Dear Secretary Acosta,

Congratulations on your appointment to the position of Department of Labor Secretary. I have great optimism that you will be a good and faithful servant.

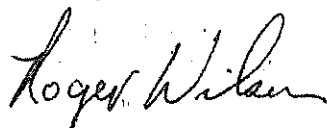

I encourage you to negate and cancel the Department of Labor Fiduciary Rule.

This rule will hurt small investors and will do nothing to prevent dishonesty in the industry. This is a particularly bad rule for small investors. Their fees will go up with no additional service to them. This rule, by increasing fees, would create a drag on the small accounts making it even harder to accumulate wealth.

This is a bad rule.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,
