SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: We are proposing Rule 135d under the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act").¹

I. Background

On July 21, 2010, the President signed the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act ("Dodd-Frank Act")² into law. Title VII of the Dodd-Frank Act ("Title VII") provides the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC" or the "Commission") and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC") with the authority to regulate over-the-counter derivatives. Under Title VII, the CFTC regulates "swaps," the SEC regulates "security-based swaps," and the CFTC and SEC jointly regulate "mixed swaps."³

² Public Law 111-203, 124 Stat. 1376 (2010).

³ Section 712(d) of the Dodd-Frank Act provides that the SEC and the CFTC, in consultation with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, shall jointly further define the terms "swap," "security-based swap," "swap dealer," "security-based swap dealer," "major swap participant," "major security-based swap participant," "eligible contract participant," and "security-based swap agreement." These terms are defined in Sections 721 and 761 of the Dodd-Frank Act and, with respect to the term "eligible contract participant," in Section 1a(18) of the Commodity Exchange Act [7 U.S.C. 1a(18)], as re-designated and amended by Section 721 of the Dodd-Frank Act. The SEC and the CFTC adopted final rules further defining these terms. See Further Definition of "Swap Dealer," "Security-Based Swap Dealer," "Major Swap Participant," "Major Security-Based Swap Participant" and "Eligible Contract Participant", Release No. 34-66868 (Apr. 27, 2012), 77 FR 30596 (May 23, 2012), and Further Definition of "Swap," "Security-Based Swap," and "Security-Based Swap Agreement"; Mixed Swaps; Security-Based Swap Agreement Recordkeeping, Release No. 33-9338 (Jul. 18, 2012), 77 FR 48208 (Aug. 13, 2012) ("Product Definitions Adopting Release").

Title VII amended the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act")⁴ to include "security-based swaps" in the definition of "security" for purposes of those statutes.⁵ As a result, "security-based swaps" are subject to the provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to securities. The Securities Act requires that any offer and sale of a security must either be registered under the Securities Act or be made pursuant to an exemption from registration.⁶ As a result, counterparties entering into security-based swap transactions need either to rely on an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act or register such transactions. Title VII amended the Securities Act to require that security-based swap transactions involving persons who are not eligible contract participants⁷ must be registered under the Securities Act.⁸

⁵ See Sections 761(a)(2) and 768(a)(1) of the Dodd-Frank Act (amending Section 3(a)(10) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. 78c(a)(10)] and Section 2(a)(1) of the Securities Act [15 U.S.C. 77b(a)(1)], respectively).

⁶ See 15 U.S.C. 77e.

⁷ The term "eligible contract participant" is defined in Section 1a(18) of the Commodity Exchange Act [7 U.S.C. 1a(18)]. The definition of the term "eligible contract participant" in the Securities Act refers to the definition of "eligible contract participant" in the Commodity Exchange Act. See Section 5(e) of the Securities Act [15 U.S.C. 77e(e)]. The eligible contract participant definition includes several categories of persons: Financial institutions; insurance companies; investment companies; commodity pools; business entities, such as corporations, partnerships, and trusts; employee benefit plans; government entities, such as the United States, a State or local municipality, a foreign government, a multinational or supranational government entity, or an instrumentality, agency or department of such entities; market professionals, such as broker dealers, futures commission merchants, floor brokers, and investment advisors; and natural persons with a specified dollar amount invested on a discretionary basis. The SEC and the CFTC adopted final rules further defining the term "eligible contract participant." See footnote 3 above.

⁸ See Section 768(b) of the Dodd-Frank Act (adding new Section 5(d) of the Securities Act [15 U.S.C. 77e(d)]) (Notwithstanding the provisions of
