

Community-Based Pre-Disaster Mitigation for Community- and Faith-based Organizations Student Guide Table of Contents

Introductory Workshop

- Introduction to Partnerships in Pre-disaster Mitigation
- A Caveat on Community-Based Mitigation Programs
- Mitigation vs. Preparedness and Why Pre-disaster Mitigation is Important
- The Importance of CBO/FBO Involvement with Emergency Management in Community Pre-Disaster Mitigation Activities

Section 1. Becoming a Community-based Organization (CBO) and/or Faith-based Organization (FBO) Pre-Disaster Mitigation Volunteer

- Introduction to Partnerships in Pre-Disaster Mitigation
- Section 1.A: Understanding our Risk of Disaster
- Section 1.B: Can we Help Make our Community Safer?
- Section 1.C: Establishing Mitigation Partnerships between Emergency Managers and CBOs/FBOs

Section 2. Setting Up for Success in Community-Based Mitigation

- Section 2.A. Checking out the Local Mitigation Scene
- Section 2.B. Effectively Identifying and Recruiting Individual Volunteers
- Section 2.C. Identifying and Recruiting Volunteers from other CBOs and FBOs
- Section 2.D. Setting up an Organizational Workshop
- Section 2.E. Expanding the Network

Section 3. Program and Project Development

- Section 3.A. How to Be a Mentor
- Section 3.B. Thinking Creatively about Resources
- Section 3.C. Creating No-cost and Low-cost Projects

Section 4. Media/Publicity/Recognition

- Section 4.A. Publicizing your Program and Activities
- Section 4.B. Recognizing Volunteers and Partners

Section 5. Identifying and Implementing Projects within Your Program

Section 6. Learning from Our Experiences

Section 7. Sustainability: Keeping Volunteers Engaged

Section 8. Examples of Success

- Section 8.A. Examples of Successful CBO/FBO Integration in Local Pre-disaster Mitigation
- Section 8.B. Mitigation Challenges
- Section 8.C. Best Practices

Acknowledgements

Resource Guide