The Indiana Department of Financial Institutions would like to announce the following promotions: Tom Fite to Deputy Director of Depository Institutions, Mark Tarpey to Deputy Director of Non-Depository Institutions, and Constance Gustafson to General Counsel.

Deputy Director Fite began his career with the Department of Financial Institutions in June 1998 as a financial institution examiner trainee. Prior to becoming Deputy Director, Mr. Fite served as the Assistant Regional Field Supervisor in Northern Indiana. Mr. Fite will oversee the supervision of all State-chartered depository institutions in Indiana, including banks, trust companies, savings banks, industrial authorities, credit unions, and savings and loan associations. You can contact Deputy Director Fite at (317) 453-2177 or tfite@dfi.in.gov. Mr. Fite succeeds James M. Cooper.

Deputy Director Tarpey began his career with the Department of Financial Institutions in June 1975 as a financial institutions examiner trainee. Prior to becoming Deputy Director, Mr. Tarpey served as the Division Supervisor of Non-Depository Institutions. Mr. Tarpey will oversee the supervision of pawnbrokers, money transmitters, check cashers, debt management companies, rental purchase companies, licensees and registrants under the Uniform Consumer Credit Code, licensees under the Indiana Small Loan Act, first lien and subordinate lien mortgage lending companies and loan originators employed by such licensed mortgage lenders. You can contact Deputy Director Tarpey at (317) 232-3961 or mtarpey@dfi.in.gov. Mr. Tarpey succeeds John Schroeder.

General Counsel Constance (Connie) Gustafson began employment with the Department of Financial Institutions in October 2006 as Associate Counsel. Prior to joining the Department, Mrs. Gustafson was a Partner in several law firms, and Corporations Director and Deputy Securities Commissioner with the Indiana Secretary of State. She received her J.D. from Indiana University School of Law, Indianapolis, Indiana. You can contact General Counsel Gustafson at (317) 232-5840 or cgustafson@dfi.in.gov. Mrs. Gustafson succeeds John Schroeder.
