General Comment

The uncertainty surrounding the application of the fiduciary rule on April 10th and subsequent request for a 60-day delay in implementation makes it imperative that the delay be approved until June 9th to allow for adequate preparation to fully comply. The expenditure of capital for regulatory filings, vendor setup and broker dealer communications are nearly impossible to manage without some practical lead time. We respectfully request that the delay be approved and we'll plan to comply on June 9th.

Thank you!
