How can I check the quota for the jurisdiction where I want to obtain a permit?

An ATC permit processor can advise the availability of permits. The list of ATC permit processors by county can be found here. It should be noted that the ATC cannot issue alcohol permits until the entire process is complete, all required documentation is submitted and the Commission approves the permit. The ATC cannot work around opening dates or events scheduled before a permit is issued, and the ATC recommends applying for a permit at least 90 days prior to the date you intend to open.

How long does the application process take?

The ATC cannot issue alcohol permits until the entire process is complete, all required documentation is submitted and the Commission approves the permit. The ATC cannot work around opening dates or events scheduled before a permit is issued, and the ATC recommends applying for a permit at least 90 days prior to the date you intend to open.

I own a salon and would like to provide wine to my customers. How can I go about doing that?

In order to serve alcohol, you must obtain a permit through the Indiana Alcohol and Tobacco Commission. You will need to obtain a restaurant permit through the ATC. The application can be found on our Forms page. It is titled “New or Transfer Permit.” Permit premises where alcoholic beverages are consumed by the drink are required to have food service available at all times, for at least twenty five (25) persons and shall have accommodations at which at least twenty five (25) persons may be served at one (1) time. Minimum food service required consists of hot soups, hot sandwiches, coffee, milk and soft drinks.

How can I obtain a temporary, one-day event permit?

In order to obtain a temporary beer and wine permit, the applicant must complete the Temporary Beer and Wine Permit Application located on the ATC's Forms Page. The completed application must be submitted to the local Excise office at least five days prior to the event. In order to receive a temporary permit, you must submit a completed application containing all required signatures, a floor plan on the application or attached on 8.5"x11" paper and the fee, which is $50 per day.

If the event is within the next five days, you may elect to seek the services of a licensed supplemental caterer. Please note that a temporary permit is good for beer and wine only – not liquor. If you would like to have liquor at your event, you must have a licensed alcoholic beverage caterer. Temporary permits are valid for on-premises consumption only. Carry-out sales are not permitted and persons are not allowed to bring alcoholic beverages into a function with a temporary permit.

How do I renew my employee permit online when my permit has expired?

Please follow the steps below to renew your employee permit online:

1. Go to www.in.gov/atc/2641.htm to register. In order to register, you must have a valid email address. Your username and password will be sent to that email address.
2. Return back to www.in.gov/atc/2641.htm and choose “First Time Applicant” or “Renewal” and log in using the username and password that was emailed to you.
3. You must use Internet Explorer. Please note that the system is not set up for mobile or tablet devices.
4. Make sure that the receipt is printed for working purposes. NOTE: Print your receipt before you leave the system.
5. Should you be past the 120-day renewal period, then you will need to reinstate your permit.

How can I check the status of my employee permit?

Please follow the steps below to check on the status of your employee permit:

1. Go to www.in.gov/atc.
2. Stay on the homepage and scroll down to the bottom. Under “Online Services,” click on “Alcohol License Search” and type in the information required.

I have a driving record obtained from a third party company. Will that suffice for my employee permit?

In order to obtain an employee permit, an applicant must provide their certified or abstract driving records, typically from the state’s Bureau of Motor Vehicles. If the third party company receives their information from the state’s motor vehicle administrator, the ATC will accept your driving record from that company.
