

LABOR-HHS-EDUCATION

Fiscal Year 2021 Appropriations Bill At-a-Glance

Provides $196.5 billion, investing in education, health care, medical research, and job training so people have a better chance at a better life, and includes $24.425 billion in emergency spending to support State and local public health departments, public health laboratories, and global health activities

Chairwoman Rosa DeLauro on the Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies government funding bill:

“This bill supports some of our nation’s most critical programs. From Early Head Start to Social Security, they touch individuals and families throughout their lives.”

Investing in Medical Research

- $47 billion for the National Institutes of Health, an increase of $5.5 billion above FY20, including:
 - $5 billion in emergency funding to improve capacity at research institutions;
 - $3.1 billion for HIV/AIDS research
 - $2.9 billion for Alzheimer’s disease and related dementias research
 - $50 million for firearm injury and mortality prevention research ($25 million each at NIH and CDC)

Strengthening our Nation’s Health Infrastructure

- Rebuilds efforts to keep our nation healthy and strong:
 - $700 million for public health emergency preparedness cooperative agreements
 - $363 million for epidemiologic and laboratory support at State and eligible public health agencies
 - $56 million in public health workforce initiatives
- Provides strong funding for numerous public health efforts, including:
 - $326 million to support efforts at CDC, HRSA, and NIH to reduce new HIV infections by 90 percent in 10 years
 - $240 million to address tobacco and e-cigarettes

Prioritizing Public Health

- $9 billion in emergency supplemental funding for public health and emergency response activities, including:
 - $4 billion for enhanced public health prevention efforts, including an influenza vaccination campaign
 - $2 billion to strengthen state and local public health emergency response capabilities
 - $1 billion to improve capabilities at state and local public health laboratories
 - $1 billion to strengthen global public health preparedness and response capacity

Supporting Children and Families

- $10.8 billion for Head Start
- $5.9 billion for the Child Care and Development Block Grant
- $300 million for Preschool Development Grants

Investing in Education

- $73.5 billion in discretionary appropriations for the Department of Education, an increase of $716 million above FY20 and $6.9 billion above Trump’s request, including:
 - $16.6 billion for Title I Grants to Local Educational Agencies
 - $14.1 billion for Special Education
 - $1.3 billion for Nita M. Lowey 21st Century Community Learning Centers
 - $2.6 billion for higher education programs, with $808 million to assist primarily Minority Serving Institutions

Increasing Job Training

- $10.2 billion for the Employment Training Administration, an increase of $187 million above FY20 and $1.5 billion above Trump’s request, including:
 - $2.9 billion for Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act State Grants
 - $1.76 billion for Job Corps
 - $185 million for Registered Apprenticeships