Defendants shall cooperate fully with the Receiver and take such steps as the Receiver may require in Receiver's sole and absolute opinion and judgment, including executing any documents and providing any necessary information, to cause the transfer to the Receivership Estate of legal and equitable title to the property and assets identified in Subsection B above.

D. Except for the lists of consumer names and customer information identified in Section V below, the Receiver shall, as soon as practicable, commence the sale of the unliquidated assets identified in Subsection B above and surrendered pursuant to this Order using a commercially reasonable procedure. The Receiver shall hold the surrendered assets, and the proceeds from the sale of

E. Upon delivery of all the assets specified in Subsection B above to the Receiver, the remainder of the judgment is suspended, subject to Subsections F-O below.

F. Plaintiffs' agreement to the suspension of part of the judgment is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Defendants' sworn financial statements and related Documents (collectively, "financial representations") submitted to Plaintiffs, namely:

H. If the suspension of the judgment is lifted, the judgment becomes immediately due as to that Defendant in the amount specified in Subsection A above (which the parties stipulate only for purposes of this Section represents the consumer injury and unjust enrichment alleged in the Complaint), less any payments previously made pursuant to this Section, plus interest computed from the date of entry of this Order.

I. Defendants relinquish dominion and all legal and equitable right, title, and interest in all assets transferred pursuant to this Order and may not seek the return of any assets.

J. The State of Minnesota through this Order does not settle, release, or resolve any claim against Defendants or any other person or entity involving any private causes of action, claims, and remedies including, but not limited to, private causes of action, claims, or remedies provided for under Minn. Stat. § 8.31.

K. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true, without further proof, in any subsequent civil litigation by or on behalf of the FTC or the State of Minnesota, including in a proceeding to enforce their rights to any payment or monetary judgment pursuant to this Order, such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

L. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the FTC or the State of Minnesota pursuant to Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and this Order will have collateral estoppel effect for such purposes.

M. Defendants acknowledge that their Taxpayer Identification Numbers (Social Security Numbers or Employer Identification Numbers), which Defendants previously submitted to Plaintiffs, may be used for collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order, in accordance with 31 U.S.C. §7701.

N. All money paid to Plaintiffs or assets ultimately surrendered to Plaintiffs, pursuant to this Order (or any subsequent Court order issued in this matter) and further instructions from the Court, may be deposited into a fund administered by the FTC or its designee on behalf of both the FTC and the State of Minnesota. This fund shall be used for equitable relief, including consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. If a representative of the FTC decides that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or money remains after redress is completed, any money not used for such equitable relief shall be divided equally between the FTC and the State of Minnesota, with half to be deposited to the U.S. Treasury, and half to be deposited to the State of Minnesota's General Fund, as disgorgement. Defendants have no right to challenge any actions Plaintiffs or their representatives may take pursuant to this Subsection.

O. The asset freeze imposed by the July 30, 2018 Temporary Restraining Order [ECF No. 29], is modified to permit the payment and transfers identified in Subsections IV.B above. Upon completion of those payment and transfers, the asset freeze as to Defendants is dissolved.

A. Failing to provide sufficient customer information to enable the FTC to efficiently administer consumer redress. Defendants represent that they have provided this redress information to the FTC. If a representative of the FTC requests in writing any information related to redress, Defendants must provide it, in the form prescribed by the FTC, within 14 days.

B. Disclosing, using, or benefitting from customer information, including the name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, social security number, other identifying information, or any data that enables access to a customer's account

(including a credit card, bank account, or other financial account), that any Defendant obtained prior to entry of this Order in connection with the advertising, marketing, distribution, promotion, and sale of business opportunities to consumers throughout the United States; and

C. Failing to destroy such customer information in all forms in their possession, custody, or control within 30 days after receipt of written direction to do so from a representative of the FTC.

Provided, however, that customer information need not be disposed of, and may be disclosed, to the extent requested by a government agency or required by law, regulation, or court order.

