Farm Service Agency

Steven E. Brown State Executive Director, Indiana

Steven E. Brown was appointed by the Trump Administration to serve as the state executive director of the Indiana USDA Farm Service Agency (FSA) in October 2017.

Brown grew up on his family farm in Pine Village, Indiana, and has been active in farming for over 30 years, raising corn, soybeans, wheat and hogs. He graduated from the University of South Florida with a degree in marketing and distributive education.

Prior to his appointment, Brown retired from FSA in 2015 with 32 years of FSA experience. Throughout his FSA career he served as a county executive director in Porter and Carroll counties and worked in the Indiana FSA State Office.

Brown recently served on the Tippecanoe County Farm Bureau Board.

Brown and his wife, Debra, reside in Clarks Hill. They have been married for over 25 years and have two daughters, Corey and Kelsey. He is an avid Purdue University fan and enjoys playing golf in his spare time.
