The Honorable Richard Cordray
Director
Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
1700 G Street NW
Washington, D.C. 20552

Dear Director Cordray:

The Committee has been conducting oversight of the assessment and use of fines and penalties by Executive Branch agencies, including the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB). The CFPB informed the Committee that the Civil Penalty Fund (CPF) is used “for payments to the victims of activities for which civil penalties have been imposed under the Federal consumer financial laws or, to the extent that such victims cannot be located or payments to them are otherwise not practicable, for consumer education and financial literacy programs.”¹ Specifically, the CFPB utilizes a portion of the CPF to contract with third parties who administer consumer education and financial literacy programs.²

In April 2015 you reported that from January 1, 2010, through Fiscal Year (FY) 2014, the CFPB allocated $13,380,000 for consumer education and financial literacy programs.³ To help the Committee better understand CFPB’s spending on consumer education and financial literacy programs, please provide the following documents and information as soon as possible, but no later than 5:00 p.m. on November 10, 2016:

1. The total and updated amount the CFPB has allocated for consumer education and financial protection programs since the CFPB’s creation in 2010.
2. All contract files related to the total amount for consumer education and financial protection programs.
3. All documents and communications, including, but not limited to, justifications, referring or relating to spending for consumer education and financial protection programs.

¹ Letter from Richard Cordray, Dir., CFPB, to Jason Chaffetz, Chairman, H. Comm. on Oversight & Gov’t Reform at 2 (Apr. 22, 2015).

4. All documents and communications referring or relating to the creation, implementation, and use of the online guidance document “Criteria for Use of Civil Penalty Fund Monies for Consumer Education and Financial Literacy Programs” referenced in the CFPB’s initial response to the Committee, including, but not limited to, and updated versions of the guidance document and any documents and communications related to such update(s).⁴

When producing documents to the Committee, please deliver production sets to the Majority staff in room 2157 of the Rayburn House Office Building and the Minority staff in room 2471 of the Rayburn House Office Building. The Committee prefers, if possible, to receive all documents in electronic format. An attachment to this letter provides additional information about responding to the Committee’s request.

The Committee on Oversight and Government Reform is the principal investigative committee in the U.S. House of Representatives. Pursuant to House Rule X, the Committee has authority to investigate “any matter” at “any time.”

If you have questions about this request, please contact Corey Cooke of the Majority staff at (202) 225-5074. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jason Chaffetz
Chairman

Requested records, documents, data or information should not be destroyed, modified, removed, transferred or otherwise made inaccessible to the Committee.
2. In the event that any entity, organization or individual denoted in this request has been, or is also known by any other name than that herein denoted, the request shall be read also to include that alternative identification.

8. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph in the Committee's schedule to which the documents respond.
9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.
10. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.
11. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.
12. In the event that a document is withheld on the basis of privilege, provide a privilege log containing the following information concerning any such document: (a) the privilege asserted; (b) the type of document; (c) the general subject matter; (d) the date, author and addressee; and (e) the relationship of the author and addressee to each other.

14. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.
15. Unless otherwise specified, the time period covered by this request is from January 1, 2009 to the present.
16. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data or information, not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date, shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.

When documents are produced to the Committee, production sets shall be delivered to the Majority Staff in Room 2157 of the Rayburn House Office Building and the Minority Staff in Room 2471 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

19. Upon completion of the document production, you should submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control which reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
