Contestant James “Jim” Oberweis filed his Notice of Contest Regarding the Election for Representative in the one Hundred Seventeenth Congress from Illinois’ Fourteenth Congressional District with the Office of the Clerk of the U.S. House of Representatives (“Notice of Contest”) on Monday, January 4, 2021.

Purportedly on February 3, 2021, Contestee Lauren Underwood filed Contestee’s Motion to Dismiss Contestant’s Notice of Contest Regarding the Election for Representative in the One Hundred Seventeenth Congress from Illinois’ Fourteenth Congressional District, comprised of 44 pages of legal argument and 9 pages of exhibits (“Contestee’s Motion”).

At the outset, Contestee Underwood argues Contestant Oberweis’ service of his Notice of Contest on her was technically, and thus fatally, infirm under 2 USCA §382, wrongly conflating the Notice of Contest’s “filing requirement” with the Clerk with the Notice of Contest’s “notice requirement” on the Contestee.

Next, Contestee Underwood advances a dismissive “nothing to see here, move along approach”, while ironically expending another 40 pages to do so, in an effort to dissuade this tribunal from moving forward with basic discovery into the substantial and detailed voting and ballot illegalities described in Contestant Oberweis’ Notice of Contest, which voting and ballot illegalities would change the outcome of this election.

Contestant Oberweis respectfully requests that this tribunal grant him leave to file a Response to Contestee’s Motion, and for any other relief, including, but not limited to, twenty-eight (28) days within which to file said Response and the setting of a hearing date on Contestee’s Motion.

Dated this 11th day of February 2021

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES “JIM” OBERWEIS
