Strength Through Cooperation

*United States of America
Department of Defense*

DSCA

We foster Security Cooperation programs vital to U.S. national security to build trust and influence in peacetime, to have access to regions of the world during times of crisis, and to ensure interoperability with coalition partners during times of conflict.

Security Cooperation programs provide financial and technical assistance; transfer of defense materiel, training and services to friends and allies; and promote military-to-military contacts.

DSCA works with our friends and allies worldwide to:

- Build new defense relationships and sustain alliances.*
- Promote human rights and civilian control of the military.*
- Support international victims of natural or manmade disasters.*

We partner with the U.S. State Department, the Military Departments, other U.S. Government organizations, U.S. industry, and our foreign government customers to provide:

- Foreign Military Sales (FMS)*
- Foreign Military Financing*
- International Military Education and Training*
- Excess Defense Articles*
- Humanitarian Assistance*
- Humanitarian Civic Assistance*
- Mine Action Training (Awareness and Removal Techniques)*
- Other Security Cooperation programs*

DSCA manages more than:

- $12 Billion in new sales each year*
- 14,000 international military students from over 130 countries*
- 900 security assistance personnel in 102 countries*
- $222 Billion in open FMS cases*
- $11 Billion in customer funds*
- $59 Million in Humanitarian Assistance and Mine Action funds*
