Subject: Southern Region offices will migrate to a new layout on their web home pages Effective September 27, 2016

On, or shortly after, Tuesday, September 27, 2016, all Southern Region (SR) NWS Weather Forecast Offices (WFOs), River Forecast Centers (RFCs) and Center Weather Service Units (CWSUs) will migrate to a new layout on the front page of their web home pages. This is in response to a required web infrastructure consolidation that will occur by the end of 2016. The change will also provide office-to-office consistency because the layout of the home page will be set across the region.

All SR WFOs will be take part in this change. A list of the offices involved are (with 3-letter identifier):
