COMMITTEE ON OVERSIGHT AND GOVERNMENT REFORM

2157 RAYBURN HOUSE OFFICE BUILDING

WASHINGTON, DC 20515-6143

MAJORITY (202) 225-5074

MINORITY (202) 225-5051

June 27, 2018

Ms. Rosemary Lahasky
Deputy Assistant Secretary
Employment and Training Administration
U.S. Department of Labor
200 Constitution Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20210

Dear Ms. Lahasky:

On March 30, 2018, the Department of Labor Inspector General (IG) issued a report questioning the outcomes for participants in the Job Corps program and the quality of services provided by Job Corps contractors. The IG report stated:

Job Corps could not demonstrate the extent to which its training programs helped participants enter meaningful jobs appropriate to their training. This occurred because Job Corps' contractors did not adhere to program policy regarding the collection of information related to participants' prior employment history upon entry into the program, and did not provide participants with effective transition services.<sup>1</sup>

In June 2017, the President signed Executive Order 13801 to promote apprenticeships as a workforce development strategy. The Job Corps program, administered by the Department's Employment and Training Administration (ETA), has 125 centers nationwide and has received between $1.6 and $1.7 billion every fiscal year since FY2008. To operate the centers, the Department contracts with nonprofit and for-profit organizations.

The Job Corps program is designed to train young, "at-risk" people for these full-time jobs, military service or apprentice programs. However, the IG review reached several worrisome findings. For example, 54 percent of Job Corps participants with previous work history saw no improvement in their occupational level after training.<sup>2</sup> The President's budget reflects the poor performance of the Job Corps program, recommending closing ineffective Job Corps centers.<sup>3</sup>

The American economy is strong and businesses need workers with the skills to match demand. The IG's findings raise questions as to whether the Job Corps program is meeting that need. If not, the program should be entrusted to an entity with the ability to deliver better outcomes for participants, such as state or local government or non-government organizations. To help the Committee better understand the IG's findings, please identify:

1. How ETA will implement the recommendations in the March 30, 2018, IG report;
2. What actions have been taken to ensure contractors are placing students in better jobs than those held prior to entering the Job Corps program; and
3. ETA's plan for closing underperforming Job Corps training centers, including centers administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Provide the requested information as soon as possible, but no later than 5:00 p.m. on July 12, 2018. An attachment to this letter provides additional instructions for responding to the Committee's request.

Please contact Ellen Johnson at (202) 225-5074 with any questions about this request. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Mark Meadows
Chairman
Subcommittee on Government Operations

Enclosure

Subcommittee on Government Operations

8. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph in the Committee's schedule to which the documents respond.
9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.
10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.
11. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.

If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.
15. Unless otherwise specified, the time period covered by this request is from January 1, 2009 to the present.
16. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data or information, not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date, shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.

When documents are produced to the Committee, production sets shall be delivered to the Majority Staff in Room 2157 of the Rayburn House Office Building and the Minority Staff in Room 2471 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
