

Mary Varson Cromer serves as Deputy Director of Appalachian Citizens' Law Center, Inc. where she has led the organization's Environmental Justice Program for fifteen years. Mary represents community groups and families in Eastern Kentucky and Southwest Virginia on a variety of environmental justice issues. Mary joined ACLC in 2008. Prior to working for ACLC, Mary was an associate attorney at Southern Environmental Law Center. She clerked for the late United States District Court Judge Glen Conrad in the Western District of Virginia and earned her J.D. magna cum laude from Washington & Lee University School of Law. Mary and her family live in the mountains of Southwest Virginia along the Virginia-Kentucky border on a farm that has been in her family since the 1840s.
