GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

A. Use of Form and Place of Filing.

1. (a) A “small business issuer,” defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”) may use this form to register up to $10,000,000 of securities to be sold for cash, if they have not registered more than $10,000,000 in securities offerings in any continuous 12-month period, including the transaction being registered. In calculating the $10,000,000 ceiling, issuers should include all offerings which were registered under the Securities Act, other than any amounts registered on Form S-8.
 - (b) A small business issuer may use this form until it (1) registers more than $10 million under the Securities Act in any continuous 12-month period (other than securities registered on Form S-8), (2) elects to file on a non-transitional disclosure document (other than the proxy statement disclosure in Schedule 14A), or (3) no longer meets the definition of small business issuer. Non-transitional disclosure documents include: (1) Securities Act registration statement forms other than Forms SB-1, S-3 (if the issuer incorporates by reference transitional Exchange Act reports), S-8 and S-4 (if the issuer relies upon the transitional disclosure format in that form); (2) Exchange Act periodic reporting Forms 10-K and 10-Q; (3) Exchange Act registration statement Form 10; and (4) reports or registration statements on Forms 10-KSB, 10-QSB or 10-SB which do not use the transitional disclosure document format. A reporting company may not return to the transitional disclosure forms.
2. The small business issuer shall file the registration statement in the Washington, D.C. office.
 3. If the small business issuer is a reporting company or a holding company of a bank (see the definition of “bank” in section 12(i) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934), it should file the registration statement in the Commission’s Washington, D.C. headquarters.

B. General Requirements

1. In preparing a registration statement on this Form, reference should be made to the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act, particularly Regulation C which sets forth requirements for the preparation and filing of a registration statement such as paper type and size.
2. Issuers registering securities for the first time should be aware of Form SR and Rule 463 under the Securities Act concerning sales of registered securities and the use of proceeds. First-time issuers also should be aware of Exchange Act Rule 15c2-8 (§240.15c2-8), which requires broker-dealers to deliver a prospectus 48 hours before a sale of securities can be confirmed.
3. Issuers engaged in real estate, banking, insurance, oil and gas or mining activities should consult the Industry Guides in Item 801 of Regulation S-K (17 CFR 229.801). Real estate companies also should refer to Item 13 [Investment Policies of Registrant], Item 14 [Description of Real Estate], and Item 15 [Operating Data] of Form S-11 (17 CFR 239.18).

C. Preparation and Filing of the Registration Statement.

Part I of this form, which relates to the content of certain information about the issuer, provides alternative disclosure formats. The registrant may elect either of these alternative formats.

D. Financial Statement Requirements.

Regardless of the disclosure model used, all registrants shall furnish the financial statements required by Part F/S of this Form SB-1.

E. Composition of Prospectus

The information required by Part I and Part F/S of this registration statement shall comprise the prospectus.

F. Cover Page of Registration Statement

Issuers electing Alternative 1 should furnish the information required by Item 501 of Regulation S-B in lieu of the information required by Alternative 1 with respect to the cover page of the registration statement. Issuers electing Alternative 2 should furnish the information required by Item 501 of Regulation S-B in lieu of the information required by Item 1 of Alternative 2.

G. Canadian Issuer—Consent of Service

Canadian issuers eligible to use this Form should file as an exhibit to this registration statement a written irrevocable consent and power of attorney on Form F-X (§239.42 of this title).

H. Registration of Additional Securities

With respect to the registration of additional securities for an offering pursuant to Rule 462(b) under the Securities Act, the registrant may file a registration statement consisting only of the following: the facing page; a statement that the contents of the earlier registration statement, identified by file number, are incorporated by reference; required opinions and consents; the signature page; and any price-related information omitted from the earlier registration statement in reliance on Rule 430A that the registrant chooses to include in the new registration statement. The information contained in such a Rule 462(b) registration statement shall be deemed to be a part of the earlier registration statement as of the date of effectiveness of the Rule 462(b) registration statement. Any opinion or consent required in the Rule 462(b) registration statement may be incorporated by reference from the earlier registration statement with respect to the offering, if: (i) such opinion or consent expressly provides for such incorporation; and (ii) such opinion relates to the securities registered pursuant to Rule 462(b). See Rule 411(c) and Rule 439(b) under the Securities Act.
