

CONGRESSMAN VAN TAYLOR
PRESENTS THE 2020 CONGRESSIONAL

Art Competition

Created in 1982, the Congressional Art Competition highlights the artistic achievements of high school students across the United States. To date, hundreds of thousands of students have participated and received national recognition.

WINNERS

The winning artist will have their artwork displayed in the U.S. Capitol for one year and will receive airfare to DC to attend the annual reception. Second and third place winners will have their work displayed in Congressman Taylor's DC and Plano offices.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to high school students who live in Texas' Third Congressional District.

DEADLINE

Artwork must be submitted to Congressman Taylor's Collin County office before Wednesday, April 1, 2020.
