

Chassahowitzka National Wildlife Refuge Hunting & Fishing Regulations & Permit General Provisions

Chassahowitzka National Wildlife Refuge, one of a nationwide system of over 500 refuges, is on Florida’s Gulf Coast about 65 miles north of St. Petersburg. It comprises over 31,000 acres of saltwater bays and estuaries and brackish marshes with a fringe of hardwood swamps along the eastern boundary.

The primary objective of a national wildlife refuge is to provide habitat for the conservation and protection of all species of wildlife. The harvest of surplus animals is one tool used to manage wildlife populations. Carefully managed hunts maintain wildlife populations at a level compatible with the environment, provide wholesome recreational opportunities, and permit the use of a valuable renewable resource.

The regulations listed below supplement the general regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas as set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32. Hunting will be in accordance with applicable State regulations.

General Hunting Regulations

Hunting is prohibited within 100 yards of any navigable waterway or residential area.

Boats

Boats must be removed from the area daily. Conventional boats are allowed on all open areas of Chassahowitzka Refuge.

Airboats are prohibited in all refuge waters in Citrus County except on the designated airboat routes, where a refuge airboat permit is required. (NOTE: Contact the refuge office for additional information on these permits.)

Airboats are confined to navigable waters in Hernando County. Operation of airboats through or over marsh vegetation is prohibited.

Please respect the following signs

Millions of people visit national wildlife refuges each year. The impact of human activity, if not regulated, can degrade these wildlands. Signs control recreational activities while protecting natural resources on the refuge. Please respect the following signs.

This sign clearly marks all refuge property. It is your responsibility to know where the property lines are and hunt within the boundaries.

“Pack It In, Pack It Out” sign. All equipment and garbage must be removed at the end of the day.