VI. COOPERATION

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants must fully cooperate with representatives of the FTC and the State of Minnesota in this case and in any investigation related to or associated with the transactions or the occurrences that are the subject of the Complaint. Defendants must provide truthful and complete information, evidence, and testimony. Individual Defendants must appear and Corporate Defendants must cause Corporate Defendants' officers, employees, representatives, or agents to appear for interviews, discovery, hearings, trials, and any other proceedings that an FTC or State of Minnesota representative may reasonably request upon 5 days written notice, or other reasonable notice, at such places and times as an FTC or State of Minnesota representative may designate, without the service of a subpoena.

VII. RECEIVERSHIP

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Robb Evans & Associates LLC is hereby appointed equity Receiver for the Corporate Defendants for the purpose of taking the necessary steps to wind down the businesses of the Corporate Defendants, liquidate assets, and pay any net proceeds to Plaintiffs to satisfy the monetary judgment in this Order. F. The Receiver shall give reasonable notice to Plaintiffs of any settlements or compromises by the Receiver concerning the Receivership Estate, before the settlement or compromise is consummated. Within 20 days of this notice, the FTC and the State of Minnesota shall have the opportunity to object to any such settlement, by filing a motion with the Court.

G. Make payments and disbursements from the Receivership Estate that are necessary or advisable for carrying out the directions of, or exercising the authority granted by, this Order. The Receiver shall apply to the Court for prior approval of any payment of any debt or obligation incurred by the Corporate Defendants prior to the date of entry of the temporary restraining order in this action, except payments that the Receiver deems necessary or advisable to ensure assets of the Corporate Defendants are not lost, stolen, or dissipated.

H. Institute actions or proceedings in state, federal, or foreign courts as the Receiver deems necessary and advisable to preserve or recover the assets of the Corporate Defendants, or that the Receiver deems necessary and advisable to carry out the Receiver's mandate under this Order, including actions challenging fraudulent or voidable transfers.

I. Defend any or all actions or proceedings instituted against the Corporate Defendants, as the Receiver deems necessary and advisable to preserve the assets of the Corporate Defendants.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. No later than 180 days from the date of the entry of this Order, the Receiver shall file and serve on the parties a report (the "Final Report") to the Court that details the steps taken to dissolve the Receivership Estate. The Final Report must include an accounting of the Receivership Estate's finances and total assets and a description of what other actions, if any, must be taken to wind down the Receivership.

B. The Receiver shall mail copies of the Final Report to all known creditors of the Corporate Defendants with a notice stating that any objections to paying any assets of the Corporate Defendants to satisfy the Receiver's costs and expenses and the monetary judgment set forth in this Order must be submitted to the Court and served by mail upon the Receiver and the parties within twenty-eight (28) days of the mailing of the Final Report.

C. No later than fourteen (14) days after submission of the Final Report, the Receiver shall file an application for payment of compensation and expenses associated with his performance of his duties as Receiver.

D. The Court will review the Final Report and any objections to the report and, absent a valid objection, will issue an order directing that the Receiver:

1. Pay the reasonable costs and expenses of administering the Receivership, including compensation of the Receiver and the Receiver's personnel authorized by Section VII of this Order or other orders of this Court and the actual out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Receiver in carrying out his duties;
2. Pay all remaining funds to the Plaintiffs or their designated agent to reduce the monetary judgment in Section IV.

E. With Court approval, the Receiver may hold back funds for a specified period as a reserve to cover additional fees and costs related to actions to be addressed in a supplemental application. If the Receiver does not make a supplemental application for fees and expenses within the specified period, or if funds remain in the reserve funds after the payment of fees and expenses approved by the Court in response to such a supplemental application, all funds in the reserve funds shall be immediately paid to the Plaintiffs or their designated agents.

XII. COMPLIANCE MONITORING

A. Within 14 days of receipt of a written request from a representative of the FTC or the State of Minnesota, each Defendant must: submit additional compliance reports or other requested information, which must be sworn under penalty of perjury; appear for depositions; and produce Documents for inspection and copying. The FTC and the State of Minnesota are also authorized to obtain discovery, without further leave of court, using any of the procedures prescribed by Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 29, 30 (including telephonic depositions), 31, 33, 34, 36, 45, and 69.

B. For matters concerning this Order, the FTC and the State of Minnesota are authorized to communicate directly with each Defendant. Defendant must permit representatives of the FTC and the State of Minnesota to
