

Diane Hill

SENIOR MANAGER, PARTNERSHIP FOR PUBLIC SERVICE

Diane Hill, a Senior Manager at the Partnership for Public Service is widely regarded as a hard-working, purposeful leader who believes that we are stronger working together than separately. She leads the Partnership's work to strengthen Congress. Her accountabilities include collaborating with the House Select Committee on the Modernization of Congress and providing organization, support and leadership for the Fix Congress Cohort, a community of 45 civil society organizations who are aligned in the mission to help make Congress more effective.

Over the span of ten years, Diane worked for two U.S. Representatives and one U.S. Senator. Her primary responsibility was appropriations, in addition to managing environmental, Native American and rural health issues. She started her career as a Presidential Management Fellow at the Department of Housing and Urban Development, and later worked at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.
