General Comment

To whom it may concern,

Please grant the 60 day delay to help sort out this confusing and chaotic rule, I have great concerns about the affect this will have on the consumers that I serve in 10 states and the product availability and access that will affect these consumers.

I hold security licences 6, 63, and 65, and life, health and annuity licenses and have been practicing for 8 years. Fixed annuities and life insurance products are a core component to the overall financial planning process. I fear that this rule will severely limit access to products and services to clients and the future.

Once again, I urge you to grant the 60 delay to get more comment and a more detailed review of the rule.

Sincerely,

Rodney W Amicone
