the identity, criminal history and threat assessment for each of the 303 immigration detainees released by Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Enforcement and Removal Operations from the Pinal County Adult Detention Center, the Florence Detention Center, the Eloy Detention Center and the Central Arizona Detention Center as part of cost savings measures. The 303 immigration detainees were released on or about Feb. 21 to Feb. 27. If any portion of my request is denied, I am requesting that ICE provide the remaining information requested. I am also requesting detailed information on the type of supervision ordered for each of the 303 immigration detainees released during this period.

MISSION AND STATE

The total number of juvenile detainees referred by Probation Department authorities to Immigration and Customs Enforcement on an annual basis for the last five years.

The annual number of juvenile detainees for the past five years who were referred by Probation Department authorities to each of the following Area of Responsibility offices: Los Angeles; San Diego; San Francisco; Chicago; Dallas; Houston; San Antonio; and Phoenix.

For each of these Area of Responsibility totals, I request a breakdown of those juveniles taken into federal custody and transferred to detention facilities or any other facility, and those deported to their countries of origin. I also request a corresponding list of the countries of origin for these referrals, and a breakdown by race/ethnicity, age, and gender.

I request a list of the 10 Area of Responsibility offices with the highest number of juveniles referrals from Probation agencies to ICE annually for the last five years, including the actual number of referrals annually for each office on this list.
