

those kind of things won't be stopped next year. The Democrats that passed ObamaCare are probably not going to be restricting the big money coming to the big insurance companies because I am sure a lot of that will come back in the way of political contributions.

So, there is a lot that needs to be done. We have not been faithful, as a party, to keep our promises. The number one issue, I think, that got President Trump elected was that he was going to secure the border: We are going to get a wall built where we need it.

And I really do believe what he said, that if he had the cooperation of Congress, he was going to be able to make Mexico pay for it. And I felt like he eventually would.

But if there is no wall built—not in all places do we need it. We don't need 2,000 miles of it, but there are some places where we definitely need it. But these invasions—whether you want to call them caravans, they are really invasions. Even though the alt-left media like CNN and MSNBC were saying it is all big lies about these caravans, there are no invasions, there are no caravans, it is all a political hoax—well, it was not a political hoax. They were either intentionally lying, or they were just ignorant. Either way, they were wrong.

Then we see yesterday information about at least a third of those who are wanting to crash into our country, invade our country, have serious healthcare issues. And they are going to make a lot of Americans sick if they come in.

Now, there is no country in the history of the world that has been more generous, more philanthropic, has done more good for other countries, other peoples all over the world. But, in order to maintain that, you have to have a vibrant economy. And, actually, to do that, to care for the environment, you have got to have a vibrant economy.

So we should be doing reconciliation, get the money for the President's wall, and do it now before we turn over the majority. Anything else is a betrayal of our promises.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.
