

PUBLIC SUBMISSION

| |
|---|
| Received: March 03, 2017 Status: Pending_Post Tracking No. 1k1-8v1x-uwbg Comments Due: March 17, 2017 Submission Type: API |
|---|

Docket: EBSA-2010-0050

Definition of the Term ‘Fiduciary’; Conflict of Interest Rule—Retirement Investment Advice

Comment On: EBSA-2010-0050-3491

Definition of Term Fiduciary; Conflict of Interest Rule-Retirement Investment

Document: EBSA-2010-0050-DRAFT-8867

Comment on FR Doc # 2017-04096

Submitter Information

Name:

Address:

Email:

Phone:

General Comment

The Fiduciary Rule is very important. The Employee Benefits Security Administration has determined that without it American investors saving for retirement can lose billions of dollars in retirement benefits--as they have been already. No investment company that serves its clients well and fairly should object to this. I am a client of Fidelity Investments, and they are very successful while still putting their clients first.