1 [REDACTED] Let's go on the record.

2 This is the deposition of Garrett Ziegler conducted by the House Select Committee
3 to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol pursuant to House
4 Resolution 503.

5 This will be a staff-led deposition, though members may choose to ask questions
6 as they so desire.

7 My name is [REDACTED] I am a senior investigative counsel with the select 8 committee. Present in the room with me is [REDACTED], professional staff member.
9 Members may join the deposition either in person or by Webex, and I'll do my best to 10 note their presence as they join.

11 We'll be holding this deposition under House rules that we've previously provided
12 to Mr. Ziegler and his counsel.

13 Under those rules, Mr. Ziegler, you're permitted to have your attorney present.
14 I'll note for the record that your attorney is present and I'll have him identify himself in a 15 moment.

16 Counsel for other persons or other government agencies may not attend. In 17 other words, the only lawyers who are present today are those from the select 18 committee and your counsel.

19 At this time, I'd ask Mr. Ziegler's counsel to please state his name for the record.

20 Mr. Kiyonaga. My name is John Kiyonaga, K-i-y-o-n-a-g-a. I'm counsel for 21 Garrett Ziegler, Z-i-e-g-l-e-r, the deponent in this matter.

22 [REDACTED] Thank you, John.

23 Before we get started, I'd like to cover a few grounds rules for today's deposition.

24 As you heard me mention before -- well, maybe you didn't hear me mention
25 because I didn't say it -- we have an official reporter who's transcribing the deposition.

1 The deposition's also being video recorded, but the reporter's transcription is the official
2 record of the proceeding. So it's important that you wait to answer each question until 3 it's completed before you give your answer, and I'll do my best to wait until you complete
4 your answer before I ask the next question.

5 The reporter cannot note nonverbal responses, such as shaking or nodding of the 6 head, so it's important that you respond to each question with an audible verbal
7 response.

8 If you need to take any breaks or would like to discuss anything with your attorney
9 privately, we're happy to accommodate you and take breaks as best we can.

10 You may only refuse to answer a question to preserve a privilege recognized by 11 the select committee. If you refuse to answer a question based on privilege, staff may 12 either proceed with the deposition or seek a ruling from the chair on the objection at that 13 time. If the chairman overrules such an objection, either after the objection is made or 14 at the end of the deposition, you will be required to answer the question.

15 I want to remind you that it's unlawful to deliberately provide false information to 16 Congress. And because you will be taking an oath to tell the truth in this deposition, a 17 knowingly false answer could subject you to prosecution for perjury.

18 Do you have any questions on anything I said thus far?

19 The Witness. No.

20 [REDACTED] Madam Reporter, I'd ask you to swear the witness, please.

21 The Reporter. Yes, sir.

22 Please raise your right hand.

23 Do you solemnly swear and affirm, under the penalty of perjury, that the 24 testimony you will give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

25 The Witness. I do.

1 The Reporter. Thank you.

2 [REDACTED] John, is there something you wanted to say on the record before we 3 start?

4 Mr. Kiyonaga. Yes. Mr. Ziegler has complied fully with the subpoena for 5 documentation. That should not be taken as any concession on his part of the authority
6 of the committee to seek such. He is going to be, beyond acknowledging his identity
7 and the fact that he is the person subject to the subpoena and has provided documents
8 and plenary compliance therewith, he is going to be refusing to answer any further
9 questions based on his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination,
10 acknowledging the fact that incrimination does not connote any consciousness of guilt.

11 Rather, it is any disclosure or statement that could tend to excite or encourage a 12 surmise of guilt on the part of a third party, specifically any law enforcement entity, which 13 definition I would take for purposes of this hearing to include the committee, and which 14 concern is manifestly well-founded given the fact that his previous boss has been arrested
15 in a very public manner.

16 But also comprised within his invocation of privilege will be an executive privilege,
17 deliberative privilege, Presidential communication privilege, privilege founded on 18 freedom of association and First Amendment and privacy as the case may be.

19 But I've instructed him in response to specific questions beyond the initial 20 questions acknowledging who he is and why he's here simply to invoke his privilege.
21 And I'm explaining ahead of time what that means to avoid a word salad every time a 22 question is asked.

23 If there develops a disagreement between myself or himself and the committee as 24 to whether or not he is entitled to invoke privilege, he is going to require a ruling from an 25 Article III judge, a United States district judge, compelling responses. He will not be

1 bound by a determination by the committee.

