

DEPUTY ASSISTANT ADMINISTRATOR Änjali Kaur

Änjali Kaur is the Deputy Assistant Administrator of the Bureau for Asia.

She is an international development professional with comprehensive experience at the field, country, and global levels with evidence-based, integrated global health programs. Before joining USAID, Ms. Kaur was the Senior Program Officer at the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation leading the global policy and advocacy strategies for the HIV and TB programs. Prior to that, she was the Senior Director of Asia Pacific for Malaria No More where she established the India Office and expanded the organization's work across the region, engaging with governments, private sector, civil society and media. Ms. Kaur was also with UNICEF's Polio Programme, where she worked at the country and HQ levels, as well as the World Bank and UNFPA.

She is a Fulbright Scholar and received her Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Johns Hopkins University.