. The Senate committees made 146 reports.

The Senate passed 58 Senate bills and 5 Senate joint resolutions which did not become laws. Of these, 9 Senate bills were pending on House calendars, and 41 Senate bills and 1 Senate joint resolution were pending in House committees.

Nine Senate bills and 2 Senate joint resolutions were indefinitely postponed in the Senate because similar House bills had become laws or were further advanced in the process of becoming laws.

One bill failed to become law through lack of signature after adjournment of the Congress.

There were 38 bills entered upon the Consent Calendar, of which 33 were acted upon, leaving 5 upon the calendar.

Seven motions to discharge committees from consideration of bills were filed, but did not receive a sufficient number of signatures for entry on the calendar of such motions.

The President transmitted to the House 22 messages; executive departments transmitted 108 communications. Petitions filed numbered 1,403.

The 1,280 laws are subdivided as follows: 756 House bills, 41 House joint resolutions, 449 Senate bills, and 34 Senate joint resolutions. Of the 294 Senate bills and 34 Senate joint resolutions which became laws, 112 bills and 8 joint resolutions were enacted in lieu of House bills, House joint resolutions, and a House concurrent resolution, which had been reported from committees and which were laid on the table to facilitate the enactment of the legislation. Exclusive of bills vetoed and the proposed amendments to the Constitution, the House passed 263 House bills (including 2 omnibus pension bills containing 1,488 bills; a total of 1,749 bills), and 5 House joint resolutions and 1 Senate bill which did not become laws. There were introduced in the Senate 5,702 bills, 265 joint resolutions, 45 concurrent resolutions, and 380 simple resolutions. The Senate passed 659 Senate bills and 75 Senate joint resolutions. The Senate committees made 1,367 reports. Exclusive of bills vetoed and the proposed amendments to the Constitution, the Senate passed 350 Senate bills and 39 Senate joint resolutions which did not become laws. Of these, 2 bills were indefinitely postponed in the House; 101 Senate bills and 9

Senate joint resolutions were pending on House calendars; and 159 Senate bills and 19 Senate joint resolutions were pending in House committees. One Senate joint resolution was recommitted to committee in the House. Two Senate concurrent resolutions were pending in House committees. Forty-nine Senate bills and 5 Senate joint resolutions were indefinitely postponed in the Senate because similar House bills had become laws or were further advanced in the process of becoming laws. The Senate and House also passed Senate Joint Resolution No. 14, proposing an amendment ("lame duck") to the Constitution, which has been ratified; also Senate Joint Resolution No. 211, proposing an amendment to the Constitution, repealing the eighteenth (prohibition) amendment. Vetoes by message numbered 10, of which one act was subsequently passed over the veto. One act failed to become law through lack of signature after adjournment of the Congress, and 7 acts failed to become laws through lack of Executive approval ("pocket vetoes"). Of the acts vetoed there was 1 omnibus pension bill, containing 186 House bills and 192 Senate bills (added to the House bill as amendments). There were 592 bills entered upon the Consent Calendar, of which 534 were acted upon, leaving 58 upon the calendar. Twelve motions to discharge committees from consideration of bills were filed, of which 5 were entered on the calendar of such motions and 7 did not receive a sufficient number of signatures for such entry. Of the 5 so entered on the calendar, 4 were rejected by the House and 1 prevailed. The President transmitted to the House 88 messages; executive departments transmitted 956 communications. Petitions filed numbered 10,809.

The total laws of the Congress numbered 976 which were divided as follows: House bills 533, House joint resolutions 33, Senate bills 388, and Senate joint resolutions 22.

Of the 388 Senate bills and 22 Senate joint resolutions which became laws, 119 bills and 5 joint resolutions were enacted in lieu of House bills, House joint resolutions, and a House concurrent resolution, which had been reported from committees and which were laid on the table to facilitate the enactment of the legislation.

Exclusive of bills vetoed, the House passed 88 House bills, and 6 House joint resolutions and 5 Senate bills which did not become laws.

There were introduced in the Senate 3,806 bills, 144 joint resolutions, 24 concurrent resolutions, and 279 simple resolutions.

The House passed 660 House bills and 42 House joint resolutions.

The Senate passed 808 Senate bills and 38 Senate joint resolutions. The Senate committees made 1,458 reports.

Exclusive of bills vetoed, the Senate passed 387 Senate bills and 17 Senate joint resolutions which did not become laws. One hundred and twenty-six Senate bills and 8 Senate joint resolutions were pending on House calendars; and 153 Senate bills and 8 Senate joint resolutions were pending in House committees.

Sixty-two Senate bills and 4 Senate joint resolutions were indefinitely postponed in the Senate because similar House bills had become laws or were further advanced in the process of becoming laws.

Thirty-nine House bills, one House joint resolution, 31 Senate bills and one Senate joint resolution were vetoed of which one act was subsequently passed over the veto.

There were 492 bills entered upon the Consent Calendar, of which 398 were acted upon, leaving 56 upon the calendar.

Thirty-one motions to discharge committees from consideration of bills were filed, of which 6 were entered on the calendar of such motions and 25 did not receive a sufficient number of signatures for such entry. Of the 6 so entered on the calendar, 2 prevailed and 4 remained on the Discharge Calendar.

The President transmitted to the House 88 messages; executive departments transmitted 504 communications. Petitions filed numbered 5,201.