2 So ask away.

3 [REDACTED] Okay. So I'm not going to respond to sort of all that.

4 I do want to point out that we are not a -- this committee is not a law
5 enforcement agency. So I want to state that for the record and don't want my silence
6 on that issue to connote any sort of type of agreement with your -- with the assumption
7 that you've made in connection with that statement.

8 Mr. Kiyonaga. Yeah, I understand, and I note your disagreement. We'll have to 9 disagree on that. But my position, his position, is that the committee is acting as one.
10 So the fact that it's part of the legislative branch doesn't change the practical effect, in 11 our view, of its operations.

12 [REDACTED] Okay. And in terms of invoking privileges -- well, I take it that Mr.
13 Ziegler is going to, on your advice, is going to invoke the Fifth Amendment to any 14 substantive question that I ask.

15 Mr. Kiyonaga. Yes.

16 [REDACTED]. And I'd be fine -- I think it would be helpful to articulate that clearly.
17 If there are other objections that you also have that you'd like to reserve, I think that's 18 also fine as well and not have to sort of state those every time.

19 But I do want it to be clear, if there's a particular question to which Mr. Ziegler is 20 asserting his Fifth Amendment rights, then that should be stated for the record.

21 Mr. Kiyonaga. Well, what I'd like to do is assert his rights in the plural,
22 understanding ahead of time that those comprise principally his Fifth Amendment right,
23 but also on an individual basis the other rights that I've mentioned. I'm not sure I want
24 to be bound by an analysis that I make on the fly in here today as to exactly which other 25 privileges might apply.

1 But I would state at the outset that the Fifth Amendment privilege should be
2 taken, as far as we're concerned, to apply to any question you ask beyond the initial 3 questions confirming who he is.

4 So in other words, the other privileges that I mentioned a moment ago may or 5 may not apply to particular questions that you ask, but the Fifth Amendment privilege will
6 always apply. So that that will -- that should cover basically any substantive question 7 that you're going to be asking beyond the initial confirmation of who he is.

8 [REDACTED] Okay. Anything else we need to cover before we get started?
9 Mr. Kiyonaga. I don't think so.

10 EXAMINATION

11 BY [REDACTED]:

12 Q All right. Mr. Ziegler, if you can take a look at exhibit 1 in your binder.
13 Exhibit 1 is the subpoena from this committee dated April 27th, 2022.

14 Do you understand that you're appearing here today pursuant to that subpoena?

15 A Yes.

16 Q The subpoena also calls for production of documents and information,
17 including electronically stored information.

18 Have you conducted a diligent search for records that are responsive to the 19 subpoena?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Have you produced to the committee all documents and communications in 22 your possession, custody, or control that are responsive to the requests described in the 23 subpoena?

24 A Yes.

25 Mr. Kiyonaga. Speak up when you say yes. Don't mutter it into your chest.

1 The Witness. Okay.

2 BY [REDACTED]

3 Q Could you describe, generally, what efforts you took to comply with this 4 subpoena, exhibit 1?

5 A I conducted a search based on all of the electronic devices that I have access
6 to and own and went through them diligently, including the electronic accounts, to mean
7 email accounts, most of which I do not have access to anymore, particularly my former 8 White House account where the lion's share of this correspondence would reside.

9 And I understand that, based on my cursory knowledge of the Presidential 10 Records Act, that account and all the materials therein are in the National Archives.

11 Q When you say the account information, do you mean that you went online,
12 for example, to Gmail or some other ISP, and tried to access your records that way as 13 well?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Did you look for hard --

16 Mr. Kiyonaga. Could you indulge me one minute.

17 [Discussion off the record.]

18 Mr. Kiyonaga. Thank you.

19 BY [REDACTED]

20 Q Did you look for hard copy documents, including any notebooks or notes of 21 meetings?

22 A Yes.

23 Q In your search for electronically stored information, did you also look for 24 documents in addition to electronic communications? So, for example, Word
25 documents or Excel spreadsheets or things of that nature?

1 A All the above, yes.

2 Q And in terms of emails that you searched, did you -- I think you mentioned
3 your work email and maybe difficulty -- your prior work email -- difficulty getting access 4 to that.

5 Did you look for documents, responsive documents connected to all of the email
6 addresses that you had in the relevant time period?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Including your iCloud account?

