all MoUs (and other forms of agreement where applicable) between ICE (or its predecessor organizations such as the INS) and foreign governments or foreign government ministries relating to Enforcement and Removal Operations (ERO) operations, especially in the form of repatriation agreements or other agreements relating to deportation. I am specifically looking for agreements that guarantee that the foreign country will accept repatriated nationals, and that often specify mechanics of deportations or other procedural matters. I am looking for agreements with any other country, and from any date. I would be happy to receive this information in either electronic or hard-copy format. Examples of the types of documents I am looking for include the following: "Repatriation Agreement" 1998, signed by US Border Patrol and INS representatives for the US, and Institute National De Migration and Consul de Mexico representatives for Mexico. "Local Arrangement for Repatriation of Mexican Nationals" 2006, signed by DHS CBP and ICE representatives for the US, along INM and Consul General representatives for Mexico.
