

H.R. 7617 - FY 2021 APPROPRIATIONS MINIBUS

Defense, Commerce-Justice-Science, Energy & Water Development, Financial Service & General Government, Labor, Health & Human Services, Education, and Transportation, Housing & Urban Development

Improves our nation's infrastructure, prioritizes public health, invests in education and job training, expands access to safe, affordable, and fair housing, addresses police reform, supports service members, combats climate change.

Improving our Nation's Infrastructure

- $107.2 billion in total budgetary resources for the Department of Transportation, $19.4 billion above Trump's request
- $7.6 billion for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, including studies, construction, and operation & maintenance
- $1.64 billion for U.S. Bureau of Reclamation water resources projects, including WIIN Act-authorized projects
- $75 billion in emergency funding to rebuild our nation's transportation and housing infrastructure
- $61 billion in emergency funding to expand the availability of broadband to unserved and underserved areas
- $43.5 billion in emergency spending modernize water and energy infrastructure
- $24.425 billion in emergency spending to support state and local public health agencies and global health activities

Investing in Medical Research

- $47 billion for the National Institutes of Health, an increase of $5.5 billion above FY20
- $50 million, an increase of $25 million above FY20, for firearm injury and mortality prevention research at CDC and NIH

Boosting Education and Job Training

- $73.5 billion for the Department of Education, $6.9 billion above Trump's request
- $10.2 billion for the Employment and Training Administration, $1.5 billion above Trump's request

Expanding Access to Safe, Affordable and Fair Housing

- $50.6 billion for Housing and Urban Development, $13.3 billion above Trump's request
- Blocks Trump administration rules targeting undocumented immigrants and LGBT people

Building Strong Communities

- $3.5 billion for Community Development Block Grants, rejecting Trump's proposal to eliminate the program
- $356 million for the Economic Development Administration, helping boost struggling communities
- $273.5 million for Community Development Financial Institutions, rejecting Trump's proposal to eliminate the program

Addressing Police Reform

- Implements key components of the George Floyd Justice in Policing Act, with strong funding for police reform
- Conditions federal grant funding for state and local law enforcement on significant improvements to police practices

Supporting Service Members and Military Families

- Provides full funding necessary to support the 3 percent military pay raise
- More than $33.3 billion for Defense Health Programs, including $512.5 million for cancer research

Combating Climate Change

- $12 billion across Department of Energy programs to support clean, affordable, and secure energy
- $5.45 billion for NOAA, helping address important priorities such as climate research