9 A Yes.

10 Q With respect to messages, did you search for text messages?

11 A Yes.

12 Q On which phones?

13 A My personal. And then, obviously, I don't have the work phone anymore.

14 Q Did you just have one phone during the relevant timeframe?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Did you look for responsive messages under various messaging applications,
17 for example, Signal or Telegram or WhatsApp?

18 A Yes.

19 Q How about social media private messages? During the relevant timeframe,
20 did you use those platforms to communicate with other individuals?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And did you search those platforms to see if you had responsive documents?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Have you destroyed, deleted, or otherwise manipulated any documents
25 responsive to the requests described in the subpoena?

1 A No.

2 Q Have you withheld from production any responsive documents based on a
3 claim of privilege?

4 A No.

5 Q So there's no document that you found that appeared responsive, but you
6 felt that because of any other privileges that your counsel has referenced or otherwise
7 that you feel you needed to or could produce the document?

8 A To my recollection, no.

9 Q Okay. Could you briefly describe your educational background, starting 10 after high school?

11 A I attended Saint Louis University in St. Louis, Missouri. I graduated with a 12 degree in economics. And that is it.

13 Q When did you graduate?

14 A May 2018.

15 Q What jobs have you held since graduating from college?

16 A Just at the White House from February of 2019 to January of 2021, and then
17 now I run a 501(c)(3) nonprofit.

18 Q So your job at the White House was your first job upon graduation from 19 college?

20 A Yes, sir.

21 Q What was your title in the White House beginning in February 2019?

22 A Policy analyst.

23 Q Within a particular office within the White House?

24 A Yes, the Office of Trade and Manufacturing Policy.

25 Q How did you get that position?

1 Mr. Kiyonaga. I'm going to ask you to invoke.

2 The Witness. I'm invoking my right under the Fifth Amendment to not answer
3 particular questions.

4 BY [REDACTED]

18 comes to light proving the election was indeed stolen after a fait accompli Biden
19 inauguration, we as a country run the very real risk that the very center of our American 20 union will not hold."

21 At the very end of the next paragraph it says, "It is, therefore, critical that we get

1 States.

2 Where did the information come from for this report?

3 A I'm invoking my right to silence under the Fifth Amendment.

4 Q The report frequently refers to alleged irregularities, but at various times it
5 cites -- or purports to cite -- evidence supporting certain election fraud claims.

6 Was it the intent of the report to highlight the allegations that had been made or 7 to reach conclusions regarding the veracity or strength of the allegations that were made
8 regarding the 2020 election?

9 A I'm invoking my right to silence under the Fifth Amendment.

10 Q A portion of exhibit 3 refers to allegations of bribery that 12 Nevada.

13 Did you personally investigate allegations of election-related bribery in Nevada?

14 A I'm invoking my right to silence under the Fifth Amendment.

24 Q Are you going to assert your Fifth Amendment privilege against 25 self-incrimination to any questions I would ask of you regarding the preparation of the

1 Navarro Report?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Do you know someone named Mark Cook?

4 A I'm invoking my right to silence under the Fifth Amendment.

5 Q Who is Mr. Cook?

14 Q Have you ever had any discussions with Phil Waldron about anything related 15 to the 2020 election?

16 A I'm invoking my right to silence under the Fifth Amendment.

17 Q Did you assist Mr. Waldron in the preparation of any materials that were 18 shared with Members of Congress in December 2020 or January of 2021?

19 A I'm invoking my right to silence under the Fifth Amendment.

20 Q Do you know Ivan Raiklin?

21 A I'm invoking my right to silence under the Fifth Amendment.

22 Q Have you ever had any discussions with Mr. Raiklin about anything related to 23 the 2020 election?

24 A I'm invoking my right to silence under the Fifth Amendment.

25 Q Did you assist Mr. Raiklin in the preparation of any materials that were

1 shared with Members of Congress or White House personnel in December 2020 or 2 January 2021?

3 A I'm invoking my right to silence under the Fifth Amendment.

4 Q Take a look at exhibit 4, please. Exhibit 4 is an email chain beginning on 5 Sunday, December 27th, 2020, at 11:18 p.m., which you're not copied on. And I'll 6 represent to you that's an email to Mark Meadows.

7 But the last in time -- or second to last in time -- email is from Mr. Raiklin to what
8 appears to be your work email address on December 27th at 11:27 p.m.

9 Do you recognize that email?
