

Rep. Cuellar to Offer Free District-Wide Videoconference to Explain Library of Congress Resources

WASHINGTON—On Wednesday, October 11, Congressman Henry Cuellar (TX-28) will host a videoconference from Washington with the Library of Congress to show educators, parents, students and the public about the free resources available through the Library of Congress.

- Learn how to access the Library of Congress’ Digital Collections
- Learn how to access American History documents like the George Washington Papers, Alexander Hamilton Papers, Abraham Lincoln Papers, Andrew Jackson Papers, and so much more!
- Learn how to access free digital books available to read online for kids, teens and adults, at Read.gov
- Learn how to access the Library of Congress’ Virtual Reference Shelf and classroom materials for teachers.

Participants will engage in a Q&A session with our subject-matter expert Donna Brearcliffe, Electronic Resources Coordinator for Collections Development Office at the Library of Congress.

The video-conferences will be held in Wednesday, October 11 from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. CDT in the following cities:

San Antonio: The University of Texas at San Antonio Graduate School & Research Building (GSR) Suite 2.106 1 UTSA Circle San Antonio, TX 78249	Pleasanton: Coastal Bend College - Room 106 1411 Bensdale Rd. Pleasanton, TX 78064
Laredo: Texas A&M International University. Room: WHTC 224 5201 University Boulevard Laredo, Texas 78041	Mission: Mission C.I.S.D. Central Office - DLRC Conf. Room 1201 Bryce Drive Mission, TX. 78572

This event is open to the public.

To RSVP, contact Juan Sanchez at juan.sanchez@mail.house.gov or at (202) 226-0507.