Dear U.S. Department of Labor,

As your constituent and an AARP member, I'm urging you to oppose any efforts to reopen the retirement advice conflict of interest loophole.

I am supporting my mother's retirement, with my retirement, because financial advisors traded all her 2008-09 stocks for bonds. We have so many laws to protect people from themselves, protect the ignorant from themselves and unscrupulous financial advisors.

Lucky for her I think I can support her (actually I have to), but congress is trying ruin my retirement with healthcare cuts to cover their over-spending habits.

I know you would never repeal the "Good Conscious" clause, but also try to convince other members of the Senate to protect the people.

Sincerely,
Mr. Wallace Sutton
