Finance or improve a home. With VA's home loan guaranty programs, eligible Veterans of any age may access a low-interest home loan, draw cash from their home equity by refinancing, or reduce their current interest rate. VA adaptive housing grants can also help Veterans with certain service-connected disabilities live more independently. You can reuse VA home loan benefits multiple times.

Secure your family's future. VA offers a variety of life insurance options that accommodate many circumstances. With Veterans Group Life Insurance (VGLI), you can get up to $400,000 in coverage. You must apply for VGLI within 1 year and 120 days from separation from the military. You will not need to answer any health questions if you apply within 240 days after separation. Your spouse, if covered under Family Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance before you separated from service, may also obtain VA life insurance from participating private insurers by applying within 120 days after your separation. Additional insurance is available to disabled Veterans with service-connected conditions, even those rated at 0 percent.

Rest in peace. VA provides burial and memorial services to Veterans at no charge to honor their service to the nation. Spouses and children may receive these services, too. Benefits may include burial in one of VA's 131 national cemeteries, including the opening and closing of the gravesite, inscribed headstones or markers, a burial flag, and a Presidential Memorial Certificate. VA provides burial and memorial services for eligible Veterans free of charge.

Supplement your income. A VA pension can provide extra monthly income to help make life a little easier. It is tax-free, supplemental income for certain low-income disabled or elderly wartime Veterans or their surviving spouses. More than 500,000 Veterans and survivors receive VA pensions.

Protect your loved ones. Spouses, dependents, and survivors of Veterans and Servicemembers may be eligible for many types of VA benefits. Loved ones of those who have died or were seriously injured in the line of duty may also receive VA assistance. Benefits may be used to advance in a career, get an education, or provide supplementary income. Surviving spouses may benefit from VA-guaranteed home loans too. In a recent one-year period, one-quarter of those receiving VA Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits were spouses and children of Veterans using transferred entitlement.