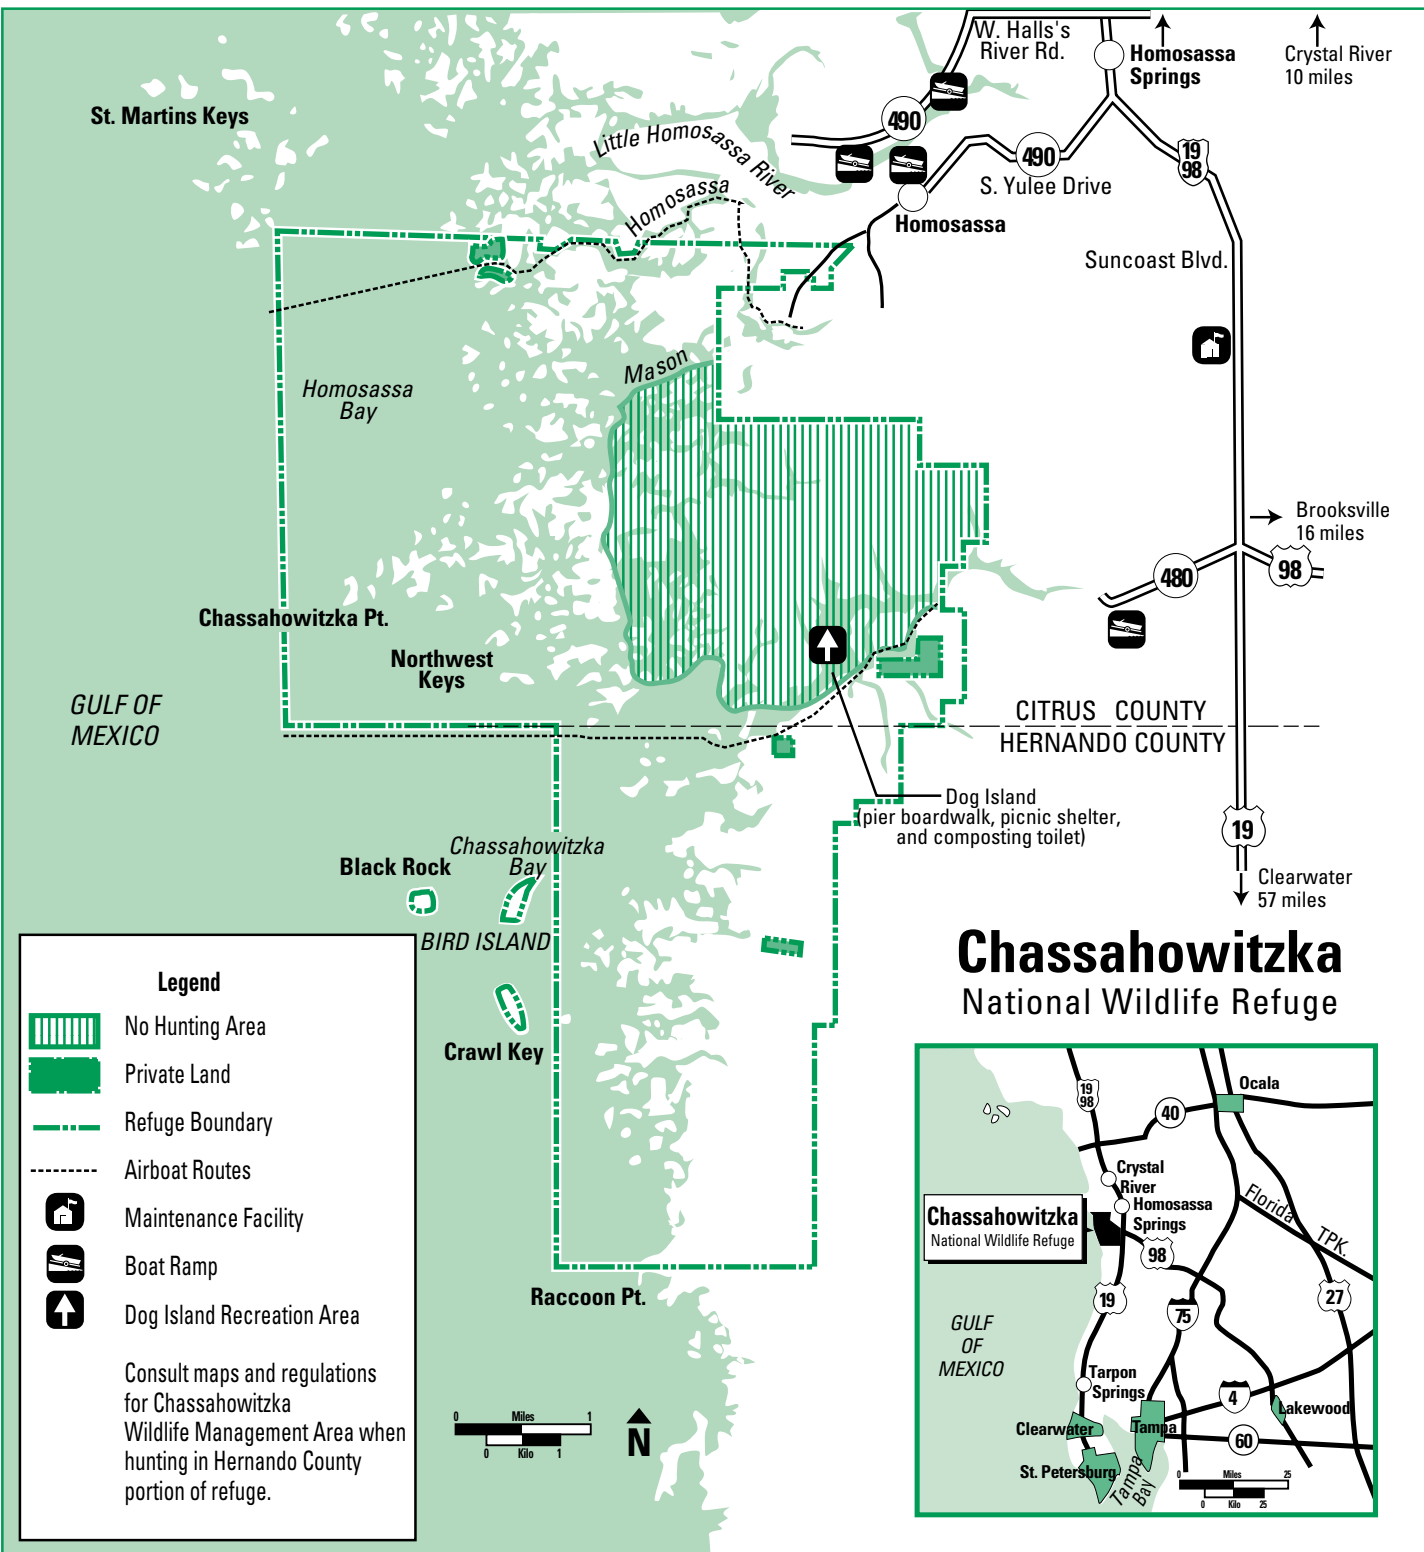

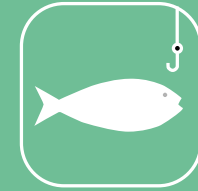

No hunting is permitted in this designated area.
