

FEB 20 1984

The privilege of reading President Washington's farewell address in this chamber is an honor I will long remember and always cherish.

For me it fulfills so much of the promise my father saw when he immigrated to this great nation.

The message is one we should review regularly & hope that his view of America will always prevail.
