

Stephen Wagner, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS/Appraisal Institute-President Elect

Stephen S. Wagner, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS, of West Lafayette, Indiana, is the 2018 president-elect of the Appraisal Institute. He will serve as president in 2019 and immediate past president in 2020. He also will serve on the organization's Executive Committee and on its policy-setting Board of Directors.

Wagner served as Appraisal Institute vice president in 2017. His one-year term as president-elect will be followed by one year each as president in 2019 and immediate past president in 2020. He also will continue to serve on the Appraisal Institute's Executive Committee and on its policy-setting Board of Directors for the next three years.

Wagner has served on the Appraisal Institute Board of Directors and as vice chair of the Professional Standards and Guidance Committee. He is a past chair of the Demonstration Report Writing Panel, has served on the Admissions Designations and Qualifications Committee and has been involved in the development of the General Review courses and two Capstone case studies. He also teaches general qualifying education and advanced-level courses and seminars for the Appraisal Institute.

A graduate of Purdue University, he has been a chief appraiser for a regional bank and currently is a senior appraiser in the appraisal firm of Terzo & Bologna, Inc. in Indianapolis. Wagner has previously served as a VA Fee panel Member.
