

United States
Department of Agriculture

Farm Service Agency

Sandy Chalmers State Executive Director, Wisconsin

Sandy Chalmers was appointed by the Trump Administration to serve as the state executive director of the Wisconsin USDA Farm Service Agency (FSA) in November 2017.

A native of Platteville, Wisconsin, she has 25 years of experience working on agriculture and rural policy issues. She served in various roles at the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection, including assistant secretary and division administrator. She also served as executive officer for Wisconsin Farm Service Agency.

Her family has owned and farmed the same land for seven generations. She is the recipient of an FSA Administrator's Award for Outstanding Leadership.

Chalmers currently resides in McFarland with her husband and she has two grown sons. She is a member of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation and the American Paint Horse Association.