Attn: Karla A. Turekian, Assistant Attorney General

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

The Office of Inspector General (OIG), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), previously received your request to review the Connecticut False Claims Act, Conn. Gen. Stat. §§ 4-274 through 4-289, under the requirements of section 1909 of the Social Security Act (the Act) and determined that the Connecticut False Claims Act met those requirements. Section 1909 of the Act provides a financial incentive for a State to enact a law imposing liability for the submission of false or fraudulent claims to the State Medicaid program. For a State to qualify for this incentive, the State law must meet certain requirements enumerated under section 1909(b) of the Act, as determined by the Inspector General of HHS in consultation with the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ).

Section 1909(b)(4) of the Act requires the State law to contain a civil penalty that is not less than the amount of the civil penalty authorized under section 3729 of the Federal False Claims Act. The Federal False Claims Act expressly provides for an adjustment of civil penalties under the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act of 1990. See 31 U.S.C. § 3729(a). The Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Improvements Act of 2015 amended the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act of 1990 and mandated an increase in the civil penalties authorized under the Federal False Claims Act. Effective August 1, 2016, the civil penalties authorized under the Federal False Claims Act increased from a range of $5,500 to $11,000 per false claim to a range of $10,781 to $21,563 per false claim. The increased civil penalty applies to civil penalties assessed after August 1, 2016, and for violations occurring after November 2, 2015. After consulting with DOJ, we have determined that the Connecticut False Claims Act continues to meet the requirements of section 1909 of the Act with respect to the increase in civil penalties authorized under the Federal False Claims Act.
