SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Commission instituted this investigation on March 16, 2004, based on a complaint filed by Beamhit, LLC, and Safeshot, LLC, both of Columbia, MD, and Safeshot, Inc. of New York, New York. 69 Fed. Reg. 12346 (2004). The complaint as amended alleges violations of section 337 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain gun barrels used in firearms training systems by reason of infringement of claims 1-2, 4-5, 8, 15, 21-22 and 26 of U.S. Patent No. 5,829,180 and claims 1-3, 7, 9, 14-18, 20, 24, 27, 32-33, 37-40, 44-45, 49-51, and 54 of U.S. Patent No. 6,322,365. The complaint named six respondents: Widec S.A. Decolletage, of Moutier, Switzerland; AMI Corporation SA, of Moutier, Switzerland; Crown AirMunition Holding, of Hilversum, The Netherlands; AirMunition International Corporation of Hilversum, The Netherlands; AirMunition Industries S.A. of Belprahon-Moutier, Switzerland; and AirMunition North America, Inc., of Norcross, Georgia. The complaint further alleges that an industry in the United States exists as required by subsection (a)(2) of section 337.

On April 27, 2004, complainants filed a motion pursuant Commission rule 210.16 for an order to show cause and entry of a default judgment against Crown AirMunition Holding, AirMunition International Corp., AirMunition Industries S.A., and AirMunition North America, Inc. (collectively "AirMunition respondents"). None of the respondents filed a response to the motion. The ALJ issued a show cause order (Order No. 6) on May 12, 2004. The order required the AirMunition respondents to show cause why they should not be held in default, having not responded to the complaint, notice of investigation, or motion for a show cause order. On August 16, 2004, complainants filed a motion for an order finding the AirMunition respondents in default due to their failure to respond to the motion to show cause.

The ALJ issued the subject ID on September 21, 2004. The ALJ indicates in the initial determination that the AirMunition respondents did not respond to the complaint, notice of investigation, or the order to show cause. Consequently, the ALJ found the AirMunition respondents in default, and pursuant to Commission Rule 210.16(b)(3), the ALJ found that the AirMunition respondents had waived their right to appear, be served with documents, or contest the allegations in the complaint. No petitions for review were filed.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
