

$44.7B IN DISCRETIONARY FUNDING – $1.5B ABOVE FY18

➤ PRIORITIZING NATIONAL SECURITY

- Supports a strong nuclear national security strategy with a total of $15.3B for the Department of Energy's nuclear weapons security programs – $644M above FY18 levels, including
  - $11.2B for Weapons Activities ($558M above FY18) that maintain the strongest possible nuclear deterrence posture and address critical maintenance needs
  - $1.79B for Naval Nuclear Reactors ($169M above FY18) to support our Navy's nuclear-powered fleet, including the Columbia-Class Ballistic Missile Submarine
  - $1.9B for Defense Nuclear Nonproliferation to keep nuclear materials from getting in the hands of terrorists and other bad actors
- Secures our nation's energy infrastructure against cyber and other attacks, including $117M for research and development to strengthen the security of our electric grid, and adopting the Administration's proposal to create a new account focused on these activities

➤ INVESTING IN AMERICAN INFRASTRUCTURE

- Provides a much-needed influx of funds into our nation's water resources infrastructure by directing $7.28B to the Army Corps of Engineers ($451M above FY18), including:
  - $3.3B for navigation projects and studies that will advance American competitiveness and export ability, and improve the functionality of our ports and waterways
  - $2.1B for flood and storm damage reduction activities ($190M above FY18) that will improve public health and safety

➤ TARGETING FUNDS FOR ECONOMIC GROWTH

- Encourages U.S. economic competitiveness and advances our nation's goal of an "all-of-the-above" solution to energy independence by including $13.4B for the Department of Energy's energy programs – $504M above FY19 – including:
  - $785M for research and development to advance fossil energy technologies, which will help the country make greater use of our rich natural energy resources and keep down energy costs
  - $1.2B for nuclear energy research, development, and demonstration activities
  - Balanced reductions ($243M below FY18) for energy efficiency and renewable energy programs, which have already received significant investment in recent years
- Provides $6.6B for science research that will lay the groundwork to a more secure energy future
- Continues congressional efforts to advance the nation's need for safe, secure storage of our nuclear waste by providing $267.7M for the Yucca Mountain nuclear waste repository
- Protects private property rights by repealing the Waters of the United States rule